The Indiana State Sentinel is walking rapidly to the lead as one of the best family newspapers in the country. It is so large and full of news that people wonder at the low price at which it is published. Its merits as a family paper will be told to you by every one of its numerous readers. They will tell you that every week they find articles from people in every calling of life—how this farmer prospered, how that one failed; the cost and profit of crops last raised; the management of cattle and like stock of all kinds; the treatment of orchards, farms, fields, and a thousand and one other matters in which people are interested. The Farmer's Household is well and ably represented by his wife and daughters, who take you into their parlors and kitchens, gardens and dairies, and tell you each occupy their time for their own profit and the good of others. They contribute thousands of recipes for preparing food, curing meats, making all kinds of cakes, ornaments, for the house and personal adornments, all having a tendency to increase and improve the comforts of home and fireside. Other features of The State Sentinel are its leading and fearless editorials; its home correspondence; its telegraphic markets; its humorous, commercial and financial departments—all combining to make it what is required for a No. 1 family journal.
