Mr. Elmer Dwiggs, formerly of Rensselaer, and Miss Mattie C. Wood were married on the 7th inst., at Sheldon, Ill. They will reside at 1636, Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Jess Grubb has returned and resumed his duties in the Express office.

John G. Reynolds returned this morning from the east.

"Evil Speaking" and "Poor Wages for Good Labor" will be the subjects of discourse by Rev. I. I. Gorby next Sunday morning and evening.

WANTED!

Woodchoppers, at prevailing wages. Apply to, or address T. A. CROCKETT, Rensselaer, Ind.

A wild animal is said to running loose in Gillam township.

Preliminary preparations are making for the Farmers' Institute to be held in Rensselaer the first week in February.

The Town Board has concluded to add four new arc lights for the better lighting of the town.

Rensselaer has been divided into two election precincts.

The dwelling house on the farm of James Welsh, one and a half miles south-east of Rensselaer, was, with most of the contents, destroyed by fire last Monday morning. J. T. Daugherty occupied the house, and the destruction of his household goods is a severe loss.

"Buck" Stanley will commence a series of temperance meetings at the resbyterian church, Rensselaer, next Tuesday evening.

At a meeting held last Monday, I. J. Porter, A. McCoy, Emma Kannal, J. H. Willey and D. B. Nowels were elected directors of the Separated Butter Company.

J. M. Wasson has tendered his resignation as councilman for 2d district, having removed to another district.

R. W. Marshall, Esq., started last Monday to attend the U. S. court at Louisville, Kentucky, in the capacity of a witness.

Friday of last week Sheriff Blue conveyed Mrs. Elizabeth Leitch, of Carpenter township, to Long-cliff Insane Asylum, at Logans-port.

J. M. Hodshire has moved into Jas. Passon's property.

The infant child of Ad. Parkin-son, Barkley township, died last Tuesday, aged about ten months.

"Tiddlywinks" on another page of this issue.

Firemen's masquerade ball at the Opera House Thursday night of next week.

Mrs. J. Richeson, of Rensselaer, widow of late Wm. L. Richeson has been granted a pension.

The days as we notice are gradually growing longer.

John Schanlaub, as we understand is commencing to deal with fine chickens.

Art Cole's little girl has been very sick, but is now nearly well.

The Last Time He Saw His.

The fortunes of war are strange. One day in the Southern Hotel at St. Louis, a few months ago, J. B. McCullagh, the editor of the Globe-Democrat, was sitting reading a newspaper when a gentleman walked up and, extending his hand, said:

"How do you do, Mr. McCullagh?"

The editor put out his hand and said: "How do you do, sir?"

"You don't seem to know me," the stranger remarked.

"Oh, yes, I do," said Mr. McCullagh.

"Well, who am I?" inquired the stranger.

"I'll answer you in this way," said Mr. McCullagh. "The last time I saw you was in 1863, in the pilot house of the gunboat [naming it] in the river before Fort Donelson. There were three of us in the pilot house—you, myself, and the pilot—when a shell struck us, carrying away the pilot house, and killing one man and wounding another. I was unhurt. Now, if it was Morrison who was killed by that shell, your name is Reilly; and if it was Reilly who was killed, you are Morrison. I remember your voice perfectly, but I can not recall your name."

Mr. McCullagh was right. The man who stood before him was Reilly, the pilot, who was not killed.

Cannibalistic Alligators.

"Arkansas," the alligator slayer of East Orange, Fla., recently killed one of the "varmints" that had three of its legs bitten off, a portion of the jaw had been eaten by a stronger kinsman and holes were found in him where he had paid the penalty of a pound of flesh, simply because his opponent was the stronger. Arkansas states that alligators feed upon each other to the extent that regulates the supply to the demand, and that if they were to cease from their cannibalistic habits they would soon abound in sufficient numbers to pile alligators four feet deep all over the St. John's river country.

The cause is increasing in our own country, and it might be wise to have a similar examination of our own schools by skillful physicians, in order to call public attention to the evil.—Morgan-Edwin Press.

Small little fortunes have been made by the late Mrs. Anna Page, Austin, Texas, and John Bonn, Toledo, Ohio. She cut out the faces of the dead, and sold them for $500.00 a month. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beggars are easily earning from $5 to $10 a day. All ages. We show you how and start you. Can work in spare time or all the time. Big money for workers. Failure unknown among them. NEW and improved. Particulars free. H. Hallett & Co., Box 550 Portland, Maine.

PETERSON'S 1891 MAGAZINE

50TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

THE QUEEN OF THE LADIES' MONTHLIES ENLARGED AND GREATLY IMPROVED, MAKING IT MORE DESIRABLE THAN EVER, AND KEEPING IT IN THE LEAD OF THE LADIES' MAGAZINES.

Its fiction is strong and clean. Some of the best-known American writers contribute to its pages, among them Edgar Fawcett, Frank Lee Benedict, Howard Seelye, Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, Rebecca Harding Davis, Miss M. G. McClelland, Alice Bowman, and Minna Irving.

Historical and Biographical Sketches, with numerous and appropriate illustrations, printed on fine paper, will be given monthly.

In the Fashion department, we aim to combine beauty and utility. The newest and prettiest styles of costume are given with full descriptions, also a monthly dress-pattern sheet. As a fashion magazine, "Peterson's" is universally pronounced as far in the lead of all others.

Numerous designs for needle-work, embroidery, knitting, painting, etc., with designs printed in colors. Articles on the management of the home, by a trained nurse, household and garden hints, recipes for cooking, and interesting articles on various topics, are given monthly.

The aim of the publishers is to give such variety of contents as will both interest and instruct its readers, and make it a helpful companion to every woman.

TERMS: $2.00 PER YEAR with large reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums for getting them up. A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent for 5 cents.

Address, PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the life?"

"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual, always wanting something I can't afford."

"Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master. I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are economical, too—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that makes the comfort and beauty of our little home."

"And she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret.' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine."

"The 'Peterson's Family Magazine,' she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitation Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Peterson's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what I'd wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub.' right here, on my wife's account; she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for this year. If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year—will save fifty times the cost in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

NO MORE OF THIS!

Rubber Shoes unless worn uncomfortably tight, will often slip off the feet. To remedy this evil the "COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO. offer a shoe with the inside of the heel lined with rubber. This clings to the shoe and prevents the rubber from slipping off.

Call for the "Colchester" "ADHESIVE COUNTERS" and you can walk, run or jump with them.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

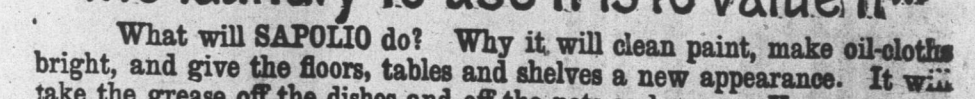

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO, ENOCH MORGAN'S SONS CO., NEW YORK.
