ED. RHODES.

HON. THOMAS HAMMOND, Democratic candidate for Congress, while a gentleman of some means, secured mostly by wise investments in real estate, commenced his career in the humble walks of life, and is the architect of his own fortune. He is now serving his third term as Major of the city of Hammond, elected on each occasion by increased majorities. He has been a large employer of labor, and his friendly attitude toward employees was tersely expressed by Senator Kopek when pressing his claims for the congressional nomination: "He never had a strike; he never had a suit at law with an employee; he never foreclosed a mortgage." He erected many tenement houses disposing of them to laboring men on monthly payments at about what they would pay in rent, thus placing it within the reach of large numbers of families to secure homes of their own who, but for the opportunity he afforded them, would to-day be tenants. Thos. Hammond is not an office-seeker. He attended the Convention at Logansport as a delegate, but when he discovered the Lake county delegation determined to press him for the nomination he declined to take part in the proceedings. Vote for Hammond.

He has been a resident of Lake county for about sixteen years, and his entire property interests are within the limits of Lake and Porter counties. This fact refutes the absurd lie published in the Rensselaer Republican a few weeks since to the effect that his largest interests were in Michigan, and that he was virtually a citizen of that State.
