

CONUNDRUMS ANSWERED.
What kin is the doormat to the door? A step farther.
What is the waist of time? The middle of an hour glass.
Why is a doctor never seasick? He is used to sea sickness.
Why does an old maid wear mittens? To keep the chaps off.
Why is a door in the potential mood? It's would, or should be.
What is the board of education?—The schoolmaster's shingle.

What stinketh closer than a brother? A postage stamp, by gum.
Why is a tin can tied to a dog's tail like death? It's bound to occur.

Why does a sailor know there's a man in the moon? He has been to sea.

Why is the North Pele like an illicit whisky manufactory? It is a secret still.

What is it that will give a cold, cure a cold and pay a doctor's bill? A draught.

Why is a city official like a church bell? One steals from the people and the other peals from the steeple.

Why is it dangerous to go out in spring? Because the trees shoot, the flowers have pistils, and the bullrush is out.

What is the difference between an engineer and a school teacher? One trains the mind and the other minds the train.

Dear Record—In Saturday's issue you say that no philosopher may hope to find out why every now and then a dog turns around three times before he lies down for a snooze. A dog thinks that one good turn deserves another.—Philadelphia Record.

"I tell you, but work is scarce in this town," aid a red nosed man to an acquaintance of whom he solicited ten cents. "I was down at Fogarty's saloon all day yesterday looking for work and not a soul came around offering to give me a job. It times don't get better, I'll have to send my family to the poor house."—Norristown Herald.

It costs $25 fine or thirty days in jail to sell boys cigarettes in Ohio.

Calvin's old church at Geneva St. Peter's, is to be repaired and partly rebuilt at a cost of $100,000.

Stranger after ten years' absence—What became of Bad, Luck & Co? When I left they were in financial straits—selling out at cost. Citizen—They are at the old stand—still selling out.—New York Weekly.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said the counsel in an agricultural case, "there were thirty-six hogs in that lot—thirty-six. I want you to remember that number—thirty-six hogs just three times the number that are in the jury box."

In Germany, after a girl graduates, she is sent into the country to the house of some notable housewife, where she remains a year, learning the most approved methods of household work. Some towns have started schools for this work, notably Hamburg.

Amy Williams—Ruth, dear, won't you walk up to the corner with me? I don't like to go alone. Ruth Ward—I'm never alone Amy. The Lord is always with me. Amy—Well, Ruth, you walk up to the corner with me, and then you will have company back.—Boston Beacon.

"What a wonderful painter Rubens is!" remarked Merritt at the art gallery. "Yes," assented Cora. "It is said of him that he could change a laughing face into a sad one by a single stroke." "Why," spoke up little Johnnie, in disgust, "My school teacher can do that."—Harper's Bazaar.

MERIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Buckler's Arnica Salve and Electric Biters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits.—F. B. Meyer, Druggist.

Matrimonial Harmony.

"Are you as happy now as you were before you were married?" asked Mrs. Yeast of young Mrs. Crimsonbeak.

"Yes, indeed," replied the lady, "and a great deal happier."

"That's strange," suggested the philanthropist's wife.

"Not at all strange," came from the young married woman. "You see, before I was married I used to spend half my time worrying about what dress I should wear when Daniel called."

"But don't you try just as hard now to look well when your husband returns home at night?" interrupted Mrs. Yeast.

"Well, you see," went on the bride of two summers, "I don't worry any about it now, as I have only one dress to my name."—Yonkers Statesman.

"Mammie, did you ever have another wife beside mother?" "No, my boy; what possessed you to ask such a question?" "Because I saw in the old family Bible where you married Anne Domini in 1833, and that isn't in for her name was Sally Smith."

Spring Disorders

shattered nerves, tired brain, impure blood, debilitated system, all are the natural outcome in the Spring. A medicine must be used, and nothing equals Paine's Celery Compound. We let others praise us—you cannot help believing a disinterested party.

Brigadier-General W. L. Greenleaf, Burlington, Vt., writes: "I have used Paine's Celery Compound with great success, and with benefit. Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I commenced taking it. Two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring-medicine I do not know of its equal."

Color Anything any Color. Simple, Durable, Economical. IT IS EASY TO DYE WITH DIAMOND DYES 25 Colors. 10 cents each.

Paine's Celery Compound
is prescribed by physicians, recommended by druggists, endorsed by ministers, praised by users, and guaranteed by the manufacturers, as a spring medicine which will do all that is claimed for it. Use it this spring, and see how quickly it tones you up.
