CARD TO THE PUBLIC!

I want it understood that the Franklin Comedy Company that is to play at the Opera House, August 15th, 16th and 17th, has nothing to do with the so-called circus that appears here under the name of King & Franklin. We are a first-class Dramatic Company, and not a cheap Ten-Cent Show trying to make the public believe we are what we are not. Do not be deceived in the names.

M. H. PACKARD, Ag't

Slating the roof of the new M. E. church began Monday.

Don't forget!—King and Franklin's Colossal shows will exhibit in Rensselaer August 16th.

Will and Bert Paxton, of Newton township, enter the grocery business in Morocco, this week.

Never before were goods sold so cheap as those now being sold by R. Fendig.

The Citizens' State Bank will occupy its new quarters next Monday.

W. B. Austin started yesterday on a visit to Churubusco, this State.

The Monticello base ball club is announced to play the Rensselaer Blues at this place to-day.

A finer line of embroideries and laces can not be found anywhere than that carried by R. Fendig.

T. J. Borem is erecting a big barn on Simon P. Thompson's lands in Union township.

D. B. Nowels and Wal. Robinson entered upon their duties as proprietors of the Colburn lumber yard, at this place, Tuesday.

Boots and shoes bought at the Chicago Bargain House can be exchanged, and if you are not suited money refunded.

Our motto is quick sales and small profits, and 25 to 50 per cent. less than "The Other Fellows."

CHICAGO BARGAIN HOUSE.

The Franklin Comedy Company, although billed like a circus is nothing of the kind, but will give a first class entertainment at the Opera House, Thursday night, August 15th.

The officers of the new Dwiggins syndicate bank at Churubusco, this State, are: Zimri Dwiggins, president; W. B. Austin, vice president, and Geo. K. Hollingsworth cashier.

If you want a good, first-class Boot or Shoe at about one-half price, go to the Chicago Bargain House as they are closing out to make room for a Fall and Winter stock.

At the Baptist Church: Covenant meeting, Saturday, at 1:30 p. m. Sunday—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 10:45 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Young Peoples' Chorus at 4:00 p. m. All are invited.

The press and public recommend the Franklin Comedy Company as being one of the best now before the public. Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, August 15th, 16th and 17th.

The annual County Teachers' Institute will be held week after next. Prof. Beck, of the Indiana University and Prof. Thompson, of the State Normal School, will be the regular instructors. Prof. B. J. Radford, formerly of Eureka College, Illinois, will be present the first day, and will lecture in the afternoon and evening.

B. Forsythe, of the Chicago Bargain House, intends having more new shelving in the main room, and the adjoining back room fitted up for Clothing and Winter Boots.

Our old friend D. L. Pritchard, of College Springs, Iowa, (formerly of Barkley township) after an absence for a number of years is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. He gives a glowing account of agricultural prospects in his adopted State.

It will pay you to visit the Furniture rooms of Jay W. Williams.
