

Situations Wanted, and Help Wanted.

THE DAILY NEWS will print advertisements of persons wanting work or situations, and of those needing help of any kind, without charge. Such advertisements must not exceed 30 words. This is proposed because it is believed it will aid many who need and desire work, and we cordially invite all interested to avail themselves of the means offered. It must be remembered that letters sent through the mail are not delivered to initials only. If initials are used, the letter should be directed to the care of some individual, firm, or postoffice box, and if for city delivery the postage is two cents. The DAILY NEWS has boxes at the office for the reception of letters addressed to its care, and such letters will be delivered only to the advertiser holding a check for the box number.

Wanted.

Advertisements printed under this head One cent each word, and the advertisement will rarely fail to attract the attention of persons who may have whatever is wanted, and from a large number of replies the advertiser is enabled to make the most favorable selections. "Situations wanted" and "Help wanted," not exceeding 30 words, printed without charge.

WANTED—To buy a Buck Board or a cheap buggy. Farris & Hoss No. 4 Shannons block south 6th street, Terre Haute Ind.

WANTED—To secure a comfortable, home-like boarding place in a private family, for gentleman, wife and two little boys. References furnished. Call at this office for particulars, etc.

WANTED—Everybody to buy a Hammock of Wm. Loveze at No. 126 Ninth street, opposite Cliff & Williams' Flaming Mill.

WANTED—Everybody to know that you can make your wants known in this column of the DAILY NEWS, at one cent per word per day.

WANTED—You to send order by postal card, or through a Daily News Message Box, for the DAILY NEWS, 10 cents per week, delivered promptly by carrier.

SITUATIONS.

WANTED—A situation by a laboring man; steady and reliable. Can do all kinds of work. Enquire at the office at Boston House.

WANTED—Situation by a boy 15 years old. Will work at anything honorably. Inquire at 327 South First street.

WANTED—A colored boy who can come recommended, desires a place to work for board and lodging so that he can attend school. Apply at colored school house or 410 south Third street.

For Rent.

Terre Haute is too large a city for landlords to depend on placards, which attract the attention of only such persons as necessarily pass the premises, while a small advertisement inserted in the DAILY NEWS will reach daily everybody likely to want rooms or houses, promptly secure a tenant, and save the loss arising from property standing idle. One Cent a word.

FOR RENT—A desirable brick dwelling house No. 462 North 4th street, with good barn. For particulars, call on W. A. Ryan, cor. 4th and Ohio streets, or on C. N. Gould, No. 452 North 4th st.

FOR RENT—House containing 5 rooms with all modern improvements. No. 621 south 7th street. Call at Commercial School.

For Sale.

Under this head, for One Cent per word, persons may offer whatever they may have for sale, and be sure of reaching more purchasers every day than could be done in a week by personal solicitation, thus securing the advantage of many inquiries and of selling at the best offers.

FOR SALE—Hammocks of all sizes made to order by Woveze, No. 126 north Ninth street.

FOR SALE—A fine set of gold-mounted single Victoria harness; cheap. Enquire at this office.

FOR SALE—A large quantity of old News-papers, good for wrapping purposes. 25 cents per hundred. DAILY NEWS.

FOR SALE—A large quantity of old News-papers, good for wrapping purposes. 25 cents per hundred. DAILY NEWS.

Personal.

All advertisements under this head will be charged 10 cents per line, and any one desiring answers through the News boxes, can rent News mail boxes at this office at 10 cents per week.

Location of Daily News Call Boxes.

In the office of the National House, South Sixth street.

At the Drug Store of Buntin & Arm, strong, corner Sixth and Main streets.

At the Terre Haute House, on desk in the reading room.

At the "Depot Drug Store" of Robinson & Sherburne, 980 Chestnut street.

At "East End Drug Store," J. E. Soules, 1201 Main street.

At the Bakery and Grocery of Mrs. A. Gerhart, 824 South Thirteenth street.

At the Grocery, cor. Wilson and First streets.

At the Agricultural Implement warehouse of C. A. Power, 104 and 106 Main street.

In the I. & St. L. depot, at the ticket office window.

BABY WAGONS.

Scudder is bound to close out his stock of baby wagons to make room for ice cream. Call and see him. Great bargains to be had.

H. S. Richardson & Co. are still selling Queensware, glass and plated ware at old prices. 307 Main st.

The new Job Printing Office of I. M. Brown & Sons' is the place to get good work at fair rates. Give them a call and examine specimens and prices. Remember the location—northwest corner of Fifth and Main, up stairs, over Jauriet & Co's. dry goods store. A complete stock of the best of papers and cards kept on hand. Also the nicest assortment of calling cards ever brought to the city.

J. S. Fuller, at No. 520 North Fifth st., can look into the dim vista of futurity. Lives past revealed, and future foretold. Call and have your fortune told.

