All Monon Route trains now stop at the 47th Street Station, Chicago.
Tickets will be sold and baggage checked at that point. Passengers alighting at that station can take the 47th Street Electric Line and reach any part of the great southern portion of Chicago within a few minutes' ride. The Union Stock Yards is reached in seven minutes. Tickets may be purchased and baggage checked at 47th Street Station.

THROUGH SLEEPER TO
WASHINGTON AND BALTIMORE

The new Monon through sleeper between Chicago and Washington and Baltimore has become so popular that it is often necessary to put on an extra. Requisitions for berths should be made at least a day in advance. It is attached to train No. 81 which leaves Monon at 5:12 a. m. and arrives at Washington at 6:47 a. m. and Baltimore 7:55 the following morning.

W. H. BEAM, Agent.

Men who left the Democratic party in its time of need and while under fire, should not seek to forge to the front and demand that they be permitted to dictate its policies.

WON BY DEMOCRATS.

"Democracy has won a notable triumph in Chicago," says the Dispatch.

"All the towns cast heavy majorities for democratic candidates, and the republicans were completely snowed under and discomfited."
The north and south and west towns and the Town of Lake all rolled up a democratic majority which swept the republicans completely off their feet.

"Of course, the republican newspapers are all saying this morning that the election had 'no especial significance.' It is also to be observed that the democratic victories in Ohio and Michigan have no special significance." If republicans, however, had won the victory then there would have been "special significance" in that fact.

Chicago is now soundly democratic. The people are tired of the hypocrisy of the republican party.
They want no more to do with it.
The state of Illinois is democratic.
Ohio is turning from the republican party, and Michigan is following Ohio. False promises, plutocratic supremacy, trust rule and bulldozing tactics have had their day.

"There is something 'specially significant' in the Chicago election which democratic leaders would do well to consider. The Dispatch has all along warned all those who are in the lead to beware of flir-ting with gold advocates. This warning was not heeded in some instances, and gold advocates were nominated on democratic tickets.
In three cases such gold advocating candidates for the council were defeated."

Democrats are believers in bimetallism. They will not vote for those who cling to the heresy of gold monometallism. Let the fate of the three men who asked for the suffrage of democrats, while belonging to the gold clique, serve as a warning. Hereafter put none but true democrats on guard."

The warning against flir-ting of self-assumed leaders with supposed dissatisfied members of other political organizations has done more to retard the growth of the democratic party, and interfere with the success of its principles, than all other causes combined.

If there be any who believe that the policies of the democratic party are better calculated to advance the general welfare, they should cheerfully join in to secure these results. But they should not be ask for concessions; pledges should not be given; nor should they be rewarded in preference to true democrats.

At no time has there been so extensive a display of virtuous, healthy and ornate tall trees as we have now on hand at White's livery barn, in this city, and for excellence have never been passed. You can not fail to get just what you need. Call and see.

In the course of the discussion of the Cuba question in the senate, Tuesday, Senator Turpie said it was the duty of the American congress to intervene for the Cuban republic. The United States had maintained a blockade for Spain at a great cost. The government of Cuba ought to be recognized, maintained and supported. Mr.
Turpie said it had cost us millions to shut off the supply of annuities which would have enabled the Cuban government to secure its freedom. Mr. Turpie said it was only the Spanish moloch which we said "Suffer little children: to come unto me and we will starve them to death."

The senator then took up the Maine and said the Spanish authorities had made no attempt to discover the perpetrators of that crime.
The destruction of the Maine was an insult which could only be repaired by making it impossible for it to occur again, by placing Cuba and Havana out of power of Spain forever. Mr. Turpie said the cause of the war was Spanish sovereignty and dominion in Cuba, and until this was removed there could be no peace.

Charles Vick, the Optician, says that his business is improving right along.
His long experience, and the fact that he keeps constantly on hand only first grade goods, explains his claim.

ZEALOUS FOR CUBA.

Senator Turpie for War With Spain is Necessary.

In speaking of the proposition to refer the report of the naval court of inquiry to the committee on naval affairs, Mr. Curtis, the special correspondent of the Chicago Record, makes the following reference to Senator Turpie:

"Under ordinary circumstances there would have gone to the naval committee without a question, but the foreign relations committee claimed it on the theory that a diplomatic rather than a military question is involved, and after some heated controversy the naval committee gave in. The members of the foreign relations committee prepared to fight, and passed the word around the senate chamber.

