We have in hand an item, somewhat personal in its character, and should it be exploded, will cause a general shock to the moral community. Chief actors: A young colored girl and a prominent Democrat, who wanted an opportunity.

Let the people guard the polls, and the first man who violates, or attempts to violate the law be arrested and punished to the utmost extent of the law. The constitutional amendments have been passed and are now in force, as have been declared by the Governor of the State, and is proved by the opinion of the best and ablest lawyers of the Terre Haute bar, which can be consulted in another column of this paper.

SOME one, and we infer that it was one of the Democratic ring, told Mr. Stewart a National ex-committeeman from the Fourth Ward that he would pay Mr. Stewart $50 if he would keep Purdy, the National candidate on the track, as that would mislead enough National votes to elect Bob Flinn, the ring candidate.

Let the good Nationals take warning and not be misled by this Democratic fraud.

GENTLEMEN of the Democratic party, you may hang the ocean on a grapevine to dry; lasso an avalanche; pin a napkin to the mouth of a volcano; throw salt on the tail of the noble American Eagle, whose sleepless eye watches over the welfare of our nation; paste "For Rent" on the moon and stars; but never for a moment delude yourselves with the idea that any person who has not been a resident of the township for sixty days, and of his ward for thirty days, will be allowed to vote for the Lamb-Kelly-White ring in tomorrow's election.

EVERYTHING looks hopeful for the success of the Republican party in the city elections to-morrow. The city is Republican when voters of that party all turn out and vote and work for the ticket. Every nomination is a good one, and should be carried. Let no Republican fail to go to his precinct and vote to-morrow, and see that his neighbors and friends do the same. Let a full vote be polled on the part of Republicans; All attempts at importation and fraudulent voting threatened by Democratic "ringsters" must be promptly stopped. There must be a square election and Republicans intend to have these and thereby succeed.

DO YOU WANT TO GET SHUT OF THE RING.

THE city election takes place to-morrow. The great issue before the people is whether they want to continue under the administration of the Lamb, Havens ring or under the administration of a Republican Council. A Council that will work for the promotion and welfare of the laboring of man. The people of Terre Haute are now convinced that the administration of the city for several years has been under the control of a Democratic Ring of gigantic proportions; a Ring that is unscrupulous and mercenary in every particular, and it now remains to be seen whether or not the people wish a continuance of wholesale political robbery. The police force has grown to be a laughing stock for violators of law and order. The fire department is a trap of endless litigation for damages for negligence and incompetency. The people can not afford to have a continuance of these things. It must be stopped, and the only way to stop it is to vote for Farrington, McKeen, Ellis, Briggs, Harris and McCutcheon.

—The river is better, thank you. It is able to get out of its bed now.

THE MEN YOU WILL VOTE FOR TO-MORROW.

To-morrow the people of Terre Haute will be called upon to cast their votes for men to represent them in our Council for the next year.

In the First Ward the Republicans have nominated Samuel McKeen, a man who has lived here for many years and is one of the heaviest taxpayers in the city, a man who has the interests of the city identified with his own interests; he is not a politician, but a quiet gentleman, who by his industry has established one of the largest manufacturing establishments in the State. The people of Terre Haute cannot afford to have such a man defeated at the election to-morrow.

The Democrats have nominated John G. Williams to be the opponent of Mr. McKeen. Mr. Williams is the attorney for the Vandalia Railroad, and cannot in any manner be so deeply interested in the welfare of our city, as Samuel McKeen. His profession can in no way be connected with the business interests of our city, and we do not think the people will act so rashly as to vote for Mr. Williams in preference to Samuel McKeen.

In the Second Ward the Republicans have nominated George E. Farrington, a gentleman who has a position in the office of the same railroad of which Mr. Williams is attorney.

Mr. Farrington is an old resident, and a man universally liked by Republicans, Democrats, and Nationals. He was a soldier of the 85th Indiana Volunteers, and greatly distinguished himself as a brave and true soldier. His opponent is one Dr. Roberts, who it is said was a surgeon in the rebel army. While Mr. Farrington was at the front fighting for our country, Roberts was doing all he could against it. The people to-morrow will do one of two things, either vote for a Union soldier or Rebel surgeon; which will you do. The answer comes back vote for Farrington.

In the Third ward the Republicans have Edwin Ellis, a young man who is connected with the woolen factory. He too is a heavy tax-payer and is the Young Men's candidate. He is a quiet gentleman whose reputation is spotless and character above reproach.

