JAS. BARKER
General Passenger Agent

The Tall Sycamore, Indiana's gifted son, has received the plaudits of his constituency and has been returned to the U. S. Senate.

Just as Secretary of the Treasury Windom concluded his remarks at the Board of Trade Banquet in New York, last night, he dropped dead. Heart disease.

Gov. Hill has been elected U. S. Senator by the New York legislature, and Gen. Vilas has been elected to the same body by the legislature of Wisconsin. Thus the work goes bravely on.

Jim James Ingalls, of Kansas, notwithstanding his avowed willingness to turn tail on every principle he had ever espoused, was peremptorily notified that he had proved unworthy, could no longer be trusted, and therefore must return to the pursuits of private life.

Hovey supposed he was throwing a bomb into the Democratic camp, when he preferred charges against Warden Murdock, of the prison north, asking a rigid investigation of his management, and the affairs and funds of the institution. Instead of a "bomb" it was a boom-rang the governor threw, and it has returned, landing in the governor's office and other departments in charge of republican officials. Specific charges have been made and committees appointed to investigate.

The Force bill was again side-tracked the other day in the Senate. The pestilential scion of the old Federal party, which in other days sympathized with England and Mexico in their contests with this country, and later the original advocate of secession—George F. Hoar—was mad with rage. These old descendants of the party that sent up blue-lights to advise the British where to strike, and later beseeched Mexico to welcome our soldiers with bloody hands to hospitable graves, seem to be designed by the Almighty for the same object that the lice and frogs were let loose upon Egypt in the ancient days.

WHAT WILL HOVEY DO NOW, POOR THING?

MURDOCK VINDICATED!
[Special to Lafayette Journal.]

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Jan. 29.—The following shows the result of to-day's prison investigation.

"In pursuance of the instructions of the House to report progress, I am directed by the entire committee of the House to say that we have made a thorough investigation of the books and accounts of the prison, and of the charges against the warden and directors, and the result is a complete vindication of the integrity and honesty of Warden Murdock. Every dollar is accounted for, and the management of the warden and directors is shown to be superior.

"JOHN J. NOLEN,
Chairman Prison Committee.
Rensselaer Republican please copy.

The Indianapolis News, republican, has referred to the downing of the revolutionary pet measure of the republican U. S. Senators;

"Jordan is a hard road to travel, indeed, the Republican revolutionists have found out. The 'choke road' was scotched yesterday, possibly killed, and the Senate resumed the business of the country."

The News says the "closure" measure "is simply necessary for a bill of outrageous partisan character and revolutionary purposes—so outrageous and revolutionary, that the people's representatives stand like a stone wall behind the customs and privileges of free parliamentary procedure, successfully resisting it."

The best element of the Senate refuses to be controlled by the "outrageous partisan character and revolutionary purposes" of the rules which dominate in the House.

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.

Editor Sentinel: The Temperance work of "Buck Stanley" closed last night—signers 759. A society was organized and on motion of Mr. Stanley the following officers were selected:

President—S. J. Thompson.
Vice-President—Rev. B. P. Ferguson.
Secretary—James F. Antrim.
Treasurer—James F. Irwin.
Chairmen of Committees as follows:
Advisory—Rev. I. I. Gorby.
Soliciting—Nathaniel S. Bates.
Programme—Prof. Wilson.

The first meeting will be held at Opera House next Sunday from 2:30 p. m. to 4 p. m.

The exercises will be entertaining. Short speeches by the officers elect, also by

Dr. I. B. Washburn—Relation of Temperance to the Medical Profession;
James W. Douthett—Relation of Temperance to the Legal Profession;
Samuel L. Sparling—Relation of Temperance to the Teacher's Profession;
Rev. D. W. Campbell—Relation of Temperance to the Ministerial Profession.

Songs, recitations, anecdotes and singing the pledge will be in order. Come early and you can secure a seat.

OBSERVER.

Many people are quite familiar with the following rules:
Ten mills make one cent;
Ten cents make one drink;
Ten drinks make one drunk;
Ten drunks make ten days in the calaboose.

FROM WHEATFIELD.

Weather fair; roads in good shape; hay hauling in full progress. Algrin has moved his saw-mill back to Wheatfield where there are a large number of logs ready for him to go to work on.

