Social Fall.

An English gentleman and his wife, who had been traveling in Sicily, fell into conversation one day with the driver of the vehicle in which they were riding.

"I was not always as you see me," said the driver sadly. "I once occupied a much higher position."

The travelers lent their ears at once for a romantic story of nobility in distress. "Yes," added the driver. "I was once a brigand, and all the men of my family occupied the same honorable position, but I became engaged to a girl whom I loved to distraction, and she disliked the profession on account of its risks, persuaded me to give it up, so now, alas! I am only a carriage driver."—Troy Press.

T. Heffernan, Baldwin, Mich.: I have had rheumatism all over my body and limbs for two years. Have doctored with some of the most eminent physicians in Grand Rapids; also spent three months in the Reed City Hospital; during the time I was unable to go up or down stairs most of the time. I suffered terribly. By your advice I began taking Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and from the first it seemed to touch every place in my body, affecting my whole system. I at once began to improve; have taken four bottles and am entirely cured. I believe it to be the greatest medicine in the world for a family remedy. Yours truly, CHARLES ROWE.

Extract from the New York World—A Most Wonderful Remedy.

"NEW YORK, March 23, 1888.—I have been a sufferer from nervousness and nervous prostration for years, and have tried many things, but nothing that was good. Hearing so much about Dr. Green's Nervous Remedy, I sent for it, and those who had it cured, I at last decided to take it. Its effects are really almost magical; for it immediately takes away all nervousness, restlessness, and weariness, and gives you a great deal of energy and a great deal of rest. It is a perfect condition of health, and it is a great boon and a wonderful blessing to nervous people. LUCILLE WERNER."

This wonderful remedy, whose praise is upon everybody's lips, must be the most marvelous in its curative powers of any remedy ever discovered. We hear every day of remarkable cures of nervousness, nervous weakness, exhaustion, paralysis, or other nervous diseases effected by this great nerve tonic and restorative. Here a person rescued from the grave, as was Mrs. Annie Donovan, of Attawagan, Conn.; there a case saved from that terrible disease, insanity, as was Mr. W. C. Miles, of 40 Blue Hill Avenue, Boston, Mass.; again, cures of paralysis of years' standing, like that of Mr. Alexander Horn, of the Marine Asylum, Philadelphia, Pa., who had not been able to walk before for years; or restoration from the severest neuralgia and rheumatism, like the case of Mr. James Bown, of 27 Market street, New York City. Cures of sleeplessness, with nervous and physical exhaustion, are very frequent, the wonderful cure of Mrs. W. F. Albre, of 19 Afton street, Hartford, Conn., being only one among thousands. Altogether, the remarkable powers of Dr. Green's Nervous Nerve Tonic in curing all forms of nervous diseases like the above, and restoring to health sufferers from nervousness, nervous weakness, nervous debility, despondency, depression of mind, headache, trembling, numbness, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, the opium or chloral habit, etc., have demonstrated it to be a remedy of wonderful powers, and at times of almost miraculous effects in curing disease. It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that drug stores everywhere are overwhelmed with orders for this remarkable remedy, and it is almost impossible to supply the demands from the hundreds of thousands of sufferers from nervous diseases. All druggists keep the remedy at $1 per bottle, and its low price places it within the reach of all. If your druggist does not have it, he will get it for you.
