

A MAN who has practiced medicine for forty years ought to know salt from sugar. Read what he says:

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most forty years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful; and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure. If they would take it according to directions.

Yours truly,
L. L. GOKSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit street.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

Adventures of a Country Boy.

To-day I ran upon a young fellow who recently came to this city from a country town, says the Louisville Times. He has lots of brains, but will require some polishing before he is capable of going city gait in the proper style. He has been taken in several times lately, and his sad recollections have converted him into something of a funny man. He had just rounded up a night with the boys when I saw him, and his disheveled hair, dingy clothes, and, above all, his keen black eyes glaring from a clear-cut, handsome face, gave him the appearance of a telegram that had come over a barbed wire. He told me some of his troubles:

"Not long ago," said he, "I went to the business place of an auctioneer to see the sights, and while there I lost my pocket-book, containing $200. I told the auctioneer about it, and requested him to announce that I would give $100 for its return. The auctioneer stated my proposition. Then I heard a drawing voice from away over in a corner say, 'I'll give $125.' They were still bidding on it when I left. Now, that simply proves how bad luck hangs to a fellow."

"Not long after that experience," continued the young fellow, "I went in a place to have a friendly game of poker. A friendly game with a friend, as it were. I had $50. I also had four aces. They will win in almost any climate. But the other fellow had five kings. He said it was a centennial hand, being held only every hundred years. You see, it wasn't my time. When I started to leave him—and my $50—he kindly invited me to have some quail on toast. I told him I was fond of bird, but I had just had a little robin, and couldn't go any more just then."

A Necessity of Health.

It is a prime necessity of health that the action of the bowels should be kept regular. But the way to overcome a temporary fit of constipation, or to remedy chronic costiveness, is not to deluge the stomach and drench the bowels with purgatives of violent and painful action. The happy medium between an inoperative and violent cathartic is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which acts just sufficiently upon the bowels to relax them, without pain, and which being a wholesome tonic, as well as aperient, has the effect of strengthening both them and the stomach, and promoting the well being of the whole internal economy. The removal of bile from the blood, increased activity of the liver, usually dormant in cases of costiveness, and sound digestion follow the use of this beneficial medicine, as thorough and general in its effects as it is safe and pure in composition. Rheumatism, fever and ague, kidney troubles and debility are also remedied by it.

The Mother-in-Law Was Surprised.

A well-known young man in town who became the father of twins the other morning, grew so elated over the event that he proceeded to trifle with the telegraph to the extent of 25 cents, and wired his mother-in-law in Chicago in this jubilant, jag-on strain:

"Twins born! Head us off!"

The next day he was surprised by a sudden swooping down of the mother-in-law upon him, bathed in tears and full of anxiety, even as the proud father had been full of a sweeter spirit ever since the advent of his heirs.

The mother-in-law had been shocked at the receipt of the telegram, for a wicked and soul-hardened telegraph operator had construed the message so that the horrified grandmother of the two innocents read it:

"Twins born! Heads off!"—Toledo Blade.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial size free. At all Druggists.

FIVE little Italian boys were recently sold by their parents to an enterprising stranger "for olive oil and 10 francs apiece," and were being taken by their purchaser to Hamburg, "to be shipped with plaster of paris figures to different parts of the world," when they were found by the Austrian police at Ala, in the Tyrol, and sent home again.

Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup.

There is certainly something remarkable in this preparation, as it is meeting with a success never attained by any other medicine. It never fails if used as directed.

For over twenty years I have been a great sufferer from the effects of a diseased stomach, and for three years past have been unable to do business. Two years ago my case was pronounced incurable. I visited different water cures and climates, all to no purpose. Last June I began taking Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup (prepared by Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.), and at once began to feel better. I have used thirteen bottles and am a well man.

Now is the Time

To purify your blood and fortify your system against the debilitating effects of spring weather. At no other season is the bitter taste in the mouth more prominent, the breath so offensive, the drowsy dizziness so frequent, or that extreme tired feeling so prevalent. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to build up the system, purify the blood, cure biliousness and headache, overcome that tired feeling, and create a good appetite. The peculiar medicinal merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is shown by the many remarkable cures it accomplishes where others fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"For a first-class spring medicine my wife and I think very highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla. We both took it last spring. It did us a great deal of good and we felt better through the hot weather than ever before. It cured my wife of sick headache, from which she has suffered a great deal, and relieved me of a dizzy, tired feeling. I think every one ought to take something to purify the blood before the hot weather comes on, and we shall take Hood's Sarsaparilla this spring." J. H. PEARCE, Supt. Granite Ry. Co., Concord, N. H.

The Spring Medicine

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates scrofula and all humors, cures salt rheum, boils, pimples, etc. The severest cases of blood poisoning have yielded to its superior curative power.

"This is to certify that I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for some time past and have found it to be a good blood purifier. It has been of great benefit as recommended, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are in want of any medicine of the kind." ROBERT A. SMITH, Justice of the Peace, Honesdale, Pa.

The Spring Medicine

"I wish to enroll my name as one of those who have derived health from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For many years I have taken it, especially in the early spring, when I am troubled with dizziness, dullness, unpleasant taste in my mouth in the morning. It removes this bad taste, relieves my headache, and makes me feel greatly refreshed. The two bottles I have used this spring have been worth a dollar a dose. I advise all my friends to take it." WEBSTER'S

UNABRIDGED

ANCIENT EDITION.

A so-called "Webster's Unabridged Dictionary" is being offered to the public at a very low price. The body of the book, from A to Z, is a cheap reprint, page for page, of the edition of 1847, which was in its day, a valuable book, but in the progress of language for over FORTY YEARS, has been completely superseded. It is now reproduced, broken type, errors and all, by photo-lithograph process, is printed on cheap paper and flimsily bound. A brief comparison, page by page, between the reprint and the latest and enlarged edition, will show the great superiority of the latter. These reprints are as out of date as a last year's almanac. No honorable dealer will allow the buyer of such to suppose that he is getting the Webster which to-day is accepted as the Standard and THE BEST,—every copy of which bears our imprint as given below.
