WENY-FIVE CENTS

CRUMPTER.—Two pints of flour, one and a half teaspoonfuls of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, two and a half tea-spoonfuls of baking powder, two eggs, one pint of milk, one teaspoonful of cinnamon. Mix thoroughly, adding the eggs and milk last. Stir to a stiff batter, and bake on a hot, well greased griddle.

RICE MILK.—Pick and wash the rice carefully; boil it in water until it swells and softens; when the water is boiled away, add some milk. It may be boiled entirely in milk, by setting the vessel in which the rice is in boiling water; sweeten with white sugar and season with nutmeg. It also may be thickened with a little flour or beaten egg.

VEAL STEW.—Cut the veal into small strips. Cut a dozen large potatoes into thin slices, place a layer of veal on the bottom of a stewpan, season and then place a layer of potatoes on top. Continue until all is used. Over the last layer of veal spread thin slices of salt pork. Cover with water and cook slowly one hour and a half.

MOTHS can be successfully removed from carpets in the following manner: Wring a coarse towel out of clear water, spread it smoothly on the carpet, iron it dry with a good hot iron, repeating the operation wherever the moths are supposed to be. No need to press hard, and the color of the carpet will not be injured as the moths are destroyed by the heat and steam.

A good mixture to have in the house is composed of aqua ammonia two ounces, soft water one quart, salt-petre one teaspoonful, shaving soap one ounce.
Scrub the soap fine before mixing the other ingredients and allow it to stand a few hours before using. It is sure death to bed bugs if applied to the crevices which they inhabit; it will remove paint that is mixed with oil without injuring the finest fabrics, and will remove grease from carpets by covering the spots with the mixture and after spunging and rubbing it thoroughly wash it off with clear cold water.

MUTTON CHOPS.—Beat each chop flat, and lard each with strips of salt pork, drawn quite through, so as to protect both sides of the chop. Put into a saucers, sprinkle with minced onion, pepper and parsley, and barely cover with any weak broth you may chance to have. Put on the saucers lid, set it where it will not boil under one hour. Then increase the heat, and simmer half an hour, or until tender.
Take up the chops and keep hot.
Thicken gravy with brown flour, and add the juice of one lemon. Put back the chops, and heat to a weak boil.
Lay the chops on the dish, pour over the gravy and serve.

JUMBLES.—Rub to a cream a pound of butter and a pound of sugar; mix with a pound and a half of flour, four eggs and a little lemon juice; roll the cake in powdered sugar, lay them on flat buttered ~~the~~ and bake in a quick oven.

HAM CROISSANTS.—Chop pieces of cold boiled or fried ham just as fine as it is possible to chop them; mix them with cold mashed potatoes, an egg or two, a little butter or cream, or both; form into balls, flour them; melt a little butter in a frying pan, and brown the balls. Serve hot.

BOUILLON.—This is the fashionable beverage of the day at germs, kettle-drums, receptions, and parties. It is served in dairies, and takes the place of the now ~~the~~ fashioned tea. It is made the same way as the clear stock, using only a pint of water to a pound of meat, seasoned with salt, pepper and spice, herbs and vegetables, or not, as you please. The amount of seasoning given was for one gallon of stock.

MIXED STOCK.—Put the trimmings of your fresh meats and the bones and tough pieces left from roasts or broils into the soup pot, with one quart of cold water for every two pounds of meat and bones. When it comes to a boil skim and set back where it will simmer six hours. Add sprigs of herbs, onions, cloves, and peppercorns according to taste. Cook two hours more.
Set away to cool. In morning skim off fat. Keep in a cool place. This is especially good for tomato soup, or any common soup, and should be always kept on hand, as it costs little or nothing but the labor.
