VEAL LOAF.—Three pounds of lean, raw veal, and one-half pound of salt pork, chopped fine. If you have an accommodating butcher he will chop it free of charge, but it is best to select the meat yourself and see it weighed, for it should not contain any gristle or stringy pieces. It must be chopped very fine, then mix thoroughly with it six small crackers rolled, two eggs, a piece of butter nearly the size of an egg, a teaspoon of pepper, one small tablespoon of salt, a little sage or any other herb you may prefer to use for flavor. Pack tightly in a deep, square tin, cover with bits of butter, sprinkle cracker crumbs on the top and bake slowly for two hours. When cold slice it thinly. It is very nice for lunch or supper.
