

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure Backache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhoea by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash is of great value for local application.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper effort, people are more contented and more cheerful. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physician, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

ST. LOUIS CENTRAL R.R.
Double Daily Service

NEW DAY TRAIN
DAYLIGHT SPECIAL
Lv Chicago 10.35 am Ar St. Louis 7.04 pm

POPULAR NIGHT TRAIN
Lv Chicago 9.00 pm Ar St. Louis 7.24 am

FREE FACILITATING CHAIR CARS
Pullman Buffet Parlor Cars.

READS VIA THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R.R.
It can be obtained from the following agents:

A. H. HANSON, G. F. A. H. Cent. & N. Chicago, Ill.

D. F. FILLIS GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL
D. F. FILLIS GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL

REMOVES TAN, PIMPLES, FRECKLES, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES
Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, and all skin diseases, and every blemish on the face, and is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

RECOMMEND "GOVERNOR'S ORIENTAL"
As you can see from the testimonials, it is so effective in its action, that it is so popular with the fair sex.

A PREMATURE MUSTACHE.

It decorates the upper lip of a Fourteen-Year-Old Kentucky Boy. Ed Jenkins is a 14-year-old boy living in Garrard County, Ky., whose claim distinction is based on the fact that he has a fully developed black mustache that many a man of 30 would be proud to boast.

The boy was hardly 10 years old when the fur began to sprout on his upper lip. Contrary to the usage of boys, he did not encourage its growth.

WEARS KNEE PANTS AND A MUSTACHE.

by surreptitiously shaving. He never put razor to his face, but the hair needed no encouragement and continued to grow and become darker until the mustache was thick and long.

The remarkable feature is that the boy is not particularly developed beyond his years in any other way. He is not above the average height or weight. He still wears knee pants and it is a queer sight to see the kid fumbling at his mustache and curling the ends.

Current Condensations.

The first discovery of coal is unknown. The ancient Britons seem to have dug for it.

A beer barrel exploded in the Rue Darcen, Paris, and the accident resulted in the injury of four persons.

A French society is being formed in Paris for the study and improvement of the various breeds of sheep dog.

Cuvier is authority for the statement that the life of a whale may extend over a period exceeding 1,000 years.

Within a quarter of an hour on Tuesday, March 3, Londoners experienced a thunder storm, a gale, snow, hail, rain and sunshine.

In the United States a driver of horses sits on the right and turns his team in that direction. In England the national custom is the reverse.

The city of Sydney, Australia, has imposed a fine of £1 upon any person convicted of spitting upon the floor of public buildings or upon the street.

As speaking tubes are found not to work on the English warships, owing to the rattling of the machinery, the admiralty has determined to try telephones.

Gold, silver, copper, iron, tin, lead, mercury, sulphur, carbon, antimony, bismuth and zinc were the only minerals known at the time of the discovery of America.

A groom of 74 and a bride of 50 were married in North Adams, Mass., recently. The groom had outlived five wives, but the bride had only had one other husband.

Bears are the most profitable animals for trappers in Maine this season, on account of the large amount of oil taken from their bodies. It is sold for $4 a gallon.

An Italian company at Florence, wishing to attract Americans and Englishmen, explains on its posters that "La Bisbetica Domata," the play it gives, is Shakespeare's "Tamed Shrew."

The Bank of England has 1,100 officials on its pay rolls, which amount to about $2,500,000 a year, and 1,000 clerks. If a clerk is late three times he receives a warning; the fourth time he is discharged at once.

A white coon that hasn't a dark hair on its body is owned at Weiser, Ida., and is a kind of town pet. It has distinguished itself by whipping all the dogs in the neighborhood, and is sure death to cats that stray into its vicinity.

