General Passenger Agent

In this Judicial Circuit, Hammond, for Judge, received 818 maj.

Brown, for Prosecutor, 612 maj.

In this Senatorial district, Gilman received 782 maj.

For Representative, Parker received 522

maj.

A Washington special to the Cincinnati Enquirer says that "it is the president's intention to offer Congressman Owen, who was defeated for re-election in the Logansport District, a good office. The place Mr. Owen is to have, it is said, will be either in Washington or elsewhere, as he may desire."

So be it. It will next be in order for the people to retire Bennie.

Some "XXX"—third proof whiskey-snicker—this week consoles our neighbor with a report that "A lady in Remington, the wife of a well-known Democrat, was heard to remark that she 'had never realized until the night of the Democratic Jubilee, how wicked man could be, nor how forbearing God could be.'" George has been badly down, but has been on the 'revive' since receiving the report quoted. We are informed that lady says "the extreme wickedness of the affair consisted in the fact that those guilty of the gross misconduct were Republicans who engaged in it with a view to throw disgrace upon Democrats who came to rejoice with Remington over the elevation of one of her most highly esteemed citizens to a high station."

A daughter at the home of Ed. Parcells.

Next Thursday has been designated by the President to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving.

Last Saturday Judge Hammond was sworn in as Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit, and is now presiding over the Court at Fowler.

Next Wednesday evening Mr. H. J. Bartoo and Miss Lorena S. Peacock will be married at the place of their future residence, on Washington street, Rensselaer.

Mr. Wilborn Day is dangerously ill at his home in this place. In response to a telegram his sons, John and Charles, arrived from Kansas one day last week.

Frank Maloy went to Hammond the other day to look up a job.

Judge Hammond has severed his connection with the Turpie-Lowe case.

S. P. Thompson is at Logansport attending to the interests of Hugh Lowe in the Turpie-Lowe case.

It is said there are some ugly cracks in the brick work of the main tower of the new college in process of erection at this place.

The new creamery at this place is giving very general satisfaction and is well patronized.

J. A. Sharp has disposed of his gallery to J. C. Williams, who is now in possession. We regret Jerry's withdrawal from the old institution.

Our enterprising granger friend Frank M. Parker, is said to be one of the best patrons of the Rensselaer Creamery.

The venerable Micajah Hancock, in his 103d year, recently visited Monon with a view of being photographed.

The verdict of the jury in the Pettit case, on trial at Crawfordsville, is imprisonment for life. A motion was made for a new trial.

A section hand on the Monon, Charles Weiner, jumped off the Sunday morning passenger train while in motion, at this place, receiving severe cut on his head and injury to his back.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. U. M. McGuire, Rensselaer, Nov. 4, 1890, Mr. CARL MATCHOW and Miss LUCY, daughter of John H. Shields, of this township.

The best French kip boots at lowest price and warranted.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Try one pair of Ludlow's fine shoes for ladies and you will have no other.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

The only place in Rensselaer for Cones Boss Duck Coats, overalls, and hunting suits is at the Chicago Bargain Store.

Spitler's post-office book store is the headquarters for school books.

Indiana Series of school books, on sale at Spitler's post-office book store, at the prices established by law.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Indiana Series of school books must be used in all the schools. J. E. Spitler, at the post-office, has them on sale, at the regular prices.

The post-office book store is headquarters for school books.

SHERIFF'S SALE
By virtue of a certified copy of a Decree and an Execution directed to me by the Clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, I will, on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1890, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of said day, at the northern door of the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, expose at Public Sale the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in said Town, County and State, to-wit:

The East half of Lots Five (5), Eight (8) and Nine (9), in Block Forty-three (43), in Weston's Second Addition to said Town.

And upon failure of said rents and profits selling for enough to satisfy the judgment in said Decree in favor of Emmet L. Hollingsworth for the sum of Three Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Sixty-six Cents ($371.66), with interest and costs, and a further judgment rendered in said cause in favor of William B. Austin for Three Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($320.00), with interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate, and if, after applying the proceeds of such sale upon said judgment, interest and costs in favor of said Hollingsworth, there shall not be a sufficiency to pay said judgment, interest and cost in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, offer at Public Sale the rents and profits, for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in Weston's Second Addition to said Town, to-wit:

Commencing at a point on an alley running north and south through the center of Block Forty-six (46), in said Weston's Second Addition, Forty-seven (47) feet south of the northeast corner of Lot Three (3), in said Block; thence running southerly to a point on the easterly side of Division Street Ninety-eight (98) feet southerly along the easterly side of Division Street from the point where the westerly boundary line of said Lot Three (3) in said Block intersects the easterly side of Division Street; thence southerly along the easterly boundary of Division Street to the south point of said Lot Three (3) being at the intersection of said alley with Division Street; thence north to the place of beginning.

