TARIFF REFORM LEAGUE!

On Friday evening, June 21st 1889, a meeting will be held at the Court House, in Rensselaer, for the purpose of organizing a Tariff Reform League in this place. With the highest protective tariff the country has ever known and starvation wages the hire of the workmen of the land; with monopolies arrogant and soulless and the Harrisonian administration playing into their hands, the time is certainly auspicious for the organization of Tariff Reform Leagues in every city, village and hamlet in the country. The so-called protection is a delusion and a fraud.

Read the remarks of ex-President Cleveland at the banquet of welcome. Political tricksters receive no comfort from him.

One of those unreasonable men who takes a newspaper for a year or two and then sends it back "refused" or "not wanted," was sued by a Michigan publisher a short time ago, and the judge gave a verdict for the plaintiff for full amount with costs. The court decided that notice to discontinue was not sufficient if the subscriber was in arrears. He must pay first. —Goshen Democrat.

In order to withdraw public attention from the many infamous appointments made by the present Harrisonian administration the Republican this week gives its readers a dose prepared by the N. Y. Tribune, whose editor holds an appointment by the grace of Elder Harrison. The points attempted to be made by the Tribune lack foundation, and were refuted when made. The Republican should inform its readers that a number of the appointments to the Indianapolis post office have proven so notoriously bad that at a meeting of the Civil Service Commission the other day, in that city, they were ordered to be dropped.

"Advantages of a Home Market," appears in the Republican this week, and it is so nice—from Brother Marshall's standpoint. But if he wished to be honest, fair and truthful with his readers, he would have occupied the space with the proclamation of Indiana's great expounder of the constitution, A. P. Hovey, in behalf of the starving miners in our coal fields, and with an honest, truthful statement of events occurring daily in those localities—all brought about through the agency of the blessed tariff, which Elder Harrison gave his pledge should bountifully supply them with food and clothing and stimulate the "Advantages of a Home Market" in the interest of the agricultural community. Like Bro. Marshall, these victims of misplaced confidence believed in the declarations of the "grandson of his grandfather" and voted for him. They "sowed the wind" and are reaping the whirlwind. Aid is being extended to them in their dire calamity, and we trust they may receive an all sufficiency. Among liberal donors we note Senators Turpie and Voorhees, but fail to discover that President Harrison has donated one farthing. Is he awaiting the sanction of the heartless soulless operators? They will never grant it.

COMMITTEE.

A base-ball club, the "Rensselaer Blues," has been organized in this place, with the following membership: Chas. Simpson, Jno. Kegg, Charles Moreland, Charles Rhoads, E. A. Reynolds, Louie Hopkins, A. H. Hopkins, Harve Robinson, Dion Zimmerman and J. W. McGinnis.

Mason Long, the "Reformed Gambler," held a number of interesting street meetings in Rensselaer during the past week.

Norman McCurtain, of Barkley township, son of Newt McCurtain now of Kingman, Kansas, was placed in jail Wednesday on account of insanity.

Our neighbor makes a fling at Marshal Simpson for not interfering in the street fight between the brothers-in-law Wm. Coyner and T. J. Saylor. When we consider some matters said to have led to the row we would not be surprised if the Marshal should desire that the participants in the racket should punish each other to their heart's content. Simpson is a Democrat, which is the extent of his sinning. The Republican should train its guns upon the participants, of its own political household. However, the row could not have amounted to much when, upon acceding to the demand of the Republican for "the rigorous punishment of the principals in this affray," it was found the dignity of the State had only been damaged $2 worth by each party.

A good suit of clothes may now be had at R. Fendig's for $4, never before sold for less than $6.50.

The complement of teachers for the Rensselaer schools has been completed in the employment of Howard L. Wilson, of Sheridan, a graduate of the State University, as principal of the high school, and Miss McDonald, of Plymouth, for the Primary department.

MIGHT DO FOR SOUP.

A staunch republican has a democrat wife who had an idea that during the last administration a reduction of the tariff would greatly benefit the working classes, while her husband argued that the election of Harrison and the triumph of the protection idea would have the same result. As every one knows the tendency has been toward hard times since the election, and this republican has been out of work and without money since that time. One day recently the wife said to the husband: "There isn't a thing in the house to eat." "I know it," replied the husband, "but what can I do? I have had no work for weeks, and I have been trying every place but can find none, and am totally discouraged." "Well," said she, "go to the closet and get me that protection to 'Am-rican labor' banner you carried during the last campaign. I'll cut it up and boil it, and maybe it'll do for soup." —Rushville Jacksonian.

SCANDALOUS FACTS.

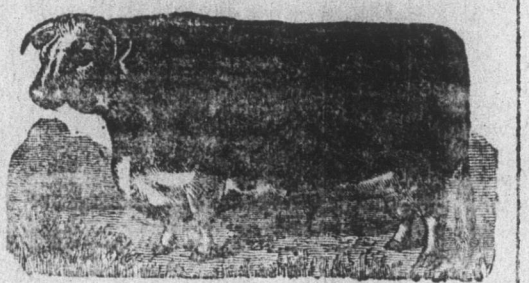

It is a fact that the last election was carried by money corruptly contributed and corruptly used. The electoral votes which decided the contest contrary to the popular will, as shown in the popular vote were bought. The men who furnished the money have been rewarded by the administration; the men who did the dirty and criminal work have been protected from prosecution in various ways, some of them by the self-stultifying act of a judge in reversing his decision and substituting an idiotic ruling in its stead, and that judge, it is now rumored, is likely to be raised to still higher judicial position as a reward for his "subserviency." —N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
