REGULATORS CONVICTED.

Two of a Party of Louisiana White Caps Found Guilty.

An Opelousas (La.) dispatch reports that the jury in the case of The State vs. Arville Beard and Charles Arabi, two of the Coulo Croche regulators, has returned a verdict of guilty without capital punishment. This is the first conviction of regulators in that State. The offense committed by these regulators was substantially as follows: About four months ago a colored woman living on Mr. Dupleichin's place, on Coulo Croche, sued a white man in the neighborhood and obtained a judgment. Not wishing to appeal the case the party sued concluded to have the woman regulated. A gang of mounted men went to Dupleichin's place after midnight, called the woman up, and were taking her away forcibly when she appealed to her employer for protection. Dupleichin fired on the regulators, severely wounding one of them, and was in turn shot by the regulators and severely wounded. The woman was released and the regulators hastily retreated, but the wounded man led to the identity of the party, two of whom have just been convicted as stated above.

BRAZIL BLESSED BY THE CHURCH.

The New Republic Sustained by the Whole Population of Every Province.

Sonor Valente, the Brazilian Minister at Washington, has received the following important cablegram, which shows that the republic has been accepted by all the provinces of Brazil:

RIO DE JANEIRO.—I inform you that all the provinces have signified their adherence to the Republic and Provisional Government without any resistance or protest. The Government has extended the right to vote to all citizens, except those unable to read or write. The Archbishop, head of the church in Brazil, has conferred to-day his solemn benediction upon the Government and the Republic.

Ruy Barroso, Minister of Finance.

In reply to a suggestion that cable dispatches from Germany stated that there was danger of a division of Brazil into three parts, Minister Valente said that the above telegram was a complete refutation of all such reports. It showed that Brazil was united, and that the sentiment of every province was in favor of a republic.

KELLY IS WITH THE BOYS.

He Signs a Contract with the Boston Brotherhood Club.

A New York dispatch says: It is learned that Mike Kelly has signed a three-year's contract to play ball with the brotherhood club of Boston at a salary not made public. Al Johnson, of Cleveland, and Ned Hanlon, of Pittsburgh, came to New York, expressly to sign Kelly, reasoning that his signing would have a great weight in influencing other players to stick by the brotherhood. A meeting of the brotherhood has been called at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for Dec. 10.

Hippolyte is having no trouble whatever, but the continued celebration by the people in honor of the new government makes it very hard to get any work done. Minister Douglass, it is said, will not remain long on the island, and will return to the States in the course of a few months.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

Business in All Lines Fairly Prosperous—Coffee Only Fractionally Higher.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The Brazilian revolution has had surprisingly little influence on the markets as yet; coffee is only an eighth higher for the week, and the new Government appears to be so generally sustained that apprehension of closing of ports or interruption of trade has almost ceased. But it is possible that the money markets were indirectly affected to some extent through Europe, where the uncertainty continues. Here money has been scarce and dear at times, tight at Philadelphia, and decidedly close at Boston. The heavy exports of domestic products give strong assurance that the money market will hardly be disturbed by demands from abroad. The market of crops and movement of money from New York to pay for them have produced an easier situation at Western and Southern centers. The great industries are making steady progress. Iron and steel are strong. The cotton manufacture has been doing a steady business, with firm prices. The woolen goods business does not appear at Boston to be improving to any great extent, but there has been more activity in the wool market. Montevideo, hide market, at the present price for thirty-five years, but more demand for leather has noticed at Boston. Hardware is also selling well, and lumber is in good demand. Wheat has risen 3c. and corn 1c. Oats rose 5c. and pork products are higher. The general course of prices has been upward, however, the advance since Nov. 1 having averaged about 11/4 per cent on all commodities. At Chicago the dressed beef receipts are double those of last year, and of provisions more than double, while the dry goods trade still shows satisfactory results, with payment easy in the country. The Minneapolis market is active, and the factory there with improving collections and business is improving at Kansas City. On the whole the outcome remains favorable. The business failures number 277, as compared with 265 the previous week, and 267 the week before that. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 296.

WASHINGTON'S SENATORS.

John B. Allen and Watson C. Squire Chosen at Seattle.

A Seattle, Wash., dispatch says John B. Allen, ex-Delegate to Congress, was elected Senator on the first ballot and ex-Gov. Watson C. Squire was elected on the second ballot. On Allen's election the vote in the House stood: John B. Allen, 46; George Turner, 14; T. H. Brents, 1; Charles S. Voorhees, 8. In the Senate: Allen, 26; Turner, 6.

John Beard Allen, United States Senator from Washington, was born at Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Ind., in May, 1845. At this place he lived until 1864, when he entered the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Indiana Volunteers. Upon his return from the service he removed to Rochester, Minn. In 1869 he was admitted to the bar, and the following year Mr. Allen emigrated to the Pacific coast, settling in Olympia. In 1871 he was married to Miss M. Cecilia Bateman, of Laumont, Mich. They have a family of five children—three girls and two boys. Mr. Allen was appointed United States Attorney for Washington Territory in 1875. In this position he served for ten years. He was elected Delegate to Congress by the Republicans, but the admission of the State precluded his taking his seat.

After graduating at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1859, he read law at Cleveland, Ohio. In the investigation at Salt Lake, Utah, recently, the spirit of the Mormon Church toward the Government, and as to the oaths taken by Mormons in the Endowment House, for the purpose of determining whether membership in that church is compatible with citizenship, a Mrs. Gilmore testified that she went through the Endowment House seventeen years ago with a number of others, and all were called upon to swear that they would avenge the blood of Joseph and Hiram Smith upon the American nation, and teach it to their children and their children's children down to the fourth generation. Any one who violated the oaths or revealed the secrets of the house should be killed. Henry W. Lawrence, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and one of the most prominent business men of the Territory, testified that he officiated in the Endowment House in Salt Lake for several years. In the ceremony persons going through always took the following oath:

You, each and all of you, agree to avenge the blood of the prophets, Joseph and Hiram, who have sealed their testimony with their blood; and that you will teach this to your children and your children's children to the third and fourth generation. A few years ago it was quite a common thing for the Supreme Court upon appeal to reverse decisions rendered by the Court of Claims, but recently the reversal of the latter's decisions by the highest court in the land is comparatively rare."
