 At Kniman, September 29th.
 Good Democratic speakers will be announced in due time. Turn

LEE E. GLAZEBROOK and other speakers will address the people of Newton township, at Brushwood school house, Wednesday evening, Sept. 19th, 1888. Everybody invited.

The best is the cheapest! Buy the Eldredge! Mrs. Jas. W. McEwen, agent!

Next week the State Fair will be held at Indianapolis.

J. C. Williams, the picture man, conducted his business successfully at the Remington, Lafayette and Morocco fairs.

Uncle Dave Culp, of Hanging Grove township, is ill with lung fever, but we are pleased to learn not dangerously so.

The Francesville Fair will be held the last week in this month.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Warner are visiting their son Charley, at Minneapolis, Colorado.

C. G. Sears, R. P. Phillips and Fred Phillips have returned from the West.

Miss Birdie Hammond has become a student at St. Mary's Academy, South Bend.

Miss Lydia Diggins is assistant in the high school, Rochester, Indiana.

Miss M. M. Hill has gone to Topeka, Kansas.

Accessories to the Eldredge Sewing Machine can be procured of Mrs. Jas. W. McEwen.

Ed. Chamberlain has been given a change of venue to the Cass Circuit Court!

Jas. Thompson is improving his residence property handsomely.

ADVERTISED LETTERS—

James Grigg, Corry Higgins, Minnie Lookman, James Walter.

Persons calling for letters in the above list will please say they are advertised. N. S. BATES.

After a brief but painful illness Mr. John Florence departed this life, at his home, in Rensselaer, Wednesday evening last, aged about 69 years.

Rev. E. G. Pelley has been returned by M. E. conference to the charge at Rensselaer.

Eld. R. S. Diggins will preach at the Christian church, Sunday, Sept. 16, at 10:30 a. m. The public are respectfully invited to attend. It is especially desired that the membership all be present so far as possible, as there will be some important business to attend to at the close of the morning service.

Mrs. I. C. Kelley, Mrs. T. P. Wright, W. W. Murray, R. B. Wilson, J. M. Wasson, H. W. Wood, Shelby Grant, J. C. Porter, Isaac Hemphill, J. A. Burnham, M. H. Hemphill, Joseph Sharp and W. H. Gwin, have taken advantage of low rates to visit friends and the re-union at Columbus, Ohio.

James Burns, of Barkley township, died on Monday last.

The republicans are not so outing to any extent over Vermont and Maine.

NOTICE.

All persons knowing their taxes for 1887 and former years are delinquent will please call and pay the same and save all further costs.

Owing to recent prosecutions for sending postal cards containing notices of failure to pay indebtedness, none will be sent this year. I will send out collectors about Sept. 16th, 1888.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.
COEN & PAXTON, having bought the Hay and Grain business formerly owned by J. C. Porter, will pay the highest price for grain.

Electric Bitters
 This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist, and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers.—For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cts. or $1.00 per bottle at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.

POOR vs. Fat Horses.—An extremely poor horse is usually a miserable one, but it is questionable whether it is any more so than an extremely fat one. Especially is this true where the animal is required to perform any amount of hard labor. While horses need good, wholesome food, it should not be all of the fat-producing kinds. The matter of feeding horses by the majority of horse owners never receives the attention it should. The supply of food and the different kinds should be varied as often as the amount and kinds of work is changed.

New backgrounds, new camera, new balustrade, new burnisher and new ideas! Now is the time to get those photos taken you were talking about.

Respectfully,
J. A. SHARP.

Give Them A Chance!

That is to say your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain

A Home Thrust.

A humorous editor, living in Austin, Tex., received a cruel rebuke from his wife not long since. She had been to the theater, and on her return home gave such a very amusing account of the performance that her literary husband exclaimed:

"Why don't you write that out just as you have told it to me? It would make first-class copy. You ought to write for the paper."

"No, I thank you. One crank in the family is enough," was the cutting reply.—Texas Siftings.

It was his first letter home from boarding-school, and it read as follows:

DEAR FATHER—I write you before I write ma becoss I know you like to see ma mad. I think I will get along with my lessons first-rate. The garden here is full of chickens, which makes the walking bad. In history I've got as far as Alexander the Great. He carried a sword to out knots with. There is an apple orchard half a mile off. The boys play ball in it; after that there ain't much apples. The minister's son was kicked this morning for going a fishing on Sunday. He caught lots of fish, and says he is going again next Sunday. I think I like the minister's boy a good deal. Send me some marbles as soon as you can, also a jack-knife and a top. Two of us boys left a piece of wet soap at the head of the stairs just before day-break, and by the time the cook got to the bottom she was too sick to get breakfast. We have prayers every day, and the teacher reads out of the Bible, but I don't think it's so badly as playing tag in a hay loft.

From your affectionate son, SAMUEL.

—Brooklyn Eagle.

"I am choost as full ash a bag of flour," remarked an inebriate to a sober friend. "There is a difference between you and a sack of flour, however." "What ish difference?" "When a sack is full it can stand up, but when you are full you can't even lie down on the ground without holding on."—Texas Siftings.

THE ARAB AND HIS HORSE.—The Arabians never beat their horses; they never cut their tails; they treat them gently; they speak to them and seem to hold a discourse; they use them as friends; they never attempt to increase their speed by the whip, or spur them, but in cases of great necessity. They never fix them to a stake in the fields, but suffer them to pasture at large around their habitations; and they come running the moment they hear the sound of their master's voice. In consequence of such treatment these animals become docile and tractable in the highest degree. They resort at night to their tents, and lie down in the midst of the children, without even hurting them in the slightest manner. The little boys and girls are often seen upon the body or neck of the mare, while the beasts continue inoffensive and harmless, permitting them to play with and caress them without injury.

The Watcher in Church.

His neck is fitted on a globe socket that turns clear around. He sees everything that goes on. The man that comes in late does not escape him and it is in vain for the tenor to think he got that little note to the alto conveyed between the leaves of the hym-book unobserved. The watcher saw it. He sees the hole in the quarter that Elder Skinner dropped on the plate. He sees that Deacon Slowboy has but one cuff. If a door swings he looks around; if the window moves noiselessly he looks up. He sees no stranger in his neighbor's pew, and he sees Brother Dadman, sitting away back under the gallery, furtively take a chew of the inhibited fine cut. All things that nobody wants him to see the watcher sees. He sees so much that he has no time to listen.—R. J. Burdette.
