It may be Blaine!

Yesterday ticket-peddlers sold good seats in the convention, at Chicago, at $10 apiece.

The republican platform adopted by the Chicago convention favors cheap grog and cheap tobacco, and high prices on the necessities of life.

The republican platform declares that it is the duty of the hard-handed sons of toil to pay tribute money to the monopolies of the land.

Committeeman Clarkson, and Sergeant-at-Arms FitzSimons, of the Chicago convention, came to blows yesterday. Republicans are getting belligerent.

Mahone and Wice, delegates from Virginia to the Chicago convention, had a disgraceful knock down in the presence of the committee on credentials. Other delegates, black and white, got mixed up in the row. A policeman put a stop to it.

The democratic party has revised the improvident and unwise policy of the republican party touching the public domain, and has reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, nearly one hundred millions of acres of valuable land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens.—National Democratic Platform.

Odd!—A citizen started in on the lengthy "leader" in the "Democrat" but before he got half through he had read it, or something like it, recently Odd!

In his oration at St. Louis, Mr. Dougherty put a large size of truth in useable shape when he said: "To lower the tariff is not free trade, it is to reduce the unjust profits of monopolists and bosses manufacturers and allow consumers to retain the rest. The man who asserts that to lower the tariff means free trade insults intelligence. We brand him as a falsifier. It is furthest from thought to imperil capital or disturb enterprises. The aim is to uphold wages and protect the rights of all."

On the day following the jubilee held over the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, Horace E. James, then republican postmaster, wrote on his bulletin board:

"The vandalism committed last night are the legitimate, organized, deliberate insults of Democracy for Reform."

"In the interest of Reform the Democracy of Jasper County deliberately, wantonly insult every soldier who lost a leg or arm, or who was wounded in the line of duty in defence of the Union."

There is but one thoroughbred full blooded, stalwart, staunch-principled, clear-ringing, clarion-toned Republican newspaper published in Rensselaer; with political doctrines so clearly defined, so prominent and so symmetrical as not to need a label to distinguish them; and that paper is THE MESSAGE—June 20, 1888.

The writer of the above choice morsels desires, body, soul and material, to be unloaded in the democratic camp, through the Trade Agency of Parm Wright, of equal "stalwart" claims, under the ponderous hulk of Jno. W. Sickels.

"YOU TICKLE ME, AND I'LL TICKLE YOU," seems to be the policy governing the intercourse between Bro. Sickels and our dear friend Mike Halloran. Mike has given out:

"There wuz a toime when McEwen moight have gone out of this town with two thousand dollars in his pocket, but he would not. Now we'll break him down and droive him out without a doxned cent!"

The above tickled Sickels, and he in turn tickles Mike thusly:

"He thinks that the election of the democratic national ticket this fall will insure to the country a long term of commercial prosperity, and he expects that the Democrat will start a boom for Rensselaer that will thoroughly shake up some of 'the dry bones in the valley,' to use an expression which seems to be a favorite with him."

Mike will be for "commercial prosperity," and a "boom for Rensselaer," provided they advance his interests, without reference to the party that 'will insure' the one, or the paper that 'will start' the other.

Mike and Sickels seem to be equally posted as to their status in the Democratic party:

Let us see; it was Mike, we believe, who got out circulars and traversed this senatorial district with the declared purpose of defeating Fred Hoover. In this strong republican district, however, Fred was elected in spite of the combined powers—the republican party and Mike's influence.—Mike has been a frequent "kicker."

We believe it was Bro. Sickels who, to explain his political acrobatic process, boasted that in his time he "had been employed on republican and democratic papers—when in Rome I do as Rome does." In their adhesion to party Mike and Sickels and James—the real editor and publisher of the paper erected over the remains of the defunct Message—are equals.

The late republican Message appeared yesterday, same editor and publisher, bearing the name: "The Rensselaer Democrat" A three weeks effort has been made to resuscitate it and it looks much the worse for the wear. Its outlook is anything but encouraging.

Newton Township Items.

Generally speaking, health is very good.

Owing to our late rain and very warm weather corn is doing exceptionally well, and the farmers are getting in some good work.

Mrs. S. B. Moffitt, of Fair Oaks, is visiting W. L. Bringle's family and friends of her former neighborhood.

The new dwelling house of M. S. Bowman is progressing finely, and will soon be ready for its occupants.

Children's Day was observed with appropriate exercises and decorations at the Saylorville school house. Pea Ridge S. S. assisted S. S. in the exercises. Rev. B. F. Ferguson and others were there.

Under the superintendency of Ham Saylor the programme was well arranged and handsomely carried out. Plenty of baskets on the ground, and it is needless to say that they were well filled with delicious foods of all kinds.

Can't some one give the Republican editor a 'pointer' so that he may be able to print something about the next Vice President, Hon. A. G. Thurman?

Morris Thomas is improving his farm by getting in a large amount of tiling. Ed. Griggs is superintending the work. We are informed that Morris is going to put a new outfit in the threshing line in the field this fall.

SHORTLY.

Calkins' School Fund Loan.

At last, after several years of continuous effort, the county auditor has found a purchaser for the famous Maj. Calkins' school fund swamp land that figured so extensively throughout the state in the gubernatorial canvass in 1884. It will be remembered that Maj. Calkins originally borrowed three hundred dollars from the school fund and gave a mortgage on a piece of land in Johnson township for security. He failed to pay the interest or principal and it was found the land was not worth the money loaned on it. The land was forfeited according to law, and re-appraised at $200 and put on the market. It has remained for sale ever since at that price. But until a few days ago there has been no bidder. It was finally sold to Mr. Fred Hausheer for $200, on five years time at 8 per cent. interest. The school fund is short $100, and the county is out the interest it has been paying to keep the fund good, and the tax-payers have the whole loss to settle. It is worth remembering that many republicans insisted all that the Argus said about Maj. Calkins' connection with the school fund swindle was a lie. Notwithstanding these assertions, every word the Argus ever said about it was strictly true, as the county records will abundantly demonstrate.—Laporte Argus.
