TO THE PEOPLE.

Yesterday evening Seaman, Lewis & Co. announced the suspension of the publication of the DAILY TERRE HAUTE NEWS. At 10 o'clock to-day E. P. Beauchamp effected a purchase of the paper, including the material, subscriptions and good will, and this paper is gotten out under his auspices. Whatever appears in it was prepared in two or three hours, and of course the paper is not to-day what it will be to-morrow.

The DAILY NEWS, it is proper to say to the people, has "come to stay." If there is no field for it, as our morning contemporary says, as a Republican paper, it will make a field. It will be Republican to the back bone—Stalwart with a big S, and we conceive that that is the kind of a paper the Republicans of Terre Haute want. Republicanism never thrived on bread and water. It never achieved anything when it went into a fight in a rheumatic kind of a way. Its greatest success has been when it planted its banners on the outer walls, in full view of the enemy, and there kept them till the victory was won.

The DAILY NEWS will make vigorous efforts for the success of the Republican party. It will urge the election of the nominees of the party, on account of their fitness and their merits. In short, it will roll up its sleeves and go to work, and whatever of support the people give it, it will try to merit by its fidelity to their very best interests.

In this connection we are permitted say that, temporarily, the editorial management of the paper will be under the control of J. O. Hardesty, of the Saturday Courier.

AMENDMENT No. 1 to the constitution of Indiana, to be voted on next Monday, April 5, proposes that no man in Indiana shall vote at any election in Indiana unless he shall at first register in the precinct where, by a residence of 30 days he, has obtained the right to vote.—Indiana Sentinel.

And that is eminently right and proper. The adoption of this amendment is just what we want, for it will prevent men who have no legal right to vote from voting. Our elections should be carried by the legal voters of the city, township, county or State, and not by the men who have no legal residence at the place or time of voting. It is the duty of all men who believe in pure, clean elections to it, will try to merit by its fidelity to their very best interests.

THE ACCOMMODATION TRAIN on the Vandalia road is now composed of new coaches, and the Indianapolis open their eyes when the train goes gliding into that city.

Webb W. Casto is announced in the DAILY NEWS as a candidate for County Treasurer. The Vigo county man who don't know Webb, is a new-comer. We, all of us, say he will make a good Treasurer. What will the Republican convention say?

President McKeen informs us that the wages of the employees of the Vandalia will be advanced to-morrow, but the per cent. has not been fully decided on. The Vandalia company shows commendable liberality in voluntarily advancing the wages of employes.

The low price at which the DAILY NEWS is served to subscribers in the city puts it within the reach of everybody. It should go into at least two thousand homes, and if hard work and persistent effort can put it there, that many firesides will be brightened with it every evening, within the next thirty days.

Mr. Cliff Ross was this afternoon distributing wine and cake among the newspaper editors, with the compliments of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Faris. When the wine warms up the cockles of the editorial hearts this evening, prayers will ascend for the future happiness and prosperity of Mr. Faris and his bride, nee Miss Bettie Flaherty.

Express: A drummer presented himself at the Union depot ticket office, yesterday afternoon, and demanded a ticket to Gilead. Ticket Agent Girdner informed him that no line running out of the city calls at that station. Upon investigation, it was found he wanted to go to Sullivan. When that drummer becomes acquainted with Sullivan county mud, he will wish himself in Gilead.

Articles of Association of the Emergency Building, Loan Fund and Savings Association, of this city, were filed with the Secretary of State, yesterday. The directors are Michael McGowen, James Roman, Rev. John McCabe, Alexander J. Mullen, Peter Bolan, Michael Lawler and John Duliea. The capital stock of the company is placed at $100,000, and divided into two hundred shares.

Galva (Ills.) Journal: J. W. Riley, the Hoosier poet, humorist and dialect reader, made his debut in Illinois last Tuesday evening at Galva, where he gave an entertainment consisting of original impersonations, character sketches and studies from real life. Mr. Riley has one advantage over every other professional reader now on the platform: his readings and character sketches are his own productions, and have not been worn threadbare by every elocutionist in the country. He has a brilliant career ahead of him.

It is not definitely settled what time next week the nail factory will be started up again.

The McKeen Cadet Band and a number of the Company go to Marshall to-night to attend "that ball."

Dan Ransdell, the popular Republican Clerk of Marion county, is in the city calling upon his many friends.

The American Express company is now snugly located in J. O. Jones building on Main street, east of Fifth.

Friday, April 9th, is the anniversary of the Light Guard, and the company propose to celebrate it appropriately.

The Governor's Guard drill to-night. The officers will be all on hand, because they have new uniforms. Gilt galore!

The Vandalia company is establishing new yards west of Indianapolis, and when completed can more conveniently handle its immense business.

The accommodation train on the Vandalia road is now composed of new coaches, and the Indianapolis open their eyes when the train goes gliding into that city.

C. Alexander Mann will open in his new room, in the Beach block, near the post-office, to-morrow.

Agricultural implement dealers are laying in immense stocks of goods, in anticipation of a booming trade.

An invitation will be extended Laura Ream, the well-known Commercial correspondent, to deliver a lecture in this city.

A Ninth street fireman is as badly puzzled over the weight of a chunk of coal, as the first fellow who tried to solve the "15" idiocy.

Somebody must be going to open a seed store in the old Express building, as a car load—one hundred and seventy-six sacks—of clover seed is being put in this afternoon.

It was announced from the stage, last night that the Lady of the Lake would be repeated to-night, but it will not be, as the orchestra is otherwise engaged, a part of the McKeen Cadets go to Marshall and Mr. Alshuler cannot be here. All this is to be regretted as the vast audience which attended last night were highly entertained.

That sure premonition of an approaching election, the street gang, is abroad in the city, to-day. At half-past 2 o'clock this afternoon, three men were trying to pry a thin board off the culvert crossing at Main and Fifth streets. It don't matter how much needless work may cost, the Democratic ticket must have a boost.

John Beal.

The Express of this morning says of Mr. Beal: John Beal is announced as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Democratic nominating convention.

Mr. Beal is the son of Uncle Jerry Beal, well known in this city, and is a prosperous farmer of this township. He was born in Parke county, and has been citizen of this county for eighteen years. In every relation of life he has been a good citizen and like his father a life long Democrat. Four years ago he bought the Fannie B. Price property, three miles north of the city. He is well worthy of the support of every Democrat in the county, and if fortunate enough to become the nominee would make a strong candidate before the people.

THE PRINTERS.

They Ask for an Increase of Wages, and Some "Boos" Will Pay It.

A committee from Terre Haute Typographical Union No. 76, have presented a petition to the several papers in this city for an increase in their wages of 5 cents per 1,000 "ems," and on the strength of their success have tendered the following:

Resolved, that whereas, Messrs. Seaman, Lewis & Co., Daily News; J. O. Hardesty, Courier, and C. O. Ebel, National, have granted the increase asked by this committee; be it

Resolved, That in behalf of our Union we hereby tender our grateful acknowledgement of the favors received of the above named gentlemen, and heartily commend their papers to the laboring classes of this city as worthy of their confidence and patronage.
