A Terrible Misfortune.
It is a calamity of the direst kind to feel that one's physical energies are failing in the prime of life—to feel more nervous, more dispirited, weaker every day. Yet this is the unhappy lot of hundreds who surround us. A source of renewed strength which science approves, in behalf of which multitudes of the debilitated have and are every day testifying, and which, in countless instances, has built up constitutions sapped by weakness and infirmity and long unbenefited by other means, surely comprehends itself to all who need a tonic. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is such a medicine—pure, botanic, soothing to the nerves, promotive of digestion and a fertilizer of the blood. Dyspepsia and nervousness—two first a cause, the second a consequence of lack of stamina—depart when a course of the Bitters is tried. All forms of malarial disease, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, constipation and biliousness are annihilated by this standard family medicine.

Virginians with Remarkable Names.
The counties of Wythe and Shenandoah claim the "cake" on long names borne by people within their borders, but when it comes to long names and true-blue Democrats Craig can give both of these counties "two in a hand" and claim the stakes. As a sample a gentleman in Craig, named Brickey, has three children whose names are respectively: "Jailey Green Bird Mayflower Brickey," "Oregon Texas Georgiana Brickey," and "Molina Truxilla Entw Sebella Toofater Brickey." Our informant, Mr. P. B. Abbott, assures us that these are the names of the children, as recorded in the family Bible, and that there is no joke about it. But the longest name yet announced is also borne by a Craig man, Mr. John William Benjamin Leander Sinclair Calvin Philip Virgil Cicero Lee. On this we challenge competition.—Salem (Va.) Times.

Conquering Him.
The ill-nature of many men will vanish in the presence of their favorite dishes on the dinner-table, a fact that has given rise to the old saying that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

The writer once boarded with an irritable elderly man, who gave laughable illustrations of the truth of this adage. When things had gone wrong with the choleric old gentleman, his wife would slyly say to her daughter, who assisted in the cooking: "We'd better have apple dumplin's to-day, Sarah, your pa is so out of spirits. I intended having a pot-pie, but he don't care much for that, and you know how fond he is of dumplin's."

When the "dumplin's" appeared the old gentleman's wrath would speedily vanish.

Sometimes the wise old lady would scatter an impending storm and keep it from breaking by appearing with a plate of doughnuts or pie, and saying: "Here, pa, you'd better eat this; nobody else wants it, and it's just settin' 'round in the way."

Consumption Surely Cured.
To the Editor: Please inform your readers that I have a positive cure for Consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption. If they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

CERTAIN house-owners should profit by the experience of a wealthy Louisville widow, who, rather than accept a fair rent for a dwelling, kept the latter vacant. It remained so for months, and eventually the boys in the neighborhood began breaking the windows with stones. Then somebody tore down and carried away the front fence. Perhaps other people concluded after this that the house was a stray one, for they tore down the stable and other out-buildings. The shutters, doors, windows, floors, etc., next disappeared. Large loads of brick began to leave the house, and in a short time all the neighbors had paved yards and sidewalks. The walls crumbled away and fell in, and in a short time scarcely a semblance of a house remained.

The Population of the United States
Is about 60,000,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large Bottles 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Sold by all Druggists.

GIVE some men rope enough and they will start a junk shop.

Catarrh Cured.
A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

"Weakness."
That there can be different senses to a word which seems to have but a single meaning is illustrated by this incident. A Boston rogue, who was charged with having stolen a grindstone, was asked by the lawyer who prosecuted him. "You took this man's grindstone?" "I did, sir." "How did you come to do such an act?" "It was in a moment of weakness, sir." "Weakness, indeed! What would you have taken if you had felt strong?" Bunker Hill Monument?"

Nothing to Be Gained.
Little Son—What was you and Mr. De Bate talkin' so loud about?
Father—We were having an argument about the duty on copper. He thinks it ought to be removed, and I think it ought not.
"Would removing it make pennies any cheaper?"
"No, my son."
"Then I don't see the use of botherin' with it."—New York Weekly.

—MAGEE'S EMULSION is palatable and readily assimilated, and in my opinion the best combination of cod liver oil I have ever prescribed.—Louis W. Read, Surgeon General of Pennsylvania, Norristown.

Prepare for Spring

Now is the time to prepare for spring, and your own system is of first importance. If you have not felt well during the winter, if you have been overworked, or closely confined in badly ventilated rooms and shops, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Take it early and you will ward off attacks of disease or escape the effects of impure blood and that tired feeling, so common in the spring. Do not delay. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now.

"I wish to state the benefit derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have used it in the spring for three years for debility, and can say that I gained in flesh and strength after using one bottle. It has also cured me of sick headache." Mrs. F. H. ANDREWS, South Woodstock, Conn.

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for loss of appetite, dyspepsia, and general languor. It did me a vast amount of good, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it." J. W. WILFORD, Quincy, Ill.