And if said rents and profits fail to sell for enough to satisfy said judgment in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate last described.

All to be sold without benefit of appraisement laws, subject to redemption. Ordered to be sold as the property of Albert M. Hoover and others at the suit of said Emmet L. Hollingsworth and William B. Austin in cause No. 4153 in said Jasper Circuit Court.

PHILIP BLUE, Sheriff of Jasper County, Indiana.

PETERSON'S 1891 MAGAZINE

50TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION
THE QUEEN OF THE LADIES' MONTHLIES ENLARGED AND GREATLY IMPROVED, MAKING IT MORE DESIRABLE THAN EVER, AND KEEPING IT IN THE LEAD OF THE LADIES' MAGAZINES.

Its fiction is strong and clean. Some of the best-known American writers contribute to its pages, among them Edgar Poe, Frank L. Bennett, Howard Seelye, Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, Rebecca Harding Davis, Miss M. G. McMillan, Alice Bowman, and Minna Irving.

Historical and Biographical Sketches, with numerous and appropriate illustrations, printed on fine paper, will be given monthly.

In the Fashion department, we aim to combine beauty and utility. The newest and prettiest styles of costume are given with full descriptions, also a monthly dress-pattern sheet. As a fashion magazine, "PETERSON'S" is universally pronounced as far in the lead of all others.

Numerous designs for needle-work, embroidery, knitting, painting, &c., with designs printed in colors. Articles on the management of the sick, by a trained nurse, household and garden hints, recipes for cooking, and interesting articles on various topics, are given monthly.

The aim of the publishers is to give such variety of contents as will both interest and instruct its readers, and make it a helpful companion to every woman.

TERMS: $2.00 PER YEAR with large reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums for getting them up.
A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent for 6 cents.

Address, PETERSON'S MAGAZINE,

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given to all the citizens of the Town of Wheatfield and Wheatfield Township, of Jasper county, and State of Indiana, that the undersigned George W. Tilton, a white male inhabitant of said Town and Township, and over the age of twenty-one years, and who is not in the habit of becoming intoxicated, and a man of good moral character, and a fit person in every respect to be entrusted with the sale of intoxicating liquors, will make application to the Board of Commissioners of said Jasper county at the next regular session and meeting of said Board, to be held in the Town of Rensselaer, in said County and State aforesaid, commencing on the first Monday in December, 1890, the same being the 1st day of December, 1890, and called the December session of said Board, for a License to sell and barter spirituous liquors, vinous liquors, and malt liquors, and all intoxicating liquors which may be used as a beverage, in less quantities than a quart at a time, with the privilege of allowing and permitting said liquors to be drunk on the premises where sold and bartered, said premises being precisely located and described as follows, to-wit: In a one-story frame building situated on the following described land to-wit: Commencing at a point six (6) feet north, and forty (40) feet and ten (10) inches east of the southwest corner of lot five (5), in Block one (1), in Bentley's Addition to the Town of Wheatfield, in Jasper county, Indiana; thence north thirty (30) feet; thence east eighteen (18) feet, thence south thirty (30) feet, thence west eighteen (18) feet, to the point of commencement. Said License will be asked for the period of one year.

GEORGE W. TILTON.
James W. Douthitt, Att'y for Petitioner.
November 7, 1890.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's that?"
"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."
"Well, we all want something more than we've got, don't you?"
"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master." I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say I'm 'mean'; and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"
"I think she is; and we are economical, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that she has made for me, and she's so kind and kind and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret.' But I think I've discovered her secret." When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new ideas from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"
"Demore's Family Magazine, and—"
"What! Why that's what I'd wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."
"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub,' right here, on my wife's account; she's bound to have a change. Set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for club—the biggest thing out. If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a sack-hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mr. Tom. Only $1 a year,—will send you four times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demore, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO.
