The Cotton and Woolen Reporter (Rep.) admits that 201 new mills have been established in this country since the passage of the Wilson tariff, 38 of which are women, 73 cotton, 57 knitting, 16 silk, and 17 miscellaneous. It has also been forced to admit that there has been a general increase in wages in the cotton and woolen industries and that the demand for their goods is unexampled. What is the matter with the Wilson bill as far as it relates to the cotton and woolen manufacturing?

The Business Man's Statement.

LA FAYETTE, IND., May 2, 1894.
Lyon Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind.:
GENTLEMEN—It is with pleasure that I can conscientiously say a good word for LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. For more than a year I was troubled with indigestion and stomach disorders. Various remedies which I tried gave me no relief, until one day last summer I was told by a brother drummer of the virtues of LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS. I concluded to try it, and am happy to say one box, costing only one dollar, entirely cured me. To those who suffer as I did I would strongly advise them to use LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS.
Yours truly,
JOHN E. SWENSON,
State Agent Royal Baking Powder Company.