One of the members of this committee is Mr. Turpie, of Indiana, the most bitter, virulent and disagreeable antagonist that anybody can meet in controversy, and he is particularly zealous in the Cuban cause.

"When I told Turpie that the naval committee was going to try to get the report," said one of his disseminators, "the old man began to suck his bottle of poison and hunt for his box of rattlesnakes."

A few weeks ago the Remington Press, then under the management of B. Beck, announced the had completed arrangements to start a new Democratic paper in this city. Of course this was misleading all around, and was designed to be so as the result proved. To strengthen the statement, however, the announcement: "D. W.
Shields is interested in it." The Press should have concluded the statement, in order to establish Shields' experience in the business, that he had been "interested" to the extent of a few shares of stock and as a "director" of the Pilot, the Populist organ, up to the date of its demise; also that he had taken part in the Populist convention in 1892, and was in harmony with the movements of that party ever since. This might show the elastic nature of his political virtue, but it would be true.

The Rensselaer Republican recently announced the title under which the new paper would sail, and that D. W. Shields and Edward Diley would preside over its columns.

The outfit is on hand, worth probably $200, and we understand numbered to that extent, which indicates that Democrats have taken no interest in the stock. The mechanical department, we understand, will be under the supervision of a republican editor of the Home News, and the outfit of that concern will be used to make up what the new paper's outfit lacks.

Any one has a perfect right to establish a business whenever he may desire, but he has no right to distort and misrepresent facts with reference to its backing. If the Democrats were starting the new paper, then the cost of the outfit, and the obligation given, (we understand a mortgage) to secure its payment, is a bad joke on the liberality of the democrats.

The fact is the movement has been inspired solely by certain republicans who have found themselves deprived of an organ since the sale of the Pilot.

"TALKING SHOP" AT HOME.

Drop Business as Far as Possible with Business Hours.

"There are times when it seems that a man's house is the best, and at times it is the only place for a business consultation of importance, and no wife will resent such occasions," writes Edward W. Bok, in an editorial protest against "Talking Shop" at Home, in the Ladies' Home Journal. "Those times are, however, rare, as every man knows, and they should be kept so.
Business, at its best, interests a woman simply because it interests her husband and because his interests are hers. She is not a business woman, she cannot have. It is not her sphere. And, therefore, to impose business talk upon her every evening, or nearly every evening, is nothing short of an imposition and an injustice. Men ought to be wise enough to see this. And they ought to be sensible enough to understand that their own interests, and the interests of the business world, are far more likely to be promoted by a sensible woman's advice, than by a man's advice, and that a man's mind needs diversion; it requires exercise in entirely different channels from those in which it has been running during the day. For this reason the world would be a better place if every man should have a personal hobby as far removed from the nature of his business as possible. A sensible hobby has saved many a business man from early collapse. The mind needs rest, and a man's home is the only place in all the world where such rest should be given it. And American wives should sorely regret that this mental rest be taken by their husbands. It is not an easy matter in such cases for the woman of the home to take such a stand and persist in it. But she can do it if she will. A woman can do almost anything with the man who loves her if she only goes about it in the right way. The trouble is that so many women choose the wrong way. The practice of 'talking shop' should cease in our American homes. Our wives are right in the interest which they take in their husbands' business affairs.
Their influence is frequently seen and felt in the business world. And it is an influence which every right-minded man respects, knowing, as he does, that a woman always acts for the best interests of the man she loves. In her interest and sympathy she is right. Nothing so much good in a man's capacity and enjoyment of business as his wife's faith, interest and co-operation in that business. So long as she permits her interest and sympathy to act only as a means of encouragement she is wise."

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

is the most dangerous of all human ailments because its approach is unobservable. Its symptoms are common to other diseases, viz., Severe Headache, Backache, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Blurred Vision, Dyspepsia, etc. Once let it get a firm hold on the system and it is difficult to dislodge. It is caused by inability of the kidneys to filter the urine from the blood.
Yet it can be

CURED

In April, 1896, I suffered severely with LaGrippe followed by Albuminuria. I was under the care of eminent physicians for three months, but at the end of that time the albumen was still present. About July I began the use of a famous Lithia water, and the Albumen diminished but would not disappear. In August I began to use Dr. Hobbs' Spargus Kidney Pills. After one week it began to disappear, and after thirty days' use of the remedy it was gone.

HOBBS' SPARGUS KIDNEY PILLS.

Cakes made to order, at

KENNEL BROTHERS.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a remedy you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention Democratic Sentinel
