FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1887.

Go to F. B. Meyer's.

Mark Yeoman returned from Kansas one day last week.

For extensive variety in holiday goods, F. B. Meyer takes the lead.

Section boss Ed. O'Connor is happy over a fine boy.

See those new combination suits at FENDIG's.

Andy Yeoman is visiting relatives and friends in Kansas.

Linen towels, table-cloths and napkins, at FENDIG's.

'Squire James Yeoman is attending the White Circuit Court, at Monticello.

Percy Taylor, at the Porter hay barn, pays the top of the market for hay. Remember that, and give him a call.

Miss Nora Moriarty has gone to her brothers, who reside in Los Angeles, California.

The most acceptable and substantial Christmas presents are to be procured at Ralph Fendig's.— Don't let this fact escape you.

'Kos' Yeoman has moved from Greensburg, Kansas, to Roseville, Vermillion county, Ill.

Golden opportunities, silver bargains, and nickel specialties, at R. FENDIG's.

The most extensive stock of books—Christmas Specialties—is to be found at F. B. Meyer's. Everybody invited to call.

If you want to see the largest and most beautiful line of silk handkerchiefs in the country, call at FENDIG's immediately, if not sooner.

Ralph Fendig has added an extensive variety of new goods to his already large stock.

We keep the best, and sell so cheap, that he who buys must profits reap. R. FENDIG.

J. C. Williams, of 'oshocton, Ohio, has put up a photograph gallery nearly opposite the Sentinel office.

Honest money will always buy honest goods of R. Fendig. Honesty with him has always been his best policy.

Miss Thompson, a missionary lately returned from China, will hold services at the Missionary Baptist church Saturday night and Sunday morning at 10:30. Everybody is invited to come and hear her interesting story of Chinese missions.

Wm. S. Coen has purchased the residence of E. C. Nowels, corner of Weston and Susan streets.

TO EXCHANGE!—Kansas lands in Kingman, Edwards, Wabausas, Harper, and other counties, to trade for Indiana Farms and Farming lands.

C. P. WRIGHT.

The 27th inst., will be the golden anniversary of the wedding of Reeder Antrim and his estimable wife.

Owing to continued bad health Clint D. Stackhouse will sell his fine farm.

James Fisher has sold his residence property to Wilborn Day, of Barkley township.

Fendig's Little Prices kick his Big Stocks right out of doors.

Ei. and Lew. Day, the well-known plasterers, have commenced the erection of a house on their lot in Benjamin's addition.

TAKE NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the undersigned by note or book account, are requested to call at once and make settlement.

ROBERT H. YEOMAN.

F. B. Meyer has exhibited his usual good taste in his selection of holiday goods. Call at the "Old Reliable" before making purchases elsewhere.

Pleasant surprises in every department. True merit in my goods.—Great saving in my prices.
R. FENDIG.

Judge Hammond and Senator Thompson hold opposing views in regard to Bohemian oats deals, at Monticello, this week.

New backgrounds, new camera, new balustrade, new burner and new ideas! Now is the time to get those photos taken you were talking about.

Respectfully,

J. A. SHARP.

Mr W. T. Perkins and wife started for Quincy, Michigan, on Wednesday evening last, to attend the funeral of their brother, B.
Perkins, of Mishawaka.

Newton county farms. Those wanting loans call on

C. P. WRIGHT.

You need no spectacles to see that R. Fendig's clothing is the cheapest and best in town.

W. R. Parker has purchased Duvall's Livery outfit.

The best Sewing Machine in the market is the ELDREDGE. Call at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Mc-Ewen, Agent, Rensselaer, Ind., and see machines which, notwithstanding their superiority over all others, will be sold for less money.

F. B. Meyer will suit you in Holiday supplies. Don't fail to give him a call.

Ed. Smith, of this place, and Miss Frances O. Lewis were married at the home of the bride, in Carpenter township, last Saturday evening.

These of our subscribers who have promised us wood will greatly oblige us by bringing it along.

DR. QUIVEY—Dentist—Extracts Teeth without pain. Also does all kinds of Dental work neatly and carefully. Warrants its satisfactory in every respect, and at very reasonable prices.

A critical inspection should be given to my stock of clothing.— Don't keep me in suspense, but come at once.

R. FENDIG.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Under the auspices of the Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, it is proposed to have a grand rally of the Indiana Democracy of the State in that city, on Wednesday, January 11, 1888. In carrying out this laudable purpose the Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, has sent the following circular letter to every Democratic paper in the State:

INDIANAPOEIS, Dec. 5, 1887.

DEAR SIR:—The Hendricks Club of this city, believing that it is the duty of every good Democrat to take not only a deep interest, but also an active part, in the political affairs of the country, and believing further that the welfare of the country and the continual prosperity of its institutions shall be determined and guided by the principles of the Democratic party, in order to add to the organized strength of the party have determined upon a State rally of the Democracy, particularly the young Democracy, in this city, Wednesday, January 11, 1888, for the purpose of organizing Hendricks Clubs in every county in the State.
We earnestly request you to assist us by the liberal use of your columns in making this meeting a grand success.

A large attendance of active workers from every county will inspire much confidence and enthusiasm.
Reduced rates will be secured. Prominent Democrats will be present to address the convention. We feel the importance of early organization, as Indiana will be hotly contested. Would be glad to hear from you on the matter.
Please address John B. Harker, Secretary.

JAS. H. RICE, President.
JNO. B. HARKER, Secretary.

The Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, now about 400 strong, is enlisted to a man in the patriotic endeavor to secure at the earliest day practicable a thorough organization of the Democratic party of the State, and it is believed that the contemplated rally, January 11, will meet with cordial approval throughout the State, and that the meeting will be large and enthusiastic, and in the highest degree beneficial.

It is expected that the State Democratic Central Committee will hold a meeting on the 11th of January for the purpose of consultation, and everything will be done, including good speakers, to make the meeting a success. Every-county in the State should be represented, and it is needless to say, if Democrats respond, the party will receive such an impetus as will be felt throughout the coming campaign.
