GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Under the auspices of the Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, it is proposed to have a grand rally of the Indiana Democracy of the State in that city, on Wednesday, January 11, 1888. 1. carrying out this laudable purpose the Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, has sent the following circular letter to every Democratic paper in the State:

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 5, 1887.

DEAR SIR:—The Hendricks Club of this city, believing that it is the duty of every good Democrat to take not only a deep interest, but also an active part, in the political affairs of the country, and believing further that the welfare of the country and the continual prosperity of its institutions shall be determined and guided by the principles of the Democratic party, in order to add to the organized strength of the party have determined upon a State rally of the Democracy, particularly the young Democracy, in this city, Wednesday, January 11, 1888, for the purpose of organizing Hendricks Clubs in every county in the State. We earnestly request you to assist us by the liberal use of your columns in making this meeting a grand success.

A large attendance of active workers from every county will inspire much confidence and enthusiasm. Reduced rates will be secured. Prominent Democrats will be present to address the convention. We feel the importance of early organization, as Indiana will be hotly contested. Would be glad to hear from you on the matter. Please address John B. Harker, Secretary.

JAS. H. RICE, President.

JNO. B. HARKER, Secretary.

The Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, now about 400 strong, is enlisted to a man in the patriotic endeavor to secure at the earliest day practicable a thorough organization of the Democratic party of the State, and it is believed that the contemplated rally, January 11, will meet with cordial approval throughout the State, and that the meeting will be large and enthusiastic, and in the highest degree beneficial.

It is expected that the State Democratic Central Committee will hold a meeting on the 11th of January for the purpose of consultation, and everything will be done, including good speakers, to make the meeting a success. Every county in the State should be represented, and it is needless to say, if Democrats respond, the party will receive such an impetus as will be felt throughout the coming campaign.
