J. A. BARKER
General Passenger Agent

On Thursday morning last the engine and tender of a stock train bound south got off the track at the crossing near Coen & Paxton's hay barn, at this place.

An unoccupied tenement house on Front street, opposite the old school house, was discovered to be on fire Thursday forenoon. The fire company succeeded in subduing the flames before much damage had resulted.

Forsythe, B. F. Fendig and Gene Spiller invite our readers to call at their establishments, inspect their Christmas goods, learn prices, and buy. It is always safe to go where you are invited.

The new Christian church, it is expected, will be dedicated the first Sunday in January.

The L. N. A. & C. will give excursion rates during the holidays—we understand at one and one-third fare.

Trains pass Rensselaer—Going North: 2:37 P. M.; 4:50 A. M.; 4:42 P. M.; 7:38 A. M.; local 10:12 A. M. South—11:43 P. M.; 11:02 A. M.; 10:02 P. M.; 6:15 P. M.; local 2:37 P. M.

Al. Miller, of Union township, is making arrangements to remove with his family to San Jose, California. We are sorry to lose such citizens.

An ex-attorney of this place recently got off some letter heads for a business firm, on a type-writer. He produced the name of the firm—Coen (Coen) & Paxton.

WE HAVE COME TO STAY.

CINCINNATI BARGAIN HOUSE

Holding a prominent place among the most attractive and complete mercantile establishments of Rensselaer or Northern Indiana, more than a passing notice is due to the Cincinnati Bargain House, located next door to Tuten Bros. grocery. The premises so occupied are spacious and commodious, admirably arranged, and equipped with every facility and convenience for the transaction of the business, while the stock is large and complete and everything new comprising Clothing, Overcoats, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Cloaks, Shawls, Hats and Caps. They claim, and which the people of Rensselaer know, they are doing the business, and they are wide awake business men. Of course other merchants try and put out prices to compete with them and they find out it is impossible to do so.

The day for old fogey merchants sitting around the fire waiting for trade has come by. There is such a thing as merchants playing out, being so long in a place and not treating their trade as they ought. This thing—people buying goods and not getting value received in what they purchase—will not do in the long run. The Cincinnati Bargain House offers goods at attractively low prices, and customers receive full satisfaction for their money. In addition to the extensive, varied and attractive stock of goods constantly kept on hand, the Cincinnati Bargain House is conducted by gentlemen who are thorough-going business men, possessing a complete knowledge of their enterprise, and the requisite zeal and ability for its successful management.

The Cincinnati Bargain House invites patrons to examine their stock, and guarantee to all good goods, courteous attention and lowest cash prices. Remember! they claim they will not be undersold, even though others watch their establishment and copy what they do. They originate, not imitate.

CINCINNATI BARGAIN HOUSE.

NOTICE.—I feel under obligation to thank the good people of Rensselaer and vicinity for their liberal patronage while in business, and the way they are coming forward and getting accounts due me. I have been in business in several different places, but never where people acted more honorable and square than they have in old Jasper. Of course there are some who do not know I have sold my gallery; and perhaps some have forgotten they owe me. Please do not get offended if you should receive a statement asking settlement by January 1, 1891. Persons wishing to see me will find me at the old stand up to that date.

Yours Respectfully,
J. A. SHARP.

A HORRIBLE, SICKENING PRACTICE.

Tearing Out a Warrior's Breast at an Indian Sun Dance.

At the sun dance, one of the young Indian devotees is suddenly seized by the medicine men. He is stripped naked and laid on the flat of his back. Then the flesh of his brawny chest is gathered in the left hand of one of the "doctors," who with the other drives a keen knife through the muscles and tendons, and forces after it a stout wooden peg or skewer, which is left to protrude a couple of inches. A similar skewer is drawn through the left breast. Stout thongs are fastened to the ends of the pegs and these in turn to a long lariat attached to the top of a pole perhaps twenty feet high.

White men who have been permitted to look on turn away sick and faint even at this part of the performance, but the warriors never wince. Now they stand the bleeding victim on his feet, and give him an eagle's wing bone whistle, and now, my brave, is your turn.

Fix your eyes on the blazing sun; never remove them for an instant: blow your whistle, and set to work. Leap, tug, strain; throw your whole weight against the skewers. What you have to do is to tear yourself loose from that awful pole, and to do it these skewers must rip their way through tendon, muscle, and bleeding flesh. Aye, leap, howl, run backward with all your weight against your tortured breasts, and break loose if you can. Only thus will your vow be fulfilled.

