were badly afflicted with that disease, which related the treatment of my family physician. I was persuaded to use Swift's Specific by seeing an account of cures in my county paper. The improvement was apparent from the first few doses, and in a short time my children were cured, and are still sound and well.

CHOICE TEXAS LANDS
Rare Chance for Settlers.

The Railroad System of Texas having developed so as to bring within easy access of good interior and seaboard markets the earliest, with special care as to soil, timber and water. They are adapted to the growth of cotton, corn, oats, wheat, barley, rye, vegetables, orchards and gardens and the various domestic grasses.

Situated in the elevated and healthy region known as the Southern Panhandle of Texas, they possess a general climate, favorable to man and beast, where outdoor work can be carried on the year round, and are in marked contrast with regions of early and late frosts or of deadly blizzards.

Population is fast pouring in, and local government is already established, with schools, churches, &c.

The Answer to the Conundrum.
"If you will observe," said the philosophical traveling man, "you will agree with me that for the most part our likes and dislikes are utterly unnatural—without any logical foundation whatever."
"I can't agree with you."
"Well, I'll prove it to you. Now, I observe that you are very fond of ginger ale. Now why do you drink it?"
"Because I like it."
"Precisely. I knew you would say that. But can you go a step further and tell me why you like it?"
"Yes, I can."
"Indeed! and why?"
"Because it doesn't make me drunk."
—Merchant Traveler.

A Terrible Misfortune.
It is a calamity of the direst kind to feel that one's physical energies are failing in the prime of life—to feel more nervous, more dispirited, weaker every day. Yet this is the unhappy lot of hundreds who surround us. A source of renewed strength which science approves, in behalf of which multitudes of the debilitated have and are every day testifying, and which, in countless instances, has built up constitutions sapped by weakness and infirmity and long un-benefited by other means, surely comprehends itself to all who need a tonic. Hostett's Stomach Bitters is such a medicine—pure, botanic, soothing to the nerves, promotive of digestion and a restorer of the blood. By dyspepsia and nervousness—the first cause, the second a consequence of lack of stamina—depart when a course of the bitters is tried. All forms of neural disease, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, constipation and biliousness are annihilated by this standard family medicine.

WHEN a conductor sees four women

A TRAVELING MAN
Creates Great Excitement in the Empire House.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, Oct. 14, 1898.
Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.: GENTS—Your Mr. Brooks came here tonight and registered as agent for Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and as he did so it awakened in me an interest never before realized in a guest at my house. You will not wonder at it when I tell you the story. For years I have been greatly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, the pain and sore-ness of the joints at times being almost unbearable; could move about only with the use of crutches. In addition to this, my stomach became badly diseased, and neuralgia set in, which threatened to end my days. A traveling man stopping with me gave quite a history of your Syrup, and the peculiarities of its combination, which induced me to try it. I have taken six bottles, and no act in my life affords me greater satisfaction than in writing you that I am a well man.

It will be a pleasure for me to answer any communications, for I believe it to be the best remedy ever formulated.

Empire House, Independence, Iowa.

The "Legitimate" Coming to the Front.
For a decade or more, the stage of America and Europe has been largely occupied by so-called dramatic work of doubtful merit. Slang has taken the place of wit and acrobats rank as comedians, reducing the burlesque of former days into idiotic coarseness to all except the vulgar-minded. On all sides now the change for the better is heard, and the legitimate is coming to the front with rapid strides. From London comes the news that Shakespearean and other legitimate plays appear to be the ruling passion in the theaters. Irving leads, but has notable followers.
At the Princess Theater a revival of "Hamlet" is to be given, with Wilson Barrett as the Dane; at the Haymarket the "Merry Wives of Windsor," and Mansfield is to give a grand production of "Richard III." In Chicago, at Mc-Vicker's Theater alone, many notable productions are now in view: "The Winter's Tale," "Antony and Cleopatra," "Macbeth," while the future is bright in promising us Florence, as Falstaff, in a production of "Henry IV." Then the "Twelfth Night" is to be superbly mounted, while "The Tempest" will be given in a manner ever superior to that which made "A Midsummer Night's Dream" so successful.

A NEVADA man who had seven homely daughters got a paper to hint that he had seven kegs filled with gold in his cellar, and every girl was married in five months.

BEFORE the wedding-day a girl generally overrates the man she is to marry, but she more than makes up for her misjudgment afterward.

THE man who is believed in everything he says is far luckier than the man who always tells the truth.

How to Gain Flesh and Strength.
Use after each meal Scott's Emulsion; it is as palatable as milk. Delicate people improve rapidly upon its use. For Consumption, Throat affections and Bronchitis it is unequaled. Dr. Thos. Prim, Ala., says: "I used Scott's Emulsion on a child eight months old; he gained four pounds in a month."

That Tired Feeling
If you are run down, or have that tired feeling as a result of overwork or the effect of the changing season, you should take that best of all tonics and blood purifiers, Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, tones the stomach, rouses the torpid liver and kidneys, creates an appetite, and builds up the system. Thousands who have taken it with benefit testify that Hood's Sarsaparilla "makes the weak strong."

Stronger Every Day
"I have been troubled a great deal with headache, had no appetite, no strength, and felt as mean as any one could be and about my work. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I have not had the headache, my food has relished, and seemed to do me good, and I have felt myself growing stronger every day. I thoroughly believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla." M. A. STEINMAN,

Not long ago this old gentleman was a sour, despondent, dyspeptic, invalid, with torpid liver, sallow complexion, irritable temper, and was indiscribably miserable, both mentally and physically. Now, as the result of taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, he leads the boys at the running jump, and makes himself a pleasant companion generally. For all Liver, Blood, and Lung Diseases, "Golden Medical Discovery" has no equal. It purifies the blood, infuses new life, spirits and vigor into the debilitated and despondent; banishes that "tired feeling" of which so many complain, and builds up both flesh and strength when reduced below the usual standard of health.

WARRANTED. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discov-

Remedy guaranteed to benefit or cure all diseases for which it is recommended, or the money paid for it

SCROFULA.
Of all the ills that human flesh is heir to, Scrofula is most prevalent. Very few, indeed, are entirely free from some taint of Scrofula. Young people of delicate constitution are often afflicted by this disease, which manifests itself in various forms.
The glands of the neck, groin, abdomen, etc., become enlarged, either persistently or with slight impairment of health.

Swellings in the Neck frequently become so engorged with scrofulous matter that abscesses are formed. Painful running sores may also appear on the arms, legs, and feet; sometimes continuous and sometimes of an intermittent character. Occasionally the sores appear in the ears and nose, and on or about the eyes, causing deafness and blindness, Pimples, cancerous growths, swollen joints, etc., are other symptoms of the disease. It must be treated through the blood if a permanent cure is to be obtained.

What is more beautiful than a rich, soft complexion in man or woman? This can be obtained only by the eradication of all scrofulous taints from the blood by the persistent use of
