OHIO.

IOWA.

VIRGINIA.

NEW YORK.

MARYLAND.

NEW JERSEY.

MISSISSIPPI.

Democratic by big majorities!
In Ohio Campbell, Democratic candidate for Governor, was elected by from 10,000 to 15,000, and the Legislature Democratic.

Iowa, Democratic Governor, and probably other state officers and the legislature.

In Virginia, Mahone, the rebel brigadier, republican candidate for governor, was elected by 42, 000.

New York and New Jersey big Democratic

In Maryland, too, the Democratic victory was complete.

In Mississippi Fort Pillow Chalmers, the republican candidate for governor, withdrew from the race, and the Democracy had little or no opposition.

In Massachusetts, the Republican majority of 33,000 has been reduced to 6,000

Nebraska, too, showing considerable republican reduction.

Pennsylvania alone shows an increased Republican majority.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—The Hon.
Grover Cleveland, New York
Gov. Foraker has surrendered all the republican flags in Ohio.

ALLEN W. THURMAN.

Indianapolis Sentinel: The dimensions of the democratic victories of Tuesday were not fully understood yesterday morning. It is hard even now to realize their magnitude. Just think of it! Ob o democratic, both on governor and legislature; Virginia overwhelmingly democratic; New York democratic by a great big majority; New Jersey ditto; Iowa democratic; the republican majority in Massachusetts reduced from 33,000 last year to a beggarly 6,000 or 7,000; Maryland handsomely democratic. As the enthusiastic Kentucky farmer, quoted by Mr. Watterson's Courier-Journal, remarked: "Ground swell, be d—d; it's an earthquake!"

Washington, November 7.—Ex-President Cleveland was interviewed last on the election returns.

"It is evident," said Mr. Cleveland, "that the leaven of tariff reform has at last leavened the whole lump. The West, which has suffered the most from the unjust burden of tariff taxation, has awakened; The State platforms of both Iowa and Ohio were abreast of the St. Louis platform on the subject of tariff reform. The people have considered and passed judgment.

It was for the people to decide The are now deciding.

"It is enough to say that I am satisfied at the indications and results of the day's elections. The verdict in Virginia indicates that the South is still faithful to the Democracy of Jefferson and Jackson."

Let the watchmen of Democracy continue to be "Tariff Reform!"

Mrs. Lee. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs.
Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mrs. Lee. "What is that?"

Mrs. Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine. She takes it and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too.

Every time Mamie goes over to the Allen's comes back and tells me to get you to take it. Mamie goes over to the Allen's every month, and a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. Lee. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse, and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demarest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

Don't Experiment.
You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he has more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial before free at Dr. B. Meyer's Drug Store. Large boxes.