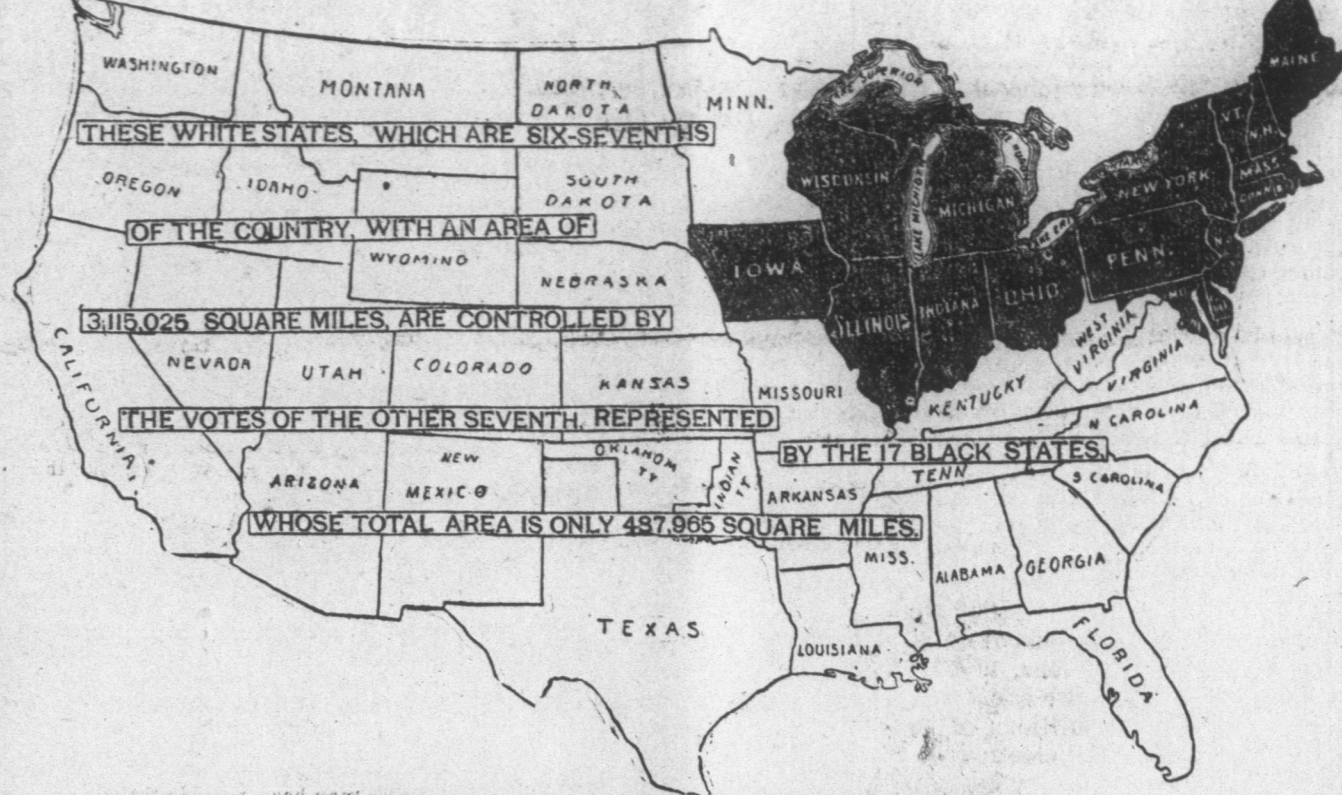

A fine calla lily, dead black in color, is said to be in the possession of a woman at Switzer, Kan. The lily is described as being fourteen inches long and growing on a stem fourteen inches long and of natural healthy growth.

A number of converts walked over the shore ice, scurched through the thin edge, and waded out into the icy sea at Orr's island, Me., to be baptized a few days ago. Even in the middle of summer the sea in that region is so cold that few people bathe in it.

A curate at Bray, County Wicklow, has changed his name of Smith for the older clan name of MacLulich, a branch of the clan from which he is descended having taken the name of Smith many years ago. The founder of the clan was Lulich, who is said to have been a grandson of Macbeth.

OBJECT LESSON IN AMERICAN POLITICS.

Seventeen States, Representing Less than One-seventh of the Area of the United States, Contain Enough Voters to Decide the Presidential Election. (New York World.)

VOTES OF THE SEVENTEEN DECIDING STATES.
The figures below represent the vote in the Presidential election of 1892.

| State. | Dem. | Rep. | Pop. Elec. | State. | Dem. | Rep. | Pop. Elec. |
|-----------|---------|---------|------------|------------|---------|---------|------------|
| Maine | 45,044 | 62,928 | 2,351 | New Jersey | 171,042 | 156,068 | 9,089 |
| N. Hamp. | 42,081 | 46,558 | 2,924 | Delaware | 18,581 | 18,083 | 13 |
| Vermont | 12,325 | 37,125 | 432 | Penn. | 438,204 | 216,011 | 8,714 |
| Mass. | 170,813 | 202,814 | 3,210 | Maryland | 113,896 | 92,736 | 790 |
| R. Island | 24,335 | 20,872 | 806 | Ohio | 404,115 | 405,187 | 14,850 |
| Conn. | 82,395 | 77,025 | 806 | Indiana | 292,740 | 271,013 | 15,015 |
| New York | 654,898 | 600,350 | 14,420 | Illinois | 426,281 | 399,288 | 22,207 |

HEAVY VOTE IN MAINE.
The same period this year have been $64,653,202, and the expenditures have been $88,002,144.

