

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, too h food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this bad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Joel Parker, New Jersey's great Democratic War Governor died on Monday last.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottle free at F. B. Meyer's Drug store. Large Bottles $1 6

Gen. Tom Brown, Republican member of Congress from the Fifth District this State, strongly favors a revision of the present tariff laws, "because there are many injustices in them, and we have grown beyond the condition of affairs of twenty-five years ago, when the present laws were enacted."

Comfort from Newspapers.

Many years ago, in one of the severest winters when there was much hardship among the poor, a city paper suggested that old newspapers, spread over the bed, would form an excellent substitute for blankets and coverlets. This brought upon the journal a great deal of harmless ridicule from other papers, but it brought comfort to many a poor family. In the matter of bed-clothing, especially, we are apt to associate warmth with weight, and do not consider that there is no warmth in the coverings themselves, but that they merely prevent the heat of the body from passing off. Whatever is a poor conductor of heat will make a warm covering. Paper itself is a poor conductor, but still poorer are the thin layers of air that are confined when two or three newspapers are laid upon one another. A few newspapers laid over the bed will keep one much warmer than some of the heavy, close-woven blankets. We do not propose newspapers as a substitute for blankets and coverlets, but it is one of those make-shifts that it is well to know. In traveling one may, by the aid of a few papers, secure a comfortable rest in a thinly-clad bed, and if we cannot afford to give a destitute family a blanket for a comforter, we may show them how to increase the usefulness of their thin coverings by stitching a few layers of newspapers between them. It may be well to remind those who grow window-plants that, by removing them away from the window, and strapping a cover of newspapers over them, they may be preserved from harm in severely cold nights. With the plants, as with ourselves, it is not so much that cold comes in as that the heat goes off, and often a slight protection will prevent the escape of heat.—American Agriculturist.

Matrimonial Harmony.

"Are you as happy now as you were before you were married?" asked Mrs. Yeast of young Mrs. Crimsonbeak.

"Yes, indeed," replied the lady, "and a great deal happier."

"That's strange," suggested the philanthropist's wife.

"Not at all strange," came from the young married woman. "You see, before I was married I used to spend half my time worrying about what dress I should wear when Daniel called."

"But don't you try just as hard now to look well when your husband returns home at night?" interrupted Mrs. Yeast.

"Well, you see," went on the bride of two summers, "I don't worry any about it now, as I have only one dress to my name."—Yonkers Statesman.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter to the Eldredge Manufacturing Co., Chicago, written by an English dealer in Sewing Machines:

Gents: I have telegraphed you this day to send on as quick as possible 50 No. 2 tables and covers. I find I shall be out of these much sooner than the other styles. The stands and heads you can send at earliest convenience.

I am very much pleased to say that these last hundred machines are highly satisfactory. For finish, smoothness and easy running, I really believe they are unequalled by any other Sewing Machine selling in this country.

The machines require less preparation for delivery than any other machines I have handled during the whole course of my experience extending over 20 years.

Yours Truly,

THOS. RHODES.

Mrs. J. W. McEwen is agent for these machines in this county.—Call and see them before purchasing elsewhere.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free bottle at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store 2.

"FATHER, can you ever have another wife beside mother?" "No, my boy; what possessed you to ask such a question?" "Because I saw in the old family Bible where you married Anno Domini in 1835, and that isn't mother, for her name was Sally Smith."

After forty years' experience in the preparation of more than One Hundred Thousand applications for patents in the United States and Foreign countries, the publishers of the Scientific American continue to act as solicitors for patents, caveats, trade-marks, copyrights, etc., for the United States, and to obtain patents in Canada, England, France, Germany, and all other countries. NOTICE OF ATTACHMENT.

James T. Eskridge vs. Mary Hawhe. Before John Maguire, J. P. Kankakee Township, Jasper County, Indiana. Whereas James T. Eskridge on the 10th day of October, 1887, filed in said court a bill of complaint against Mary Hawhe for Fifty-one Dollars and fifty cents "$51.50", said Mary Hawhe being a non-resident of Indiana, I issued at request of plaintiff an affidavit a summons, and writ of attachment against the property of said Mary Hawhe, returning the 19th day of October, 1887. Summons returned "not found." Writ of attachment returned served upon the personal property of said Mary Hawhe. Therefore notice is hereby given to said Mary Hawhe of the pendency of said suit to be tried before me at my office in Kankakee Township, Jasper County, Indiana, on the 8th day of March, 1888, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that unless the said Mary Hawhe do and appear at that time, to defend the same, the matter will be heard and determined in her absence. Dated this 20th day of October, 1887. "SEAL." JOHN MAGUIRE, Justice. October 28, 1887 - $6.

DRS. STARKEY and Palens' advertisement of Compound Oxygen in this issue of this paper should be read by all of our readers. The cures which this treatment is effecting are almost miraculous. In the few years since its discovery they have treated in all parts of the world upwards of fifty thousand patients. Thousands of these have given testimonials that they are cured, and a large proportion of the others report great benefit from its use. Their offer to send a two hundred page book free, giving a history of the treatment, with a large number of testimonials, is a liberal one. Read the advertisement and send for the book now.
