My son, deal with men who advertise. You will never lose by it.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

We are the sole agents in Rensselaer for the only genuine Lambertville snag-proof rubber boots, that will wear about five years.

Chicago Bargain Store.

Of this boot J. H. Miner & Son, of Frankfort, Indiana, say: "Lambertville Rubber Co., Gents:—There is one great trouble with your boot: that is, they wear too long. Men who bought the "Snag-Proof" boot of us two seasons ago are wearing them yet. A customer said to us when buying a second pair of your boots, that the "Snag Proof" boots would be cheaper at $10 a pair than the common rubber boots would be at $3."

The stock of drugs, medicines, etc., etc., on sale at the new store of B. F. Fendig & Co., are all new, pure, and of best quality.—Everything is neatly arranged, the establishment presents a handsome appearance, Bennie thoroughly understands his duties, and we are pleased to note he is building up a very desirable trade.

The Indianapolis Sentinel Co. is offering as a premium with the Indiana State Sentinel, a magnificent engraving of Munkacy's "Christ before Pilate," Ross Bonheur's "Horse Fair" and the "Lion at Home," by the same artist. Subscribers can obtain any one of these by paying a nominal sum to cover the cost of putting up and forwarding the picture. The engravings are readily sold at $1, but it is proposed to ask an advance of little more than one-tenth of that amount over the regular subscription price for the weekly Sentinel and the picture. The Sentinel Co. will send any one of the pictures to new subscribers, or old subscribers renewing their subscriptions, and the weekly rate for $1.15. This is only 15c. to cover express charges from New York, postage, wrapper, clerical work and other incidentals. The picture is given free. It is a remarkable offer.

A CARD

We make pictures of all kinds in the latest styles and at very low prices. Special attention given to copying and enlarging. New Gallery, opposite Makeever House.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alkaline and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at F. S. Meyer's Drug Store.