Republicans Make Tremendous Gains in Pine Tree State.
Maine went Republican in Monday's election by from 40,000 to 50,000 plurality, the largest in the history of the State. It proved a landslide far beyond the claims or expectations of the party managers in the State. Llewellyn Powers is elected Governor, and Congressman Reed, Dingley, Miliken and Boutelle are returned by largely increased pluralities over those of two years ago. Indications are that the total Republican vote will reach $2,112, a gain of 12,523 over two years ago. Mr. Reed's plurality will reach 10,000, the largest he has ever received. The returns show a majority of about 12,000 for Mr. Dingley for Congressman from the Second district, over 10,000 for Mr. Miliken in the Third district and practically the same for Mr. Boutelle in the Fourth district.

The total vote in the State will probably reach 110,000, which is the largest ever cast in the State election during a presidential campaign. From returns at hand Chairman Manley estimates the Republican plurality at 50,000. It is the general estimate that the figures will be the largest ever given in Maine. Secretary Beane of the silver Democratic State committee concedes the election of the Republican ticket by over 40,000 plurality. He said: "I am satisfied Powers' majority will be over 40,000. It is much greater than I expected. I have nothing to say of the result."

The city of Bath, the home of Arthur Sewall, gave a plurality of 782 for Powers, which is the largest Republican plurality ever given there. Congressman Dingley gained 24 over his 1892 plurality in the same city. Augusta gives a Republican plurality of 957, the largest in the history of the city. More than one-third of the former Democratic vote went Republican. Portland's complete vote gives Powers a plurality of 1,457, a gain over 1892 of 1,451. Reed's plurality in Portland is 2,330. Powers has a plurality in Bangor of 811, a gain of 447 over 1892. Arnoostook County gives the Republican ticket a 4,000 plurality. Congressman Boutelle runs ahead of his ticket.

All the towns in Androscoggin County give Powers, 5,612; Frank, 2,294; Ladd, 184; Batesman, 552; Clifford, 32. This is a Republican increase over 1892 of 1,286. There were only a few local contests to arouse factional feuds, and order was preserved at the polls throughout the State without much difficulty. In all the strife and contention during the campaign

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

DANIEL W. JONES.
Arkansas's Governor-Elect, Is Considered a Shrewd Politician.

Gov.-elect Jones is known throughout Arkansas as "Dan W." The Joneses are thick in Arkansas and the more prominent of them wear nick names so as to distinguish them from each other. "Dan W." was born in a little hamlet in Texas fifty-two years ago. He was the son of a doctor who mapped out a medical career for him. "Dan W." preferred the law and tackled it early. He was also something of a fighter, and he distinguished himself in the Confederate ranks during the war. When peace was proclaimed he returned to his law books. In 1872 he moved from Texas to Washington, Ark., and entered into law partnership with Senator Jones, the present chairman of the Democratic national committee. There is no relationship between these two Joneses. In 1874 "Dan W." was elected prosecuting attorney of Washington County and later Attorney General of the State of Arkansas. After holding this office for two terms he moved to Little Rock, resumed his private law practice and formed the partnership of "Dan W." Jones and McKay, which still exists. He has the name of being one of the shrewdest politicians in the South. When fighting for the nomination for Governor he declared that he would bolt from the Democratic party if the Chicago convention should declare for a gold standard. On this issue he won the nomination. The Governor-elect has two daughters and three sons, and Mrs. "Dan W." is living.

EVERY HOME SHOULD GET IT.

New Catalogue Issued by John M. Smyth Company Saves Money to Buyers.

The catalogue issued by John M. Smyth Company of Chicago should be in the home of every person who values economical buying. The book consists of 422 pages, beautifully illustrated, and is sent free on application.

No furniture house in the world stands so high in public esteem as John M. Smyth's. For thirty years it has enjoyed the reputation for honest dealings and for the high quality of goods it handles. There is not a State in the Union to which it does not ship goods, and the great West looks upon it as its chief supplier.

To have furnished half a million homes is a distinction few firms enjoy, yet this is what John M. Smyth has done. In the new catalogue are accurate illustrations and faithful descriptions of thousands of different articles used daily in the home and office. From it a person a thousand miles from Chicago can furnish a house from cellar to garret just as well as by a personal visit to the store; or a single article may be ordered, such as a carpet, sewing machine, dinner set, bicycle, stove, lamp, curtain or any of the many places indispensable to the home.

Such a book is a good thing to have, and as it costs nothing it should be in every house in our community