U. M. McGUIRE.

Speaking of Senator Voc-her's speech on Dudley's infamous blocks-of-five letter, the Pittsburg Dispatch (Rep.) says that "the document is certainly one to mortify Republican leaders," and adds: "Whatever chance there might have been to reconcile its instructions with the notion that only legitimate campaign expenses were in view was dissipated by Dudley's evasion of a legal inquiry. The matter, therefore, makes stinging campaign material bearing upon the corrupt use of money in politics."

The farmer who complains of the price he gets for his produce, should remember the Republicans say the high tariff is designed especially to help the farmers by creating a good home market for their products. After thirty years of high tariff the farmers can see how nicely the home market theory works for them. They can sell their wheat for 70 cents a bushel, their corn and oats for 20 cents and other things in proportion—if they can sell them at all for any price. The "home market" argument is what the Republicans rely on to catch the farmer vote, and they doubt a man's loyalty if he cannot see the astonishing benefits of 70 cent wheat and double priced goods in this glorious "home market."—LaPorte Argus.

The farmers of Tippecanoe county are not in love with Harrison's "home market." Last week large quantities of corn were sold in the southern part of the county for 12½ cents per bushel. About the same time a prominent Republican farmer was offering to sell hay out of the stack at $3 per load, take all you can load. The "home market" is a daisy.—Lafayette Journal.

The Rev. Derry, the negro preacher, is a good hand at turning an epigram. He says, in speaking for the blacks, "We must beg Congress to let us alone. I, for one am tired of seeing myself on the Senatorial dissecting table, the mark for demagogues' dull wit."

Early in the field, and among the very best of the month's magazines, comes "Peterson" for February. Every lady should see its beautiful steel and wood engravings and its colored fashion plate, which is really an artistic picture. "Rescued by Custer's men," by Anna Latham, is a thrilling incident of the dashing general and his brave band, told in a very dramatic fashion. The serial by Howard Seely is full of action, and it is interesting to compare its descriptions of American frontier life with the accounts of Parisian society in Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper's admirable novelet, "A Magnificent Marriage." The short stories, miscellaneous articles and poems are all worthy of the highest praise. No household should be without "Peterson" for it always offers a varied and attractive table of contents, and at a price which brings it within everybody's reach. Terms, $2.00 a year. Address, Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia

Editor Journal:

I am a farmer and a Republican and I am at a loss what to do. I can't get but 67 cents for wheat, 21 cents for corn and 2 cents for beef. What would you advise me to do?
 GRANGE.
 Just hang to Harrison's high protection and a "home market" and you will make it—in to the poor house or some other paradise, bye-and-bye.—Lafayette Journal.

One or two tablespoonsful of ammonia added to a pail of water will clean windows better than soap.

Great improvement will be found in tea and coffee if they are kept in glass fruit jars instead of in tin boxes.

A teaspoonful of borax added to cold starch will make clothes stiffer than anything else I ever tried, though it adds no polish.

Equal parts of ammonia and turpentine will take paint out of clothing, even if it be hard and dry. Saturate the spot as often as necessary, and wash out in soapsuds.

One teaspoonful of ammonia to a teacupful of water will clean gold or silver jewelry; a few drops of aqua ammonia poured on the under side of diamonds will clean them immediately, making them very brilliant.

When troubled with soreness or sense of tightness in the chest, dampen a flannel cloth with kerosene, and apply over the spot. Do not leave it on too long, or it will blister. One night will usually relieve the soreness.

Confectioners' sugar is a very fine powdered sugar, called by the trade XXX. For all candy-creams, icings, sherbets and sweets in general, this sugar is preferable to either cut loaf or granulated, and its cost is about equal.

When the glass globes of chandeliers have become smoked and grimy, soak them in hot water to which a little sal soda has been added. Then put some ammonia into hot water, enter the globes and scrub briskly with a stiff brush. Rinse thoroughly and wipe dry.

Dr. Kelley, dentist, has returned to Rensselaer and opened an office in "Liberal Corner," upstairs over T. P. Wright's undertaking shop, where he will be glad to see all those wishing dental work, and he will make it an object for all wishing his services.

It Saved my Child's Life.
 "When my child was born, the doctor ordered one of the other Foods. She ate that until she nearly died. I had three doctors, who said the trouble was Indigestion, and ordered the food changed to Lactated Food. It saved my child's life, and I owe you many thanks for it. I regard your Food as invaluable, and superior to all other artificial food for babies."
