

Would-be Lieut. Gov. Robert son has been appointed a member of the Board of Registration and Election in the territory of Utah.

Captain Granville B. Ward has been appointed postmaster at Monticello. He is a gentleman and well qualified. We can object only to his politics.

President Harrison enjoys himself every now and then by taking a recreational excursion on a government vessel. The example has no democratic precedent.

The penalty for killing fish with dynamite, under the new law, is a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25 for each fish killed. The law has been in force since March 5th.

A. B. Cole kept his place in the mail service until near the close of Mr. Cleveland's administration. Recently a number of appointments to mail routes were made including Mr. Cole, and dated back in order that they might not come within the operations of the civil service commission. Benny is a civil service reformer—in a horn.

In presenting the high place on which Washington stood as a patriot, statesman and christian, in his remarks, on Centennial Day, Bishop Potter has incurred the the everlasting enmity of our Ben and his partisan followers. While not intended as a personal reflection, the President and his party readily made the application, and in very spite two heads are now taken off by the official guillotine, where one went before.

The many Jasper county friends of ex-clerk Charles H. Price will be exceedingly gratified to learn that at the election held in Dakota May 14th, he was elected to the Constitutional Convention of South Dakota, which convenes at Sioux Falls, July 4th. He was elected as a Democrat, and from the largest District in the Territory. We extend our warmest congratulations to our old friend, and trust that success may crown his progress in life.

Just now our neighbor and other republican organs are chiming in with postmaster general Wanamaker in his opposition to penny postage. This is all right, only they are repudiating one of the planks of their platform, and an important one at that. It will be readily remembered that the republican convention, in lieu of cheaper clothing clothing, fuel, salt and the necessities of life generally, pledged penny postage—for bread they would give them a stone—but are ready to go back on even that.

It is now considered fashionable as well as proper for ladies to have their name and address printed on the stationery used in private correspondence. It is printed in plain Roman type on the upper left hand corner of the paper and on the flap of the envelope. In case a letter is uncalled for, or by any chance the address to which it was sent should become illegible, the letter will be returned to the writer unopened. Plain, white or cream, unruled paper of heavy texture is considered the best.—Ex.

She had been a resident of Jasper county for over 50 years and was held in high esteem by a large circle of acquaintance. The remains were interred in the Welsh Cemetery, Jordan township, Wednesday.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for June comes to us like the breath of June roses, each page filled with bright and attractive novelties. The fashions are well adapted to the season, and patterns to assist ladies in making their summer wardrobes can be obtained by enclosing the coupon furnished with each number to the publishers without extra charge. A great attraction is a new story commenced in this number, "A Model American Girl," by David Lowry, which promises to give an insight into fashionable Washington society, which will be well worthy of perusal. The whole number is bright and attractive.

With the June Roses comes 'Peterson,' as fresh as the first blossoms of the month. The steel-engraving and the full-page wood-illustration is each a gem in its way. The double fashion-plate presents a charming array of the latest summer costumes; and there are, besides, numerous and varied patterns for dress and needlework. The opening story, "Dick Morton's Messenger," is a capital sketch and fitly illustrated. Indeed the entire literary contents merit unqualified praise. Miss Elizabeth Scovel, Superintendent of the Newport Hospital, contributes one of her invaluable "Talks by a Trained Nurse," and Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper a letter full of the freshest Parisian fashion-gossip. Terms: Two Dollars a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.