The opponent of Mr. Ellis is W. P. Bartlett, the street sprinkler, the man who sprinkles the street in front of your house and charges exorbitantly for it, then goes to the next house, and does the same amount of sprinkling and charges one half as much. The people can't afford to elect such a man to have a voice in the administration of city affairs; his whole object if elected would be to get himself and the "ring" that nominated him into a street sprinkling committee that would bankrupt the city.

The people of the Third Ward must vote for Edwin Ellis.

The Republicans of the Fourth Ward have chosen Joseph Briggs to be their standard bearer. Every man, woman and child in the Fourth Ward is acquainted with Joseph Briggs. He is one of the most popular men in the city, and one of the very highest character. His opponent is Bob Flinn, who is a sort of a lackey for John Exodus Lamb and Jake White. He does nothing except what Lamb and White tell him, and if the people were to be so unwise as to elect him, one of the first things he would do would be to offer a resolution that the city pay Lamb's fee in the Bolig matter. The people don't want to run any such risks but should vote for Joseph Briggs.

In the Fifth Ward James B. Harris is the Republican candidate. Mr. Harris is an old Councilman and one who has stood at all times in the interests of the people. His record as a Councilman is as clean as can be, and the Democrats know it. Mr. Harris' opponent is James Grace. Mr. Grace is not very well known and the people don't know whether he would make a good Councilman or not. On the contrary, Mr. Harris has been tried and found true, and the voters of the Fifth Ward can't afford to risk Grace when James B. Harris is a candidate.

James McCutcheon is the Republican candidate in the Sixth ward. He is brought by his business directly in contact with the laboring men, and no man in the city could be more fitted to judge what legislation in the city's administration would be of interest to the laboring men. He is a member of the present Council and a gentleman of the highest character. His opponent is Adolph Reindhart, who has no experience in matters of this kind, and who is not a competent man for the position according to the report of several of his friends. Mr. McCutcheon on the contrary has made a good Councilman and the voters in the Sixth ward must vote for him.

HOWARD MANNING, the National Committeeman in the Fourth Ward, it is reported, was paid $100 by the ring Democrats to be used in influencing Nationals to believe that Geo. Purdy is their legitimate candidate, and thus mislead the honest men of that party to cast a Democratic vote. We beseech you, Nationals, to be as true to yourselves to-morrow as you were to your country in its time of need, and you will vote as a unit against your life-long enemy and the party that attempted to destroy this great and glorious government.

SPRING GREETING.

Spring has come, and considerably ahead of its usual time. Yet we have anticipated the coming, and are pleased to offer our customers and friends such a line of Clothing and Furnishings as has been rarely if ever seen in this market. Our shelves and counters are full of beautiful goods, elegant in style, select in materials, and perfect in workmanship. Our ample capital and large resources have never availed us greater advantage in manufacturing clothing than at the present time, and we propose to give our customers all the benefit from it that is possible.

Having preconceived the idea of a heavy advance in woollens, we bought largely of staples before the advance, and to-day we are able to offer to our customers these woollens manufactured into cloth at but a slight advance over last year's prices, and at least 20 per cent. less than other dealers can buy the same in New York.

Since occupying our present room our business has so vastly increased that we have been compelled to enlarge our already spacious room, that we may the better accommodate our daily increasing trade. The additions made are in the rear of our present room, and will be used exclusively as our Boys' and Children's Department, being neatly carpeted and furnished with chairs, sofas, tables, mirrors, etc.

We have never been fixed so well as now to add to the comforts and wants of our customers. In our selections of cloth, and manufacture of Boys' and Children's clothing, we certainly never had such an array of beauty in design of cloth and make-up in style as we are able to present to the citizens of Terre Haute and vicinity this Spring.

While others have croaked we have worked, and that our work has been effective, not only for our own benefit but for the good of the people at large, is attested by the generous patronage we have been accorded. Be assured it is cheering to receive such tokens of appreciation, and we shall not remit our efforts to merit them hereafter. We have no occasion to disparage our neighbors, and have no complaints to offer of honorable and fair competition. We transact our business on strictly business principles; buy in large quantities such goods as we do not manufacture at our own mills; manufacture our own clothing; sell to consumers at the same price that the New York Jobber charges the ordinary merchant; sell for cash only, and thereby save all loss from bad debts; mark our goods in plain figures and never deviate therefrom; have spacious store-rooms and gentlemenly salesmen with whom it is a pleasure to deal, and our guarantee is absolute and unqualified.

We shall be pleased to serve you. A personal visit will afford you more satisfaction than what we can say here, and we would most gladly welcome you in our new quarters.

RESPECTFULLY,

OWEN, PIXLEY & CO.
