HIDEOUS LEPROSY.

A Disease that is Much More Prevalent than is Generally Supposed.

The disease of leprosy is more widely diffused over the habitable globe than most people imagine. It reaches from the Arctic regions to the tropics, and is found in half the countries of the world. It exists alike in all mountainous and marshy regions. It is estimated that there are 100,000 cases in India. It is found in China, Japan, Africa and Egypt, where it is supposed to have taken its start. There are many cases of it in Norway and Sweden. It was introduced in Central and Southern America by Portuguese traders, into Mexico by Spanish immigrants, and into Canada by individuals from France. There are two leper settlements in Louisiana. The disease has got a footing in Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota through Scandinavian colonists. Along the Pacific, in California and Oregon, it has been planted by the Chinese, and on the southern Atlantic coast by people from the West Indies. It has been carried to Salt Lake City by women brought by Mormons from the Sandwich Islands. There is a lazaretto for lepers at one place in New Brunswick, and three cases have been lately discovered at Cape Breton. The settlement at Molokai, Sandwich Islands, numbers upward of eleven hundred, where every phase of the disease, of which there are many, can be observed. This is near the scene of Father Damien's self-sacrificing labors and brave death. In Cape Colony and the West Indies it is said that the disease is on the increase. It is remarkable that a disease of such ancient origin should be so little understood. There is a wide field open here for scientists and philanthropists for investigation, to the end that relief or cure of this insidious disease may be brought about. Societies have been formed in this country and England, and considerable funds raised, quite recently, for making a study of the disease in different parts of the world.

FOR THE HOME.

CUSHION-SHAPED salt cellars with scroll feet are pretty and new. Rose jars of perforated silver and glass are pretty and desirable. A PAIR of Dresden candlesticks has on the base of each a Cupid, one armed with gun and game bag, the other in the act of taking aim. Around each candle are four white clovers with their leaves. The shade is pale-green silk. TEA vases for individual cups are produced in the form of acorns, hearts and bird's eggs. These are both plain and covered with repousse work. The silver is pierced with fine openings that are imperceptible in the carved work.

Pure Air Unpopular.

A sound, healthy person takes no harm from a slight chill, and if in the late summer and in autumn we accustom ourselves to cool rooms and but a moderate amount of clothing we are so much the better prepared for winter. The matter is, of course, especially important to judges, lawyers, and others who spend most of the day in offices. I have seen learned counselors panic-stricken by the raising of window, and I understand that some judges would probably fine for contempt of court anybody who should introduce a current of pure air within their jurisdiction. No wonder that litigation thrives in a bad atmosphere.

The East half of Lots Five (5), Eight (8) and Nine (9), in Block Forty-three (43), in Weston's Second Addition to said Town.

Austin for Three Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($320.00), with interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate, and if, after applying the proceeds of such sale upon said judgment, interest and costs in favor of said Hollingsworth, there shall not be sufficient to pay said judgment, interest and cost in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, offer at Public Sale the rents and profits, for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in Weston's Second Addition to said Town, to-wit:

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were parted. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh, she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess 'want' would be my master. I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never getting anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are economical, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always merry as a lark. When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you hair!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what I wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'amb' right here, on my wife's account; she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our wedding next month. My gold watch was a premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for clubs,—the biggest thing out! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack-hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year—will save fifty times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, J. Youngs Demorest, 140 Nassau Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO.
