HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects the inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention Democratic Sentinel and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper, guarantees the genuineness of this offer.

Keep on Coughing

FIVE SERIAL STORIES. Five strong serial stories are announced for publication in THE YOUTH'S COMPANION during 1898. They are: "The Freshman," a romance of college life, by Jesse I. Williams; "The Gold Fields of the Yukon," a story of placer mining in Alaska, by Irving Andrews; "Frieda Fairfax, Writer," the story of a girl who wanted to do newspaper work, by Marguerite Tracy; "The Story of a Bee Farm," by Edith A. Fairfield; and "The Making of Zimri Bunker," a rousing tale of heroic deeds in Nantucket during the War of 1812, by William J. Long. These stories make up only a small part of the good things that will be spread before readers of THE COMPANION during 1898. For sent readers of THE COMPANION who renew their subscriptions, and new subscribers will receive free a beautiful calendar printed in twelve colors, and embossed in gold. The paper will be sent free to new subscribers every week from the time the subscription is received to 1898; then for a full year to January, 1899. An illustrated prospectus will be sent free to any one addressing THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.

Fifty Years Ago. No theory of germs to chill. Affection's budding blazes; When ardent lovers took their fill, No microbes on their kisses. How happy they were not to know The germ-fad—so years ago.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

is the standard family remedy of the world for colds, coughs and lung diseases. It is not a palliative, and is not therefore put up in small cheap bottles. It is put up in large bottles for the household. They cost more but cure more. Fads come and go but no theory or fad can overthrow the fact, that the greatest cure for all colds, coughs and throat and lung diseases, is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

50 Years of Cures.

EMBOSSSED IN GOLD.

To buy and reproduce famous paintings involves an expenditure that could hardly be born unless, as in the case of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, the enterprise is sustained by the approval of more than five hundred thousand subscribers. THE COMPANION'S Souvenir Calendar for 1898, a series of charming figure pieces, faithfully copied in colors and embossed in gold, is recognized as one of the richest and most costly examples of this form of art. Yet every new subscriber receives it without additional charge. Moreover, the paper is sent free to new subscribers every week from the time the subscription is received until January, 1899, and then for a full year to January, 1899.

The popular price of THE COMPANION, $1.75 a year, and the character of its contents, make it a paper for every household. Exceptional attractions are promised for the fifty-two numbers to be issued during 1898. The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Rudyard Kipling, Lillian Norcross, John Burroughs, W. L. Howells and Max O'Rell are prominent in the long list of eminent contributors named in THE COMPANION'S announcement which will be sent free to any one addressing THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 205 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.
