

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 3 1888

Entered at the post-office at Rensselaer, Ind. as second-class matter.

Democratic Central Committee Meeting.

The members of the Democratic Central Committee of Jasper County, Indiana, are requested to meet at the Court House, in Rensselaer, on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1888, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of reorganization and the transaction of important business. Let every member be present.

JAS. W. McEWEN, Sec'y.

There is no tariff, whatever, upon hard coal.—Rensselaer Republican.

In its next issue the Republican should explain to its readers the whyfore and wherefore.

Many reckless Democratic papers continue to assert that a tariff of 75 cents a ton is levied upon imported hard coal.—Rensselaer Republican.

This is simply the method our neighbor has adopted to wheedle his readers into the belief that there is no tax on coal. The price of hard coal is regulated by that of bituminous, which is taxed, is profited to the same extent, and the consumers foot the bill, and every cent of the tribute money goes to swell the wealth of coal monopolies—not a penny into the Government treasury.

HENRY A. BARKLEY.

After a protracted illness, departed this life, at his home, in Barkley township, Jasper county, Indiana, Saturday night, January 28th, 1888, aged 58 years, 2 months and 26 days.

When a lad Mr. Barkley removed with his parents from Lewis town, Pennsylvania, to this county and with the exception of the few years during which he was Auditor of Jasper county, resided upon the farm where he died, a period of nearly 41 years.

Owing to his strict integrity and the great interest he manifested in the cause of education, he for many years filled the office of township trustee—elected to the position by a constituency largely opposed to him in politically. These same well known virtues also contributed to his election as Auditor. It is needless for us to say that he conducted the public trusts imposed upon him with efficiency, honesty, fidelity, and to the satisfaction of the people. At the time of his death he was Chairman of the Democratic County Committee and his last official act was the issuance of certificates to delegates for the late conference at Indianapolis. In a few lines to us concerning their distribution, he added this, to us sad and mournful sentence: "And this closes my political career."

As a citizen, he was enterprising, honest and upright. As a neighbor, he was obliging and accommodating. As a Mason, he was one of the most faithful. He was a dutiful son and brother; an affectionate and indulgent husband and father. A wife, two children, brothers and sisters and numerous relatives and friends mourn his death.

His remains were interred in the Barkley cemetery last Monday, in the presence of a vast concourse of citizens and the Masonic fraternity, Rev. K. J. Duncan officiating.

THE WOOL TARIFF.

the day, return to their excuse for a home to partake in a meal which in many cases a rich man's dog would scorn to eat. These children of God who are always to be with us must suffer the pangs of hardship and misfortune, the burden of daily toil; scant, or at the best, a coarse diet, cold houses, shortage of fuel, and worst of all these sufferings brought about through sickness, poverty and misfortune must be increased during cold winter by the use of cotton clothing, as woolen goods are too costly owing to the heartless tariff duties of monopoly manufacturers. When England was a high tariff nation the farmer was protected by a tariff on grain until the masses were at the point of starvation.—Humanity triumphed and the odious duties for protection were abolished. If the farmer will reflect he will see that duties in the shape of tariff taxes on the common necessities of life, such as clothing, fuel, and the material of which their homes are constructed aggravates the hardships of the poor, and beholding naught but destitution and poverty; the lot of themselves and families, they become fit subjects for conversion to the theories of those who teach communism and anarchy. The space between the rich and the poor in this country is getting too wide."

Personal.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee.

THE MODEST AND THE T.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, of Philadelphia, enjoys the proud distinction of being the oldest family and literary paper in America, if not in the world. Originally established by Benjamin Franklin in 1728, and appearing in its present character in 1821, it has had an uninterrupted career of 158 years! As its originator, Franklin, was one of the first men of his time, or any time, both in ability and eminence, the Post has ever tried to follow its founder, by carrying out during its whole course of existence the best aims and highest purposes of a family newspaper. In its management, conduct and choice of reading material usefulness, purity, morality, progress and entertainment have always been its watchwords and its guides.

The history of THE POST is the history of American literature and authorship. Not to speak of those who preceded to and after the War of the Revolution made it a power in the land, since 1821 there is hardly a writer famous in the world of letters whose works have not adorned its pages. Among these may be mentioned Horace Greeley, Dickens, Mrs. Southworth, Poe, Halleck, Bryant, T. S. Arthur, Ned Buntline, Gilmore Simms, Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. Henry Wood and others.

It is no wonder then that THE POST claims the right to add to the glory of being the oldest family paper, the even more honorable title of being THE BEST. Always keeping in sight what was Highest Purity, Most Entertaining, in a word, the Best in literature, it has never once failed in its long career to go forth as a weekly missionary into the hands of thousands of the finest families in all quarters of the land, the most welcome and cheerful of visitors.

For the coming year THE POST has secured the best writers of this country and Europe, in Prose and Verse Fact and Fiction. In these respects as in the past it will only have the best. Its pages will be perfectly free from the degrading and polluting trash which characterizes many other so-called literary and family papers. It gives more for the money, and of a better class, than any other publication in the world. Each volume contains, in addition to its well edited departments, twenty-five first-class Serials, and upwards of five hundred Short Stories. Every number is replete with useful information and amusement comprising Tales, Sketches Biography, Anecdotes, Statistics, Facts, Recipes, Hints, Science, Art, Philosophy, Manners, Customs, Proverbs, Problems, Personals, News, Wit and Humor, Historical Essays, Remarkable Events, New Inventions, Recent Discoveries, and a complete report of all the latest Fashions, novelties in Needlework, and fullest and freshest information relating to personal and home adornment, and domestic matters. To the people everywhere it will prove the best, most instructive, reliable and moral paper that ever entered their homes.

Terms, $2.00 a year in advance.

A specimen copy of this excellent family paper will be sent free on application.

Give Them A Chance!

That is to say your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bozchee's German Syrup which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain

D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIC, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night gasping for breath. My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and herbs and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WONDERFUL CURE FOR ASTHMA AND CATARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date:
Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I find the Remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief."
E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kan., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany; tried the climate of different states—nothing afforded relief like your preparation."
L. B. Phelps, P. M., Griggs, Ohio writes: "Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 3 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years."
H. C. Plimpton, Joliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I find it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever tried."
We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy, we will send a complete TRIAL PACKAGE, FREE OF CHARGE. If your druggist fails to keep it do not permit him to sell you some worthless imitation by his representing it to be just as good, but send directly to us. Write your name and address plainly.
