

HE RESEMBLES HARRISON.

A Georgia County Editor Who Is Very Like the Celebrated Grandson.

The editor of the Cedartown (Ga.) Guardian gives the following points of resemblance between himself and the President-elect:

"He wears a 7 1/2 hat. So do we, of the vintage of the summer of '87.

"He wears a 6 1/2 shoe and can wear a 6. We wear slippers—odd numbers, one a 5 and the other a 6 1/2—but we could compromise on a 6 if it was a good wearer. He has a bunion on the right foot and no corns. There's where we differ with him. We sport corns on both, and a sore on our heel where the ventilation was placed in our sock.

His neck measure is 16 1/2. Don't say whether inches or feet, perpendicular or circumference. If either inches or feet up and down he beats us to the tank. If it means circumference, we repeat what we have said before, that he is a sort of bull-necked old structure, anyhow, and we are not built that way.

He wears open front shirts at $27 a dozen. We wear them open front and rear—especially rear—and if we ever own a dozen we'll pay the price and ask no questions.

He seldom carries a silk, but usually a linen handkerchief. We carry none at all, but we wipe our tears away on our coat sleeves just the same.

He keeps one horse. We have a neighbor who keeps one, but he keeps it awful close. Perhaps he knows best.

He smokes small cigars and does not smoke to excess. Small are the cigars we smoke, and it ever we smoked one to excess we are not aware of it.

His whiskers are getting gray. Ours will get that way. Only a question of time. He uses bay rum on his hair and no oil. We use common water week days and neatfoot oil Sundays.

He is fond of base-ball. So are we, at a safe distance. But there is one thing, he certainly made a base-hit this time.

His chest measure is thirty-seven, his waist forty-two. Ours fluctuates, and we have not figured out the average. He has a good deal of stomach, and we have a very good one, too, but it is patient and long suffering.

He weighs 180 and appears to be five feet seven and a half. Well there are times when we feel ten feet high and weigh a ton, but not ordinarily.

He does not fancy jewelry. Neither do we. It is money thrown away, and our preacher denounces the custom of wearing it. Another thing, we never could endure a $40 saddle on a $20 horse.

He wears high-buttoned coats, and seldom arrays himself in suits of one piece. That is our way precisely. High buttoned coats tell no tale, and suits of different pieces are extremely convenient.

He reads for recreation. Is fond of Scott, Eliot, and Thackeray. We read for the recreation of clipping from our exchanges, and we like all of them that get up good stuff.

He goes to bed at 10, gets up at 6 or 7. Sometimes we go to bed, but it is nobody's business what hour. As to getting up it depends upon the condition of our conscience and the state of the weather.

The family cooking is done by an old "aunt." Ours is, too, but we have to change them about once a week. They are such sticklers about financial matters.

He is a Presbyterian deacon. Well, some of our best subscribers are Presbyterians, and we make no invidious comparisons; but we'll just bet him a year's subscription to the Guardian against the Hong Kong Consulate that we can beat him taking up a collection with one hand tied behind us.

In some ways we resemble each other, and in others we bear a stronger resemblance than he does.

Business Genius.

Irascible old gentleman—Consume you, sir! That's my corn you stepped on!

Affable stranger—Excuse me, sir. I am deeply grieved at the result of my awkwardness, and I beg you will accept my sincerest apologies. But, since you have introduced the subject, will you allow me to say that I have here a simple and inexpensive little article, which is positively warranted to cure any case of corns, bunions, or ingrow.

Not Contagious.

"What were you laughing at so loudly this evening?" asked Mrs. Brown, when her husband came up stairs to bed.

"I was telling that old schoolmate of mine a very funny story."

"But I didn't hear him laugh."

"No," growled the old man, "that fellow is an ass."—New York Sun.

Desperation.

Miss Westend (confidentially)—Mr. Saphend proposed to me last night. Rival Belle—Did he? When I refused him in the afternoon he said he was going to do something desperate.

A SINGULAR phenomenon is observed in working the ore of the Martin White mine at Ward, Nevada. The ore is very base, and it is necessary to roast the whole of it. During the roasting process no deleterious or disagreeable fumes are observable, yet the hair and all the beards of the men engaged about the works are soon dyed to a bright and permanent green. Even the eyebrows of the workmen are as green as grass.

A NEW piece of pocket jewelry is a silver rule with gold hinges and ends.

Carl Dunder's Philosophy.

Der man mitout any honor vhill shwear by it shust as queek as anypody else.

Some men demand a certificate of character simply because dey pay deir debts. It vhas a surprise to 'em.

I haf seen men who vhas too good to beat a street-car mit a lead nickel. Dey afterwards robbed der bank of $30,000 und skipped to Canada.

Some folks gif a poor family a turkey for Thanksgiving, und some gif 'em a sheet of piano music. It vhas all der same thing, except dot der music doan' make anybody seek.

