The Democratic Legislature of Indiana is in working trim. Let the pledges of the people be kept.

Hoar and his Force bill is on the down grade, and John Sherman and his silver bill of last session will very likely be switched on the same track. Republican senators and representatives are slow to conclude that the people are the sovereigns, and they the servants.

Last week one day our attention was called to some strictures contained in the Mt. Air News, but we preferred to have our neighbor adopt it before giving it any attention. We suggest to the News that it copy article on first column editorial page of the Republican of this week—manufactured by the Tariff League as food for gudgeons.

The infamous Republican Force bill was given its quietus the other day in the United States senate. Eight republican senators voted with the democrats to displace it with the silver bill. Poor old Hoar is in danger of going down into his political grave broken hearted. He declares it will kill the republican party. May the Lord hasten the day when that event shall occur. Better would it have been for the country had that party never been born!

The Republican organs declared that the increase in price of everything in daily use by the people as a result of the enactment of the McKinley bill, was not an actual fact, but was falsely rushed upon the people to influence the elections. But nevertheless it was a fact, and is a fact—prices continue to rise; and the democratic press believe this fact should be continually kept before the people, in order that they shall meet it with the only lawful weapon placed in their hands—the ballot. Such republican organs as the Mt. Air News and Rensselaer Republican think it only right that the people should pay high tribute to the wealthy monopolists; and denounce democratic journals that inform the masses they are far from getting value received for their expenditures. The people are deeply interested in the laws being enacted, and we shall endeavor to keep them posted, even to the exclusion of such slush and soft soap; by the News and Republican misnamed local news.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certified copy of a Decree and an Execution directed to me by the Clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, I will, on SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1891,
between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. of said day, at the northerly door of the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, expose at Public Sale the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in said Town, County and State, to-wit:

The East half of Lots Five (5), Eight (8) and Nine (9), in Block Forty-three (43), in Weston's Second Addition to said Town.
And upon failure of said rents and profits selling for enough to satisfy the judgment in said Decree in favor of Emmet L. Hollingsworth for the sum of Three Hundred and Seventy-one Dollars and Sixty-six Cents ($371.66), with interest and costs, and a further judgment rendered in said cause in favor of William B. Austin for Three Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($320.00), with interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate, and, after applying the proceeds of such sale upon said judgment, interest and costs in favor of said Hollingsworth, there shall not be a sufficiency to pay said judgment, interest and costs in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, offer at Public Sale the rents and profits, for a term not exceeding seven years, by the year, of the following described real estate in Weston's Second Addition to said Town, to-wit:

Commencing at a point on the alley running north and south through the centre of Block Forty-six (46), in said Weston's Second Addition, to the Town of Rensselaer, Forty-seven (47) feet south of the northeast corner of Lot Two (2), in said Block; thence southwesterly to a point on the easterly side of Division Street Ninety-eight (98) feet southeasterly along the easterly side of Division Street from the point where the westerly boundary line of said Lot Three (3) in said Block intersects the easterly side of Division Street; thence southeasterly along the easterly boundary of Division Street to the south point of said Lot Three (3) being at the intersection of said alley with Division Street; thence north to the place of beginning.

And if said rents and profits fail to sell for enough to satisfy said judgment in favor of said Austin, I will, at the same time and place, expose at Public Sale the fee simple of said real estate last described.

All to be sold without benefit of appraisalment laws, subject to redemption. Ordered to be sold as the property of Albert M. Hoover and others, at the suit of said Emmet L. Hollingsworth and William B. Austin in cause No. 4153 in said Jasper Circuit Court.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down! Let's have an experience meeting. How's that?"
"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."
"Well, we all want something more than we've got."
"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master." I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen! I think she is; and we are economical, too—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that she got for the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"
"What wonderful Magazine is it?"
"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"
"What! Why that's what I wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."
"Well, my friend, I think where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub.' right here, on my wife's account; she's bound to have a change in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for the biggest thing out! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it's a tack hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise us! Only $3.00 a year—will save fifty times that in six months! Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it—

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-clothes bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO.
