FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25 1887.

Editor Miller, of Goodland Herald, made us a short call, to-day.

See those new combination suits at FENDIG'S.

Bro. Marshall is adding substantial improvements to his property.

Roberts keeps the best agricultural machinery, farm wagons, buggies, etc., on the market.

Lucinda Miller was taken to the insane asylum at Indianapolis, by Sheriff Yeoman, last Monday.

Linen towels, table-cloths and napkins, at FENDIG'S.

Grand opening at Nannal's new jewelry store, Saturday evening, November 26th. Everybody invited.

Percy Taylor, at the Porter hay barn, pays the top of the market for hay. Remember that, and give him a call.

A. Leopold and Geo. Hollingsworth are elevating the sidewalk in front of their business properties, on Washington street.

Golden opportunities, silver bargains, and nickle specialties, at R. FENDIG'S.

Hon. W. D. Owen was in Rensselaer Wednesday, we suppose to procure from his political groomers a report of the condition of his fences.

If you want to see the largest and most beautiful line of silk handkerchiefs in the country, call at R. FENDIG'S immediately, if not sooner.

A son of John Kimble, of southeast Marion, aged about four years, was kicked in the face, by a horse, last Friday. Dr. Washburn dressed the wound.

We keep the best, and sell so cheap, That he who buys must profits reap. R. FENDIG.

Honest money will always buy honest goods of R. Fendig. Honesty with him has always been his best policy.

TO EXCHANGE!—Kansas lands in Kingman, Edwards, Wabausas, Harper, and other counties, to trade for Indiana Farms and Farming lands.

Owing to continued bad health Clint D. Stackhouse will sell his fine farm.

Fendig's Little Prices pick his Big Stocks right out of doors.

A general preparation against winter inconveniences has been made by the Monon management in the erection of many miles of snow fences along the route where needed.

TAKE NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the undersigned by note or book account, are requested to call at once and make settlement. ROBERT H. YEOMAN.

There was a good attendance at the entertainment given by the Ladies' Literary Society, and the programme was well received by the audience.

Pleasant surprises in every department. True merit in my goods.—Great saving in my prices. R. FENDIG.

Idaville Observer: A rather peculiar accident occurred on the east bound freight between here and Monticello last Friday evening. Lowe Bros. shipped several car loads of cattle from Monticello, and soon after starting the beasts broke one of the doors off the car, and before the fact was known nine head had jumped from the car to the ground. Strange to say none of them were seriously injured. They were recovered the next day at farm houses along the road.

New backgrounds, new camera, new balustrade, new burnisher and new ideas! Now is the time to get those photos taken you were talking about. Respectfully, J. A. SHARP.

A large party of friends provided with an abundance of eatables, surprised uncle Milton Makeever, at his residence in Newton township, by unexpectedly swooping down upon him and enjoying Thanksgiving festivities with him and family.

For sale by F. B. MEYER.

It is claimed that, owing to the opening of a natural gas well at Fisher's station, near Plainfield, Ind., the earth has settled several inches.

Roberts keeps buggies and wagons on hand—the best and the cheapest. Be sure and give him a call before going elsewhere.

Mr. Hayne, of South Carolina, the man who evoked Webster's famous speech, visited Webster at Marshfield, and once said of Webster's argument, "A man who can make such speeches as that ought never to die."

Money to loan on Jasper and Newton county farms. Those wanting loan call on C. P. WRIGHT.

You need no spectacles to see that R. Fendig's clothing is the cheapest and best in town.

DR. QUIVEY—Dentist—Extracts Teeth without pain. Also does all kinds of Dental work neatly and carefully. Warrants it satisfactory in every respect, and at very reasonable prices.

A critical inspection should be given to my stock of clothing.—Don't keep me in suspense, but come at once. R. FENDIG.

Just the thing for the ladies to use about the house.

COIT'S HONEST HOUSE PAINT.
Don't buy a paint containing water or benzine when for the same money you can procure COIT & CO'S PURE PAINT that is warranted to be an HONEST, GENUINE LINSEED-OIL PAINT and free from water and benzine. Demand this brand and take no other. Merchants handling it are our agents and authorized by us, in writing, to warrant it to wear 5 YEARS with 3 COATS or 4 YEARS with 2 COATS. Our Shades are the Latest Styles used in the East now becoming so popular in the West, and up with the times. Try this brand of HONEST PAINT. You will never regret it. This is the wise is sufficient.

COIT'S FLOOR PAINT WON'T DRY STICKY.
Ever buy Floor Paint that never dried beyond the sticky point, waste a week, spoil the job, then swear? Next time try COIT'S FLOOR PAINT, 4 suitable shades, warranted to dry hard as a rock over night. No trouble. No swearing.

CAUTION!
Be suspicious when substitutes are offered by Dealers, stating that "they are as good as ours" and are not so. Cheap imitations are sold here and give more profit to the dealer than to the customer, and life is too short to waste time and money on them. COIT & CO., of CHICAGO, Manufacturers
