Persons contemplating the purchase of Fruit Trees will do well to examine my stock of over 7,000 Apple trees, on the farm of Luther Ponsler, two miles north and one-half mile east of Rensselaer. Said nursery contains 29 varieties of choice grafted trees.

The trees are 2-year old and from 3 to 5 feet high, and are in a thrifty and healthy condition. These trees will be sold for the spring delivery of 1889 at 20c. each, with one year's guarantee. I am also prepared to furnish all other kinds of fruit and ornamental trees, &c., at lowest possible prices. Any orders left with either Luther Ponsler or Warren Robinson will receive prompt attention.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE,

And be Governed Accordingly.

Although not connected with the Rensselaer Business Men's Association, I think it but just and right that everybody should pay their honest debts. I therefore earnestly and respectfully beg of my many debtors to call and settle with me, by note or otherwise, else, while I have no desire to expose anybody, I am determined to have a settlement within 30 days from date. No blame can reasonably be attached to me, if, after June 1st, you find all such delinquent accounts and notes in the hands of some prominent attorney in this town for collection.

Respectfully, Yours, With friendly feelings toward all, and malice toward none.

Notice of Ditch Letting.

State of Indiana, Jasper County, ss: In the Jasper Circuit Court, January Term, A. D. 1889.

In the matter of the petition of J. Crawford and others for a ditch in Keener Township, Jasper county, Indiana; it being Ditch No. 61 in Jasper Circuit Court:

NOTICE is hereby given that from this date until the 14th day of May, 1889, the undersigned Commissioner of Drainage to whom has been assigned the construction of the ditch described in the report of the Commissioners of Drainage in said matter will receive bids for the construction of said ditch.

Said work has been divided into stations of one hundred feet in length and bids for constructing said ditch or any part thereof must be by such stations.

A computation of the number of cubic yards of excavation in each station, together with the specific stations as to the width and depth, has been made and will be furnished to any person interested of bidding on said work.

Said contracts will be let to the lowest and best bidders by stations.

Any person to whom a contract is let will be required to enter into a written contract and give bond, with security for the performance of the work, and that he will pay all damages occasioned by his non-fulfilment of his contract.

Said ditch-letting will be near the center part of said ditch, or where the road east and west through the center of Section 21, T. 32, R. 7 west, crosses said ditch, in Keener township, Jasper county, Indiana.

The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

Dated this 2d day of April, A. D. 1889. JAMES C. THRAWLS, Commissioner in charge. James W. Douthit, Atty for pet's.

The Indiana State Sentinel

The Best Family Newspaper in America!

The Best State Paper in Indiana

"CREAM AND NOT SKIM MILK" IS OUR MOTTO.

The Indiana State Sentinel is walking rapidly to the lead as one of the best family newspapers in the country. It is so large and full of news that people wonder at the low price at which it is published. Its merits as a family paper will be told to you by every one of its numerous readers. They will tell you that every week they find notes and news from every county in the State and from every locality in the United States and the Old World. They will tell you that every week they find articles from people in every calling of life—how this farmer prospered, how that one failed; the cost and profit of crops last raised; the management of cattle, and live stock of all kinds; the treatment of orchards, farms, fields, and a thousand and one other matters in which people are interested. The Farmer's Household is well and ably represented by his wife and daughters, who take you into their parlors and kitchens, gardens and dairies, and tell you each occupy their time for their own profit and the good of others. They contribute thousands of recipes for preparing food, curing meats, making all kinds of cakes, ornaments for the house and personal adornments, all having a tendency to increase and improve the comforts of home and fireside. Other features of The State Sentinel are its leading and fearless editorials; its home correspondence; its telegraphic markets; its humorous, commercial and financial departments—all combining to make it what is required for a No. 1 family journal. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any address for 50 cents per month.

The Sunday Sentinel will be sent to any address for $2.00 per year.
