And Nashville repeats the Democratic slogan.
Chattanooga, too, has unfurled the Democratic flag.
Mayor Thomas Taggart of Indianapolis was re-elected Tuesday by a sweeping majority.
On Tuesday last the entire Democratic city ticket was elected by an overwhelming majority in Indianapolis.
The senior republican organ's "smooth thomas Taggart" will in all probability be the next Governor of Indiana.
The citizens of Indianapolis, who know their man, seem to have been highly pleased with "smooth Thomas Taggart's" administration of city affairs.
It is hard for a poor man... a wage worker... to figure prosperity out of a higher price for everything he has to buy while his labor, the only thing he has to sell, remains at the same old price.
Brother Marshall says the foreigner pays the tariff tax for the profits on his goods. Our friend McCoy says the Dingley bill enables him to add one dollar to the price for every standing, sucking lamb. The purchaser, or consumer, if you please, pays it.
Under the McKinley bill, revenues for the government ceased —they were diverted into the coffers of the combines and trusts—Under the Wilson bill that was changed. Government began to receive revenue, but not in sufficient quantity to meet "billion dollar" appropriations.
The Chicago Tribune says—"That which has happened in Indianapolis may happen in Ohio and other states. If so, the republicans in those states will not have the easy sledding they have been reckoning on. So the 'statesmen' must beware lest they play too much on the single string of "prosperity and protection" and set the workmen to believing, as in 1890 and 1892, that they are not "getting their share."

A glance over the advertisements of leading merchants in all the cities and larger towns dis-closes the fact that the wide awake up to date merchant makes a special point of the fact that his stock was bought before the new tariff law went into effect, and his customers are given the benefit of his business foresight. Now if the tariff does not increase the price to the consumer these merchants are attempting to deceive. If the tariff does increase the price then the protectionists have been attempting to deceive.

"Who shall be the next United States Senator selected from Indiana?—Junior Organ.
We answer—Senator David Tur-ple, and don't you forget it.
On the first day of this month the receipts in the United States Treasury amounted to $766,359.94; the expenditures to $1,690,000.
Deficit, $923,640.06. The deficit for the fiscal year to date amounts to $29,939,504.85. This is a splendid showing of prosperity? Senior and Junior organs please copy.

THEORY AND FACT AT WAR.
"Foreigners who look to the rich American market for enormous profits... their cheap made goods, and grumble when they have to pay the Dingley tariff out of their profits, are looking for that dear old Democrat who still thinks the foreigners don't pay the tariff.
They want something to kick at."
The above choice morsel we copy from the Republican. The importers of this country purchase goods in Europe at their market price, provided they can do so and realize a profit after paying the duties required at our ports of entrv. The duties are added to the cost, freight and profit, and the consumer foots the bill. In this event the government derives the revenue fixed by the tariff. If, however, the importer finds he can not pay the duty and realize a profit, he makes no purchase; our home dealers, with no competition from abroad, put up prices, have no duties to pay, reap big profits at the expense of the consumers, and the government derives not a farthing of revenue. In this way millionaires have been created, and dicted legislation which should have been enacted "for the greatest good to the greatest number."— In this day and age the individual who asserts that "the foreigners pay the tariff" is either a fool or a knave."

A PIGMY AMONG GIANTS.
Those among the sovereigns of the Buckeye state who have listened to those big guns of the hustings, George Pendleton, Tom Corwin, Clement L. Valandigham, John Sherman, William Allen, Frank Hard, J. B. Foraker and last, but not least, Allen W. Thurman, the noblest Roman of them all, will no doubt be thrilled to their toenails when Hanna begins to speak. Marcus Alonzo will tower above these men of mighty voice, majestic mein and masterful mind as the hawbush towers over the stately pine or the toadstool looms above the grand old oak, beside whose trunk it squats.
—Kansas City Times.

Our "senior" neighbor thrills "to the toenails" at the mere mention of Marcus Alonzo's name.

A FIFTY-MILLION-DOLLAR
STEAL.
WALL ST. COOL RAIDS THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.
New York, Oct. 14.—The World says to-day:
A steal involving an immediate loss to the government of $20,000, 000 and an ultimate loss of over $50,000,000 will be consummated within the next twenty days unless President McKinley interposes his authority and protects the people.
The Union Pacific railway company owes the government over $53,000,000. A pool of Wall st. bankers has engaged in a scheme of reorganization which contemplates the payment of 62 per cent to the government, or less than $33, 000,000, while securities subordinate to that of the government will obtain 15 per cent upon their claims.
All the legal rights which the government might avail of in the pursuit of the plunderers who rifled the company treasury are to be abandoned, and the terms of sale have been fixed which absolutely bar every form of competition and give the pool a big prize. There are scandalous rumors tracing a connection between this colossal steal and the subscriptions of Wall st. to the Hanna campaign fund and the selection of at least one prominent cabinet official.
If President McKinley will act and prevent this public robbery—worse than the bond syndicate—the World will show him a way.

The finest line of box, calf and winter tan shoes for ladies and gents, also the best stock of boots ever brought to this city, at Judge Haley's, the "fine old Irish gentleman," who will take great pleasure in showing them to you.

cialist, Rensselaer, Indiana.

I have been troubled with rheumatism for several years. Have been treated by physicians and used many remedies without much relief. I was induced by reading your advertisement, to buy a box of Dr. Hobbs' Spargus Kidney Pills at the store of W. H. Smith, and before I was all used, I experienced great relief.
I have since used three boxes, and can say I feel completely cured: eat well and sleep well; to walk and work is a pleasure instead of pain; and I owe it all to your kidney pills. C. H. REINHOLD,
