The Jasper County Democratic Convention will be held in the Court House, Rensselaer, on the first Saturday in June next.

Township Democratic Conventions to select delegates to the County Convention will be held in the several townships on the last Saturday in May.

The Democratic Congressional Convention, for this District, will meet at Hammond, Wednesday, May 16, when a candidate will be placed in nomination who will do Billy Owen up Brown.

Our old friend, ex-Sheriff Joe W. Stewart, of White county, now represents this Congressional District on the Democratic State Central Committee. No better selection could have been made.

Delegates to the Democratic Congressional Convention for Jasper county, are Jas. W. McEwen, M. J. Castello, D. W. Shields, D. W. Mellon, George H. Brown, jr., Jay Lamson, A. J. Freeland and Joel E. Spriggs. The Convention is called to meet at Hammond one week from next Wednesday, May 16th. See to it that Jasper county is fully represented.

Ingalls delegates to the Republican National convention were defeated in his own district, Kansas. The man who during the war remained in the rear and went sneaking around and jerking up Kansas soldiers for any and every petty little misdemeanor, subjecting them to punishment, deprivation of pay and rations, thus earning his commissions, deserves to be repudiated.

Prof. E. B. Brown, President of the Normal School at Valparaiso, we understand will be before the Democratic Convention to be held at Hammond, May 16, 1883, for nomination for Congress in this District.

Prof Brown has few equals as a public speaker, a gentleman of ability and untiring energy; and if selected as the Democratic standard bearer, will relegate Billy Owens back into the private walks of life.

Indianapolis News (rep.): That Voorhees was a Knight of the Golden Circle was never believed and probably his story about the documents being concealed in his office is true. Let us suppose it is. Does not Mr. Voorhees see what a terrific arraignment this is of himself? Suppose those documents had been concealed in Oliver P. Morton's office, or Ben Harrison's?

It is a historical fact that the radical drag-net succeeded in capturing but four or five who laid claim to membership with the Democratic party. They were tried, convicted and sentenced to be hung, by an unconstitutional commission organized to convict. The action of the commission exceeded the wishes of Morton, and was calculated to interfere with his object. His object was to attach odium to the Democratic party, and he hoped conviction and imprisonment would accomplish that. Furthermore he believed a reaction would take place and it would be safer to have those men where they could be produced, if called for. Consequently he was required to hustle to secure a commutation of the sentence to imprisonment. Had the sentence of the commission been executed the people would never have discovered the imposition attempted. Bowles and Horsey were admitted into the radical communion! Milhgan was placed in nomination for Senator by the republicans of his district in opposition to a Democratic soldier; and Dodd, who was permitted to escape, soon after turned up as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Wisconsin. The result proved that there were no Democrats in the K. G. C. Had the convicts been hung the republican party would have been deprived of three votes.

The last proposition contained in the extract from the News goes for nothing. The extremes to which the radical leaders of those days, in falsehood and infamous schemes, in order to manufacture capital and create sentiment in their favor, is well remembered. Radical methods came to be well understood. The documents to which the News alludes as having been found in Mr. Voorhees' office, were first in possession of the radical managers, conveyed by them to the place where Carrington, the military satrap, proceeded to find them. The exposition by Mr. Voorhees of the effort to create suspicion of his loyalty, estranged from him the confidence and support of his friends, and deal a blow at the Democratic party, was so clear, explicit and satisfactory, that the scheme failed, and Carrington was removed. Of course had the documents been found "concealed in Oliver P. Morton's office, or Ben Harrison's," suspicion would not have attached to them, for the simple reason that they would have been recognized as necessary adjuncts of their trade.

The excommunication of Ingalls by Senator Voorhees, for his infamous assault upon the memories of McClellan and Hancock, brought the late skulking, sneaking judge advocate to his feet the other day in an attempt to reply. He revamped the old and oft-exploded campaign lies manufactured and set afloat in the war times by Morton and other leaders of the Republican party. It will long be remembered by men who passed through those trying times, that partisan malice had no restriction in the work of defamation and ruin of such as opposed the selfish schemes of certain self-proclaimed "unconditional patriots." Their claim of membership with the dominant party was made a cover for the villainous outrages visited upon those who incurred their personal enmity, or stood in the way of their advancement and aggrandizement. Mr. Voorhees very promptly and properly denounced Ingalls as "a liar, a dirty dog and a scoundrel!"

The Lincoln clubs of the State aid to be composed of the "kids" of the Republican party, pursuant to call met at Indianapolis on Wednesday last. Judge Hammond, Senator Thompson, M. F. Chilcote, I. B. Washburn and W. W. Watson, represented Jasper county, and are a sample lot of the "kids" composing that assemblage. M. F. Chilcote was the "kid" selected as manager of club for this district. The convention is said to have been a slim affair.

The only objection urged against Gray, Matson and Myers, by the republican organs, is that the were, at one time or another, members of the republican party, and are therefore "renegades" from that organization. From the way they howl, he is a might mean man who has ever been a republican. Do these organs ever reflect upon the fact that their organization is wholly made up of "renegades" from the various old parties of the country. Black spirits and white, of all creed, like the various birds of prey, united only in greed for plunder.

The morning train due here at 4:39, on last Friday morning killed an old man named Cary Taylor, a short distance north of Guernsey. The engineer and fireman state that the track was apparently clear, and the first intimation they had of an accident was a glimpse of a man's hat flying past the cab window. It is supposed he had been walking by the side of the track and had perhaps stumbled as the engine approached or had miscalculated the distance required for safety and had been struck by the steam chest. He was about sixty-eight years of age. Funeral services were held at Monon Saturday under the auspices of the G. A. R. Post of Monon.

Miss Ida Wittenberg, who was shot by Ed. Chamberlain at Reynolds, died at her home in that town on Friday last. It is a sad affair, and a crushing blow to Chamberlain's mother. She does not sleep, eats but little, and her condition excites grave apprehension.

JOE JOHNSTON A G. A. R. MAN.

E. D. BAKER POST, OF PHILADELPHIA, ELECTS HIM AN HONORARY MEMBER.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The announcement is made here this morning that General Joseph E. Johnston, the highest in rank of living officers of the Confederate Army, was, on Thursday night last, unanimously elected an honorary member of E. D. Baker Post, No. 8, G. A. R., of this city. The election was brought about upon the receipt of a letter reading: "For the purpose of permitting me to participate in the noble work of charity performed by the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, I hereby make application for contributing membership in your post. Inclosed please find $10 for one year's dues."

The petition was unaccompanied by any other communication and when presented to the members of the post, it went through with a rush, amid the cheers of the 200 veterans present.

General Johnston is the only ex-Confederate soldier who has ever been received into the ranks of a Grand Army Post.

Breathe the news gently to Ingalls and his backers. E. D. Baker Post will go down to zero in the estimation of the excessively loyal "bloody-shirt" crowd.

Rev. John S. Howk, eldest son of Judge Howk, of the Supreme Court of Indiana, graduates in a few days from Princeton Theological Seminary. He has accepted a call from Pitts Creek Church Maryland, one of the most important churches of that Presbytery.

D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIS, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night gasping for breath. My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and herbs and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WONDERFUL CURE FOR ASTHMA AND CATARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. Please read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date: Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I find the Remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief." E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kan., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany; tried the climate of different states—nothing afforded relief like your preparation." L. B. Phelps, P. M., Griggs, Ohio writes: "Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 3 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years." H. C. Plimpton, Joliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I find it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever used." We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy, we will send a copy of our TRIAL PACKAGE FREE OF CHARGE.