E. Bennett's and S. A. Austin's children have the whooping cough.

Literary at the Wheatfield school house next Saturday night. A good time is expected.

OBITUARY.

DIED—At the home of her parents, in Wheatfield, ALVIRA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bently, Jan. 24, 1891, of congestion of the brain, aged 20 years, 2 months and 10 days.

Deceased was sick three weeks, and during all that time her sufferings were intense. She leaves father, mother, three sisters and three brothers to mourn their loss. Her remains were interred in the Wheatfield cemetery, Rev. Goff of North Judson, officiating. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

JOE.

Monticello Herald: Little Iva Moore, the youngest daughter of F. C. Moore, was badly scalded by a cup of coffee being spilled down her neck last Saturday evening. The child's sufferings were intense for about an hour, but to the relief of all, her injuries proved less serious than first supposed. Dr. Didlake attended her.

CARD OF THANKS.

We return our sincere thanks to our many friends both in town and country, for their liberal donation, when our clothing and household furniture was destroyed by fire.

MR. AND MRS. J. T. DAUGHERTY.
MRS. BIRDIE VANICE.

A CARD.

MR. EDITOR:—We desire to express, through the columns of THE SENTINEL, our hearty appreciation of the happy surprise given us on the evening of the 20th, by the appearance of 119 genial faces in our home. This was a complete surprise to both of us and was the more heartily enjoyed on that account after we had suffered from the shock to know where we were—in our own home among our kind friends. The pleasure of the occasion was extended until after dinner the next day. We "fared sumptuously," not "every day" but for two days. We cannot express all we feel. We enjoyed your visit, oh so much. Come again.—Your words and smiles left a halo of light in the manse that shall continually shine while we inhabit its pleasant rooms. It was suggested that this was a "house-warming." Whatever it was, come often.

Yours very truly,
MR. AND MRS. I. I. GORBY.

PETERSON'S 1891 MAGAZINE

1891

50TH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

THE QUEEN OF THE LADIES' MONTHLIES ENLARGED AND GREATLY IMPROVED, MAKING IT MORE DESIRABLE THAN EVER, AND KEEPING IT IN THE LEAD OF THE LADIES' MAGAZINES.

Its fiction is strong and clean. Some of the best-known American writers contribute to its pages, among them Edgar Poe, Frank Lee Benedict, Howard Seelye, Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, Rebecca Harding Davis, Miss M. G. McClelland, Alice Bowman, and Minna Irving.

Historical and Biographical Sketches, with numerous and appropriate illustrations, printed on fine paper, will be given monthly.

In the Fashion department, we aim to combine beauty and utility. The newest and prettiest styles of costume are given with full descriptions, also a monthly dress-pattern sheet. As a fashion magazine, "PETERSON'S" is universally pronounced as far in the lead of all others.

Numerous designs for needle-work, embroidery, knitting, etc., with designs printed in colors. Articles on the management of the sick, by a trained nurse, household and garden hints, recipes for cooking, and interesting articles on various topics, are given monthly.

The aim of the publishers is to give such variety of contents as will both interest and instruct its readers, and make it a helpful companion to every woman.

TERMS: $2.00 PER YEAR
with large reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums for getting them up.
A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent for 6 cents.

Address,
PETERSON'S MAGAZINE,
306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOOM, M. C. 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

BY CUTTING
This out-going, and sending 30¢ stamps, or postal note for sixty cents, to the WEEKLY BEE, Toledo, O., you will receive the Weekly Bee by mail, postage paid, till January 1st, 1892. The Bee has 81 large pages, 30 columns each, making one and one-quarter miles of reading each year. It is one of the best general weeklies in the United States, and contains all the news, great stories, household, farm, children's house, puzzles, riddles, Rev. Talmage's Sermons, Market Reports, Practical Politics and Fiction. Clean in every department. Grand premiums to readers up of clubs. Address at once and show your wisdom. Address plainly. No need to register letter. THE WEEKLY BEE, Toledo, O.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. 'Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master.' I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say 'I'm mean,' every day's life of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!" "I think she is; and we are economical, too—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always merry as a lark." "When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her secret. When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitation Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"
"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"
"What! Why that's what I wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."
"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub,' right here, on my wife's account; she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List in time for our wedding next month. Or send the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a deaver housekeeper and try it.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO, ENOCH MORGAN'S SONS CO., NEW YORK.