I haf found out dot der tief who plots to steal my horse goes along mit his head down shust der same ash der man who repeats der Lord's Prayer. You can't shudge a feller by his looks.

After I vhas seek on der bed I can look pack und see shust where I shouldn't haf done dot whay. After I vhas vhal again I can see nottings.

I like to gif sompody advice, but when sompody advises me, I feel dot he should mind his own peesness.

No doubt sompody has buried his money in der ground, but you may look for de money und I vhill take a bushel of turnips.

It vhas curious dot among all der men who know vhas ails dis country und haf a remedy for der ailments, not one recommends more saw-buck und less chin-chin.

One reason vhy marriage vhas a failure vhas because der wife married for a home und der husband wanted a servant.

Conscience vhas a queer thing. It keeps us from sheating a man out of a cent to his face und excuses us if we find und keep his wallet mit $50 in it behind his back.

No man is entirely satisfied mit der weather. For instance, the fly-screen man firmly believes dot winter vhas invented shust to spoil his peesness und help der wood men out.—Detroit Free Press.

Something for the New Year.

The world-renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for a third of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 60 hands in that department. Six cylinder printing presses, 5 folding machines, 5 job presses, etc., are running about eleven months in the year on this work, and the issue of same for 1891 will not be less than ten millions, printed in English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian, and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations, and chronological items, etc., which can be depended upon for correctness. The Almanac for 1891 can be obtained, free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

Beats the Record.

"Terribly slow riding, this," said one man uneasily to another on a certain railroad.

"Yes; I don't remember having traveled slower than this but once before in my life."

"When was that?"

"It was out West, last summer."

"We started from a station late in the afternoon and were headed due east. By sundown we had reached a town seventeen miles west from starting point."

"But how do you account for it?"

"I can't explain it except on the theory that the earth's rotary motion made the wheels slip."—Merchant Traveler.

1889.—"IRON AND STEEL."—1889.

The Latest and Brightest Christmas and New Year's Annual, by "A Man" of the Great Rock Island Route.

Thousands of readers who have scanned with eager delight the pages of "Watt Stephens, the Genius of Steam" (1885), "Voltagal, the Genius of Electricity" (1886), "Petroleum and Natural Gas" (1887), and "Coal and Coke" (1888), will be happy to know that the latest addition to the famous Rock Island series, "Iron and Steel" (1889), dedicated to the "Boys and Girls of America," is now ready for distribution.

Enclose ten (10) cents in coin or stamps (for postage) and your address, written plainly, to Geo. H. Smith, Assistant General Ticket and Passenger Agent, Chicago, and a copy will be sent you by return mail. Copies of previous Annuals also furnished at same rate.

"Iron and Steel" embodies a vast deal of useful information. In the company of his boy and girl visitors, "A Man" penetrates the mines, explains their underground workings, follows the mined product to the furnace and smelter, and describes the various processes to which it is subjected.

The engravings are from original sketches and photographs, and admirably executed. The book makes a very handsome appearance. The cover is in itself a marvel—the design being as unique as the color effects are beautiful and artistic.

Life in Russia.

First Russian subject—In a recent railroad accident the Czar's dog was killed but the Czar escaped. I shall we look glad or sorry in public?

Second subject—If we look glad the police will say it is because the Czar's favorite dog was killed; if we look sorry they will say it is because it was the dog and not the Czar that was killed. Either way we are lost. See you later in Siberia.—Philadelphia Record.

IT NEVER FAILS. Bad blood means an inactive liver and a sympathetic or unnatural action of the stomach, bowels and kidneys, and as a result BILIOUSNESS. The symptoms are drowsiness, loss of appetite, cadache, lack of energy, pain in the back, costiveness or diarrhoea, sallowness of skin, furred tongue, generally attended with melancholy and GENERAL DEBILITY. To cure these diseases means to restore the action of the liver and other organs, and to kill the poison in the blood. A remedy containing Mandrake, Culvers Root, Burdock and Cascara Sagrada, acting especially on the liver, stomach, kidneys and sweat glands, is the proper one.

CONSTIPATION. The process of digestion, assimilation and removal needs the healthy action of the liver, pancreas and glands which supply the bile and other fluids, in order to stimulate them to proper secretions and supply the needed action.

HIBBARD'S RHEUMATIC SYRUP. IT NEVER FAILS. Always in season—Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. Procure it of your druggist, or send direct to us. Price, $1.00; 6 bottles, $5.00; plasters, 25c.

I have used thirteen bottles and am a well man. EDWARD BAKER, Master Mechanic and Blacksmith, 202 Jackson Street, Jackson, Mich.

Both myself and wife have been using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup this fall and winter with excellent success. We know it to be a great medicine. For constipation, dyspepsia or indigestion it certainly has no equal. E. U. KNAPP, Farmer, Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 4, 1888.
