The Evansville Courier says that a tariff for revenue only with incidental free trade, would soon settle the trusts.

We know Republicans in Jasper county who voted against Billy Owen for the sole reason that he voted for the McKinley bill.

"Reciprocity" and "Free Trade" are synonymous terms, and even Billy Owen, since the election, has come out in favor of reciprocity.

Congressman Neidringham's tin-plate manufactory, which the republican press advertised so extensively before the election, turns out to be nothing but a sheet-iron mill.

Our little Ben in his message insinuates: "D—n the people, they are a body of ignoramuses. What do they know about the tariff?" And recommends that no heed be paid to their dictation as voiced in the November election.

Little Ben professes to greatly desire honest elections, and to that end strongly urges upon the Senate the necessity for the passage of the "Force Bill." If the president were sincere he would recommend to the several States the "Australian system." It works like a charm wherever it has been tried. Indiana points to it with pride.

Porter's census gives Wyoming a population of 60,589; Idaho, 84,229; Montana, 131,769; North Dakota, 182,425; Nevada, 44,327; Total, 503,320. These five states, with one-fourth the population of Indiana, have ten United States Senators. But for these rotten-borough States the Republicans would be in the minority in the Senate.

The Chicago Tribune says Republicans did not become apathetic over the McKinley bill; they became hot and angry. They felt that their representatives in congress had betrayed them; that they had sent them there in 1888 to revise the tariff downward, and they had come back home with this Reed-Harrison-Quay-McKinley monstrosity which revised it upward. This disgusted thousands of Republicans with the party.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued it use and after taking ten bottles found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store, large bottle 50c. and $1.00.

THE PULPIT AND THE STAGE.
Rev. F. M. Shroud, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 20 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folk's Combination, writes: After a tough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do to my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it. Free trial bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

Easy Terms.

A woman in Pennsylvania accepted $250 from a railroad company for running over and killing her husband. A number of married women living in the same neighborhood have expressed a willingness to sign a paper agreeing not to charge the company a cent if it will perform a similar service for them. Five or six children are about as much as some wives can support, without having a lazy and shiftless husband to find food for.

The Cost of Cosmetics.

An examination of statistics furnished by the Chicago Board of Pharmacy shows that American women spend $62,000,000 a year for cosmetics, most of which are made of zinc, oxide, calomel, and other poisons. This leads us to ask this pertinent question, "How can women, vain enough to paint and dye their hair, bring forth children stalwart enough to resist temptations that lead to all manner of vice, including drunkenness?"

Her Indorsement.

A young woman who had a check for $14 on a certain Detroit bank presented it at the cashier's desk, and he politely said:

"You will please indorse it, miss?"
She took it over to the desk and wrote on the back:

"I want this money awful bad yours truly pay the bearer."

Insanity in Chewing Gum.

Experts have recently decided that the gum-chewing habit has developed insanity in girls. A New York doctor asserts that the constant chewing of gum has produced weak minds in fourteen cases of young women now under his treatment, the constant movement of the mouth causing too great a strain on the head.

Another Champion Mean Man.

The meanest man has been found. He lives in Georgia and borrows his county paper, and when he gets through reading it, he rents it to his neighbor at a profit, then abuses the editor because there is nothing in it.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certified copy of a Decree and an Execution directed to me by the Clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, I will,

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1890, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of said day, at the northerly door of the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, expose at Public Sale the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in said Town, County and State, to-wit:

The East half of Lots Five (5), Eight (8) and Nine (9), in Block Forty-three (43), in Weston's Second Addition to said Town.

And upon failure of said rents and profits selling for enough to satisfy the judgment in said Decree in favor of Emmet L. Hollingsworth for the sum of Three Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Sixty-six Cents ($371.66), with interest and costs, and a further judgment rendered in said cause in favor of William B. Austin for Three Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($320.00), with interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the rents and profits, for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in said Town, to-wit:
