

The Democratic Sentinel

RENSSELAER, INDIANA.

J. W. McEwen, - - - - - Publisher.

DOWN WITH A RUSH.

WHEAT DROPS TWO CENTS UPON THE CHICAGO BOARD.

The Panic in New York Harbor—Wheat—Madman Runs Amuck—Sensational Disclosures in the Maybrick Case—Chocwats Can't Settle Their Election.

Stricken from the Roll.
The Minister of Militia has struck off the roll of militia officers of Canada the name of Lieutenant E. A. Macdonald, of Toronto, who has recently been lecturing in Boston in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States. Mr. Macdonald says he does not wish to interfere with the freedom of speech, but he thinks Macdonald's views incompatible with holding a commission in her Majesty's forces.

TO FREE MRS. MAYBRICK.

A Dying Man Confesses He Committed the Crime She Now Suffers For.

In the next issue of the Review of Reviews Mr. Stead, its editor, will have an article headed, "Ought Mrs. Maybrick Be Tortured to Death?" in which he vigorously and at great length responds to the whole case of the unfortunate English woman who is now undergoing a sentence of life imprisonment in Woking prison for the alleged poisoning of her husband, who was a well-known Liverpool merchant. In the course of his article Mr. Stead says that both he and Sir Charles Russell, the attorney general, have received from South Africa copies of the deathbed confession of Harry Wilson, who declared that he, with a woman whose name is not given, placed arsenic in the medicine that was administered to Mrs. Maybrick during her illness. Mr. Stead investigated into this matter, and declares that he attaches weight to the confession, "but," he adds, "even if it were true, it would be of service in directing attention to the travesty of justice which has exposed the Great Britain to serious objections from the United States, and which is not unlikely to become a subject of diplomatic remonstrances." Mr. Stead makes a strong appeal for the release of Mrs. Maybrick before Christmas. "Her condition is such," he says, "that she will speedily die if she is not released."

BIG CROP OF WHEAT.

The Government Report Sends the Market Down—Scramble to Unload.

The Government report has surprised the speculators. Another great crop of wheat—$20,000,000 bushels, as indicated by the returns to the agricultural bureau at Washington—caused a lively time among the bulls and bears in the wheat pit, says a Chicago dispatch. There was a drop of 1 1/2 cents per bushel in the price of December wheat as soon as trading commenced the other morning. The market was depressed about 1/2 cent in the course of the day. The commission houses were kept busy on orders to ship losses on wheat previously bought. Logan & Co. were prominent sellers and Counselman & Day, Milburn, Bodman & Co. and Norton & Co. were among the heavy buyers. There was weakness in corn and oats also, and a wild scramble among the holders of those articles to get rid of previous purchases. Corn and oats each declined 1/2 cent per bushel. Even pork shared in the general decline and dropped about 20 cents per barrel. The meaning of the whole thing was that the speculators had made their minds up for another year of great abundance, and, although that means lower prices, it also indicates general prosperity and cheap food for the millions.

OCEAN BELLES PARADE.

Most Elaborate Naval Display Gotham Has Ever Witnessed.

As a popular demonstration the New York naval display Tuesday in honor of Christopher Columbus was unequalled in the history of the United States. War ships, yachts, merchant ships, tug-boats, excursion steamers, lighters and barges in squadrons of fleets, shoals and masses covered the waters of New York harbor as the wild fowl cover the feeding grounds of Currituck sound. More people were afloat on these vessels than have ever seen afloat together by any American eye, while more than two million spectators gathered along the shores of the harbor and river to gaze in wonder or admiration. But as a parade, an orderly procession upon the sea, it was an absolute failure. It was a mob afloat, a moving derelict, an animated mass of sots.

MORE TROUBLE FEARED.

Another Outbreak Likely to Occur in the Indian Territory.

At Caddo, Tex., it seems that the trouble between the Johnson and Jackson factions over the late Choctaw election has been decided. Nevertheless Jones has been elected by the council had sworn in. Late the other evening near Boggy Depot, a small town fifteen miles north of Caddo, Dave Perkins, a former Deputy Sheriff, shot and killed another Choctaw, Sheriff T. M. Turnbull and Deputy Sheriff Forbes Manning left for the scene of trouble to arrest Perkins. It is feared that the worst has not begun. The trouble is likely to break out at any time and is likely to spread. The parties went into Senator Bryant's house intending to kill him, but he was not at home.

FINISH DEED OF A MADMAN.

He Kills His Wife and Attempts the Life of His Daughter.

In the town of Tilden, near Chippewa Falls, Wis., Tuesday morning, Daniel O'Brien shot and killed his wife while she was sitting in a chair. He then tried to set fire to the house and cremate the body, but his daughter's arrival prevented this. O'Brien started after her, but she escaped, giving the alarm to the neighbors. O'Brien escaped to the woods, taking with him his gun. He is about 60 years old, and is demented. He was not considered dangerous. Sheriff Stamm and a posse are in search.

Editor Seward Shot.

At Stillwater, Minn., Victor C. Seward, the veteran Minnesota journalist and editor of the Stillwater Enterprise, was shot, probably with fatal results, by a young man named George Peters, an ex-reporter with whom he had trouble.

Borden Story Is False.

The Boston Globe says that on investigation it is satisfied that the statement published concerning Miss Lizzie Borden's physical condition is not true, and bases its belief upon the statement of Dr. and Mrs. Brown.

An Angel Actor Dying.

At Detroit, L. F. Rand, who played Polonius to the elder Booth's Hamlet, has been taken suddenly ill at the Hotel Lieders. His death is only a question of a few hours. He is 70 years old and this week was reaching over forty-five years of successful acting in legitimate old men roles.

Twenty-five Injured.

While a gang of workmen were in Hog Run tunnel on the Louisville and Nashville road, not far from Westfield, Ky., the timbers of the false work of the tunnel fell upon them without warning, and it is reported that as many as twenty-five were injured, some of them fatally.

SLAIN BY THOUSANDS.

Rebels Defeated in Dahomey with Terrible Slaughter.

It is reported that a decisive battle has been fought in Dahomey in which the rebellious natives were defeated and 2,000 of their warriors killed. The loss to the French troops is given as eight killed and thirty-six wounded. It is officially announced that the Dahomeyans left 200 dead among their own ranks, and were close to the French line. The natives occupied a strong position and a desperate fight followed the attack by the French. A thick brushwood surrounded the Dahomeyans' position and this afforded some protection to the attacking forces. The battle lasted for an hour, at the end of which time the Dahomeyans fled in disorder and were pursued by the French. The natives, however, were thoroughly familiar with the country and found it difficult in making their escape, but few of them falling captives to their pursuers. During the fight five Europeans and three Senegalese were killed and twenty-three Europeans and thirteen natives wounded. Two hundred rebel rifles were found on the field. This fact will add to the grievance France has against Germany, for the French claim that King Behanzin, besides the 2,000 rifles allowed him by treaty, has an almost equal number of Winchester and other repeating rifles that have been furnished him by German traders. It is known that he has a large supply of ammunition and that it was landed in Dahomey from two German ships. As a result of last battle Col. Dods will be able to turn the Dahomeyans' position and destroy their lines of defense.

DEPARTMENT ESTIMATES.

None Ready Except Secretary Rusk's. Who Asks for About $3,000,000.

The department estimates of expenditures of the Government for the next fiscal year ending June, 1894, under the law passed at the meeting of Congress, and the Secretary of the Treasury, who is charged with their transmission to Congress, on the 1st inst., but they have not yet made their appearance. As a matter of fact they do not generally reach the Treasury much before the date of the meeting of Congress. Secretary Rusk of the Department of Agriculture has practically completed his estimates. He says they do not vary materially from the appropriations made by Congress for the current year, and that the appropriations for the next year should be what ought to be done to advance and encourage the agricultural interests of the country," said Secretary Rusk. "The total would be approximately $3,000,000, all that vast interest, the greatest in the land, but it is not until the government is $3,000,000 a year. Why, a single vessel for the navy costs more than that, and several of them are built every year." As to the operations of the current year, which will include nine months of the last year of the present administration, the Secretary Foster claims that the Treasury will show a balance of $10,000,000 on June 30, 1893.

MRS. HARRISON DYING.

The Lady of the White House Is Succumbing to Consumption.

"Mrs. Harrison's consumption is not cancer," said Dr. Gardner, her attending physician, to a Washington correspondent. "This morning she awoke feeling better, but to my mind there has been no material improvement in her condition for two weeks past. She has been a victim of depression, and then there are times when she seems to rally, but these are merely the symptoms of the disease." Dr. Gardner entertains no hope of Mrs. Harrison's recovery, and thinks her death only a question of a short time. Gradually the President is accepting the inevitable, and now seems to realize fully that the hopes he has entertained of Mrs. Harrison's recovery are vain.

DYNAMITE AT HOMESTEAD.

Non-Union Boarding House Wrecked, and the Occupants Escaped.

An attempt was made to blow up a non-union boarding house in Homestead with dynamite. No one was hurt, but the house was badly damaged and the occupants badly frightened. Mrs. Marron keeps the boarding-house. The thirty-five boarders were non-union workers in the Homestead mill. The dining-room was on the first floor and the sleeping-rooms on the second. In the front of the house, used as a dining-room, were large show windows. One of the side windows had been broken for some time and it was through this that the perpetrator of the deed worked. It was 2 o'clock in the morning when the cartridge was thrown through this window into the dining-room. The explosion was a terrific one, and the dynamite followed. All the windows were broken and a large hole torn in the floor. The beds on the second floor were thrown six feet up in the air and the occupants tumbled to the floor. No one was hurt, but the most intense excitement followed.

FOUND THE NASHUA.

The Missing Steamer Found Floating Bottom Side Up—Passenger Lost.

The steam barge Nashua was sighted Friday by a tug eight miles from land off Bayfield, Ont. The wreck was abandoned and was afloat bottom side up. It is now almost certain that the crew were lost. There were fifteen people on the crew. Men have been ordered to patrol the beach in search of the crew. The tug Howard reports that the boiler and engine were gone and the mast was broken off. A large quantity of wreckage was floating around. Capt. Bogies, of the schooner Ontario, also reports having passed through wreckage about twelve miles southwest of Goderich. It appeared to be part of the upper works of a steam barge. The crew, it still affords to reach the shore.

Celestianity in College.

Michigan University is the first among American colleges, if not among colleges of the western world, to enroll among its students feminine representatives of the Chinese empire. Two young women have come from the heart of China to pursue their studies at the school. They are pioneers in the reform of foot binding, being the first to go without bandages. They will take a medical course, after which they will return to their homes to do mission work.

Preferred Death to the Gallows.

Albert Foster, one of the murderers of ex-Congressman John B. Morgan, who was assassinated on an Illinois Central passenger train while on his way to the Democratic national convention last June, died in jail at Holly Springs, Miss. Foster's physician and relatives assert that he died from slow fever, but it is generally believed that he committed suicide to escape the gallows.

Shot by Moonshiners.

In a desperate fight with moonshiners in Lincoln county, Tenn., S. D. Mather, deputy internal revenue collector, was shot and instantly killed. Joe Spurrier, special deputy collector, and C. C. Cawwell, general deputy collector, were mortally wounded.

Disaster on Puget Sound.

The Canadian Navigation Company's steamer Premier was run down and out nearly 17 miles by the Oregon steamer Columbia, a big steel collier, in the Puget Sound, fifty miles north of Seattle, during a dense fog Saturday afternoon. Four of the Premier's passengers and

WIPED OFF THE EARTH.

THE NOTORIOUS DALTON GANG EXTERMINATED.

Four of Them Drop in Their Tracks—Five Citizens Killed—Coffeyville, Kan., the Scene—A Most Daring Raid—The People Were Ready.

Good Work at Great Cost.

The Dalton gang has been exterminated, wiped off the face of the earth. Caught like rats in a trap, they were shot down, but not until four citizens of Coffeyville, Kan., yielded up their lives in the work of extermination. Six of the gang rode into the town Wednesday morning and robbed the two banks. Their raid had become known to the officers of the law, and when the bandits attempted to escape they were shot by four men, who were waiting for the battle which would follow the escape of the desperadoes was killed outright, and

MONEY FOR DALTON'S SLAYERS.

Six Thousand Dollars Sent the Exterminators.

A San Francisco dispatch: The Southern Pacific Company and Wells, Fargo & Co. have telegraphed $6,000 to their agent in Coffeyville, Kan., to be distributed among the exterminators of the Daltons. This represents the standing reward of $2,000 per head for the Daltons offered by them since the Pixley train robbery. The Southern Pacific managers declare that there are five members of the Dalton family still living. These are George, Charles, and William, who are living with their mother at Kingsfisher, O. T., and Cole Dalton, a rancher, and Lytt Dalton, saloon-keeper, both living near Fresno. The latter two have always borne good reputations. The total rewards offered for each of the Daltons killed at Coffeyville amount to $6,000.

AVAILABLE STOCKS OF WHEAT.

In the States and Canada They Amount to 67,999,084 Bushels.

The total available stocks of wheat in the United States and Canada, east of the Rocky mountains, as given by Bradstreet's, were 67,999,084 bushels. The Pacific coast stocks were 8,153,950 bushels. Exports of wheat (and of flour as wheat) from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, New Orleans, Galveston, San Francisco, Portland, Ore., Tacoma, Me., Tacoma, and Seattle, as reported by mail and wire to Bradstreet's, were for the week 4,017,059 bushels.

SUDDEN EIGHT OF A PROFESSOR.

Creditors and Young Ladies Mourn the Departure of a Nebraska Educator.

Prof. W. P. Rogers, who had charge of the commercial department of the Wesleyan University at Lincoln, Neb., left for Kansas City, saying he was going there to attend a wedding. Saturday a note was received from him saying he had gone to Alaska. Rogers left debts of $1,000 besides being in his accounts with the university $300. He was also supposed to be married to one of the young lady students under his care.

ACTIVITY IN TRADE.

Business in the South Good, with Advance in Cotton.

R. G. Dun & Co. say in their weekly review of trade: The first week of October shows more activity, in spite of the near approach of the annual election. Business is distinctly better at the South, on account of the improvement in the price of cotton, more active at the West, with improved crop prospects, and a general feeling of confidence in the East. In general, speculation has disturbed legitimate lines of trade much less during the past quarter than is usual in this season, although the cotton market in cotton have been exceedingly heavy.

Disastrous Storm at Cape May.

At Cape May, N. J., there was a heavy electrical and hail storm Saturday night. Trees were uprooted, roofs blown off, the ocean pier badly damaged, and the fishing fleet sustained a loss of several thousand dollars. The storm was a terrible one, and was blown over on the Meadows. It is thought that she will be got off without material damage.

Two Persons Killed by the Cars.

Near Excelsior Springs, Mo., the local freight on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad struck a buggy in which were George R. McCullagh, aged 71 years, and his 8-year-old grandson, James McCullagh. The man was killed, and the boy and the horses were killed.

Suicide of a Real Estate Man.

Frank P. Beale, a well-known real estate agent, committed suicide by hanging. His affairs are in good shape, and no cause can be assigned for his action. He leaves a widow and several children.

Fireman Killed in a Wreck.

Near Port Gibson, Miss., in a wreck on the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas Railroad, the fireman was killed, and a negro passenger was seriously injured.

Jumped from a Third-Story Window.

Anton Neville, a patient in St. Francis' Hospital, New York, while in a fit of delirium, jumped from a third-story window. He was picked up in a dying condition.

Scarlet-Fever Epidemic.

An epidemic of scarlet-fever is prevailing at St. Charles, Mo., and the public schools have been closed on order of the Board of Education. Several deaths are reported.

Lotta Is Much Improved.

Lotta, the actress, who has been critically ill from a surgical operation for an intestinal trouble, is decidedly better.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

CHICAGO.
COTTON—Common to Prime.....	33.50 @ 37.50
HOGS—Shipping (Futures).....	3.20 @ 3.40
SHEEP—Fair to Choice.....	4.00 @ 5.00
WHEAT—No. 2, Soft.....	43.75 @ 44.25
CORN—No. 2.....	31.00 @ 31.25
OATS—No. 2.....	21.00 @ 21.25
RYE—No. 2.....	22.00 @ 22.25
BUTTER—Choice Creamery.....	22.00 @ 22.25
EGGS—Fresh.....	19.00 @ 19.25
POTATOES—Red.....	1.00 @ 1.25
INDIANAPOLIS.
COTTON—Shipping.....	32.50 @ 33.50
HOGS—Choice Light.....	3.50 @ 3.75
SHEEP—Common to Prime.....	3.00 @ 4.00
WHEAT—No. 2 Red.....	42.00 @ 42.50
CORN—No. 1 White.....	44.00 @ 44.50
OATS—No. 2 White.....	24.00 @ 24.50
ST. LOUIS.
CATTLE.....	3.00 @ 5.00
HOGS.....	3.20 @ 3.40
SHEEP.....	3.00 @ 4.00
WHEAT—No. 2 Red.....	42.00 @ 42.50
CORN—No. 2.....	31.00 @ 31.25
OATS—No. 2.....	21.00 @ 21.25
CINCINNATI.
CATTLE.....	3.00 @ 5.00
HOGS.....	3.20 @ 3.40
SHEEP.....	3.00 @ 4.00
WHEAT—No. 2 Red.....	42.00 @ 42.50
CORN—No. 2.....	31.00 @ 31.25
OATS—No. 2.....	21.00 @ 21.25
BUFFALO.
CATTLE—Common to Prime.....	3.00 @ 4.00
HOGS—Best Grades.....	4.00 @ 4.25
WHEAT—No. 1 Hard.....	44.00 @ 44.50
CORN—No. 2.....	31.00 @ 31.25
MILWAUKEE.
WHEAT—No. 2 Spring.....	40.00 @ 40.50
CORN—No. 3.....	28.00 @ 28.50
RYE—No. 1 White.....	34.00 @ 34.50
BARLEY—No. 2.....	33.00 @ 33.50
PORK—Mess.....	11.25 @ 11.75
NEW YORK.
CATTLE.....	3.00 @ 5.25
HOGS.....	3.00 @ 3.50
SHEEP.....	3.00 @ 4.00
WHEAT—No. 2 Red.....	80.00 @ 80.50
CORN—No. 2.....	28.00 @ 28.50
OATS—Mixed Western.....	18.00 @ 18.50
BUTTER—Creamery.....	19.00 @ 19.50
PORK—New York.....	12.25 @ 12.75

WIPED OFF THE EARTH.

THE NOTORIOUS DALTON GANG EXTERMINATED.

Four of Them Drop in Their Tracks—Five Citizens Killed—Coffeyville, Kan., the Scene—A Most Daring Raid—The People Were Ready.

Good Work at Great Cost.

The Dalton gang has been exterminated, wiped off the face of the earth. Caught like rats in a trap, they were shot down, but not until four citizens of Coffeyville, Kan., yielded up their lives in the work of extermination. Six of the gang rode into the town Wednesday morning and robbed the two banks. Their raid had become known to the officers of the law, and when the bandits attempted to escape they were shot by four men, who were waiting for the battle which would follow the escape of the desperadoes was killed outright, and one was so badly wounded that he has since died. The other escaped, but he is being hotly pursued. The four who were shot were killed, one was fatally and two seriously wounded. The dead are: BOB DALTON, desperado, shot through the head. EMMETT DALTON, desperado, shot through the head. JOSEPH EVANS, desperado, shot through the head. JOHN MOORE, alias "Texas Jack," desperado, shot through the head.

THE DALTON BROTHERS.

JOHN KENNELLY, City Marshal, shot through the body.

L. M. BALDWIN, bank clerk, shot through the head.

G. W. CUBINE, merchant, shot through the head.

T. BROWN, shoemaker, shot through the body.

Thomas G. Ayers, cashier of the First National Bank, was shot through the groin and right leg.

T. A. Reynolds of the attacking party has a wound in the right breast, but it is not considered necessarily dangerous.

Louis Delz, another of the attacking party, was shot in the right side. His wound is not fatal.

It was 9 o'clock when the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a posse. He ran first to the livery stable of Jim Spears, a dead shot with a Winchester and a valuable man in any fight. When the gang rode into town, in two squads of three each, passing through unfrequented streets and deserted alleys to the alley in the rear of the First National Bank. They quickly tied their horses, and without losing a moment's time proceeded to the attack upon the bank.

Robert Dalton, the notorious leader of the gang, and Emmet, his brother, went to the First National bank, the corner building, and took the cash.

John Moore, the desperado, went to the private bank of C. M. Congdon & Co.

In the meantime the alarm had already been given. The Dalton boys were born and bred in the vicinity, and were well known to nearly every man, woman and child. Almost before the bandits had entered the bank Marshal Connelly was collecting a