Sometimes the splendid muscles hold out for hours. Sometimes the sun goes down, and still the fainting victims strain at their fearful flesh. Sometimes they swoon away, exhausted from loss of blood, but mostly they bear torture as only Indians can. And when at last they succeed in breaking loose, and fall with their torn and bleeding breasts plowing the dust of the terrible inclosure, a rush is made by the friends and relatives of the triumphant brave. He is borne tenderly and proudly away. He is petted and nursed, praised, his wounds are dressed, and their scars become in after life the silent and hideous witnesses of his heroism.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certified copy of a Decree and an Execution directed to me by the clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, I will, on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1890, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of said day, at the northern door of the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, expose at Public Sale the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in said Town, County and State, to-wit:

The East half of Lots Five (5), Eight (8) and Nine (9), in Block Forty-three (43), in Weston's Second Addition to said Town.

And upon failure of said rents and profits selling for enough to satisfy the judgment in said Decree in favor of Emmet L. Hollingsworth for the sum of Three Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Sixty-six Cents ($371.66), with interest and costs, and a further judgment rendered in said cause in favor of William B. Austin for Three Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($320.00), with interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate, and if, after applying the proceeds of such sale upon said judgment, interest and costs in favor of said Hollingsworth, there shall not be a sufficiency to pay said judgment, interest and cost in favor of said Austin, I will at the same time and place, offer at Public Sale the rents and profits, for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in Weston's Second Addition to said Town, to-wit:

Commencing at a point on an alley running north and south through the center of Block Forty-six (46), in said Weston's Second Addition, Forty-seven (47) feet south of the northeast corner of Lot Three (3), in said Block; thence running southerly to a point on the easterly side of Division Street Ninety-eight (98) feet southerly along the easterly side of Division Street from the point where the West entry boundary line of said Lot Three (3) in said Block intersects the easterly side of Division Street; thence southerly along the easterly boundary of Division Street to the south point of said Lot Three (3) being at the intersection of said alley with Division Street; thence north to the place of beginning.

And if said rents and profits fail to sell for enough to satisfy said judgment in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate last described.

All to be sold without benefit of appraisalment laws, subject to redemption. Ordered to be sold as the property of Albert M. Hoover and others at the suit of said Emmet L. Hollingsworth and William B. Austin in cause No. 4153 in said Jasper Circuit Court.

PHILIP BLUE, Sheriff of Jasper County, Indiana.

E. P. Hammond Att'y for E. L. Hollingsworth.

A. H. Hopkins Att'y for W. B. Austin.

PETERSON'S 1891

1891 MAGAZINE

50TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

THE QUEEN OF THE LADIES' MONTHLIES ENLARGED AND GREATLY IMPROVED, MAKING IT MORE DESIRABLE THAN EVER, AND KEEPING IT IN THE LEAD OF THE LADIES' MAGAZINES.

Its fiction is strong and clean. Some of the best-known American writers contribute to its pages, among them Edgar Fawcett, Frank Leo Benedict, Howard Beeler, Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, Rebecca Harding Davis, Miss M. G. McClelland, Alice Bowman, and Minna Irving.

Historical and Biographical Sketches, with numerous and appropriate illustrations, printed on fine paper, will be given monthly.

In the Fashion department, we aim to combine beauty and utility. The newest and prettiest styles of costume are given with full descriptions, and a monthly dress-pattern sheet. As a fashion magazine, "Peterson's" is universally pronounced as far in the lead of all others.

Numerous designs for needle-work, embroidery, knitting, painting, etc., with designs printed in colors. Articles on the management of the sick, by a trained nurse, household and garden hints, recipes for cooking, and interesting articles on various topics, are given monthly.

The aim of the publishers is to give such variety of contents as will both interest and instruct its readers, and make it a helpful companion to every woman.

TERMS: $2.00 PER YEAR with large reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums for getting them up.

A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent for 6 cents.

No need to register letter. The WEEKLY BEE, Toledo, O.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! I've almost ten years since we were married. Sit down: let's have an experience meeting. How's the old?"

"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master." I started to keep down expenses; and now I say I'm 'mean' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"Have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word: the stories keep our hearts young; the groups of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is that?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what Lil wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sib,' right here, on my wife's account: she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for clubs,—the biggest thing out! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack-hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year,—will save fifty times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.