New line of bird cages just in at Richardson & Co's. Queensware Store. 307 Main street.

All advertisements in this column under the head of wanted, from business houses will be charged 25 cents per week for four lines. All over that number will be charged extra. We do this in the interest of the business community.

Wanted—Everybody to call at Monroe & Smith's barber shop No. 126 South Fourth street. They give a clean shave and shampoo well.

Wanted—Housekeepers to call on J. H. Chapman & Co., No. 306 South Fourth street, for pure, wholesome well-baked and unadulterated bread, and choice cakes.

Wanted—Work! work! work! I have a splendid and large assortment of Wall paper, and I employ competent workmen to hang it. TRAQUAIR, 114, Fourth street.

Wanted—Everybody to visit our great sale of boots and shoes. G. A. ROGERS & Co., 329 Main street.

Wanted—Persons to call at Patton Bros., where they can buy the best of everything in the eating line at the lowest market price.

Wanted—All persons who desire shaving, hair cutting, shampooing and bathing, to call on Berkshire, No. 414 Ohio street. None but competent barbers and careful attendants employed.

Wanted—To exchange boots and shoes for cash, at bottom prices. Call on A. H. Boegeman, No. 118 south Fourth street.

Wanted—Persons having hides for sale, and those engaged in the boot and shoe manufacturing trade, to call on L. A. Burnett, No. 112 south 4th street.

Wanted—Everybody to bare in mind that you can save 25 per cent, by buying your boots and shoes at our great sale. G. A. ROGERS & Co., 329 Main street.

Wanted—Buyers of coffees, sugars, and staple groceries—quality and prices guaranteed—to try Myers Brothers, No. 111 south 4th street.

Wanted—Everybody to call at Otto Ehrenhardt saloon, Ohio street, for good liquors and cigars.

Wanted—Those desirous of obtaining good fresh Groceries, Teas and Coffees at bottom cash prices to call on John Zimmerman, 304 and 306 south 4th street.

Wanted—Farmers desirous of good board and accommodation for themselves, their cousins and their aunts, as well as good fodder and stabling for their animals to call on J. W. Boston, 302 South Fourth street.

Wanted—Everybody to call on Dennis Sullivan No. 108 North Fourth street, if you have old furniture, old iron or any other old plunder to dispose of.

Wanted—Everybody to know that at the general intelligence office at 225 Ohio street, everything can be learned.

Wanted—It understood that no house in the city can undersell us in boots and shoes. G. A. ROGERS & Co., 329 Main street.

Wanted—At Fred Kieckler's saloon, No. 108 S. Fourth street, a call from all persons who desire pure Wines, Liquors, and good Cigars at reasonable rates.

Wanted—All persons desirous of purchasing good Boots and Shoes at reasonable rates for cash, to call at W. H. Greiner's establishment, 329 Ohio street, near Fourth.

Wanted—Every Grocer in the city to call daily at my place and examine goods. Jos. H. Briggs, 106, Fourth street.

Wanted—Girls in need of situations to call at 225 Ohio street, where they can be placed.

Wanted—Everybody to call and purchase feeds of all kinds at lowest cash prices. No. 29 north Fourth street. C. H. GOLDSMITH.

Wanted—Every house-keeper to visit the Furniture, Stove and Queensware house of J. R. Fisher, when in want of bargains, 104 and 106 South Fourth street.

Wanted—J. R. Freeman, Opera House. Great on watch work. Fine jewelry on hand. Watches and Chains. Solid Silver work.

Wanted—Everybody to call at Cincinnati House 17 North Fourth street, where they can get the finest liquors in the city. St. Louis Beer always on draught.

Wanted—Everybody to give Leo Warner a call for he sells the best Liquors and Cigars in the city. No. 416 Main street.

Wanted—All persons in need of houses to call at 225 Ohio street.

Wanted—Everybody to call on John Rubsch, 4th and Cherry streets, for Harness, Saddles, Collars and Bridles.

Wanted—All persons in want of parlor or chamber suits to call on J. R. Fisher, No. 104 and 106, Fourth street.

Wanted—The people of the South End to know that I have fitted up an elegant Ice Cream parlor at corner of 7th and Poplar streets.

Wanted—All those in need of feeds of all kinds will do well to call on Oliver & Co., northwest corner 4th and Cherry streets. They give special rates and sell by wholesale as well as in small quantities.

Wanted—Landlords to put their property in the hands of Quigley & Metzger, 225 Ohio street.

Wanted—All kinds of second hand goods in part pay for new furniture or stoves. J. R. FISHER, 104 and 106, south Fourth street.

Wanted—Newly married people, and those who are not, to call and buy one of those elegant parlor suits of Foster & Son, No. 102 and 104 north Fourth street.

Wanted—Every one in the North End to call at northwest corner 4th and Eagle sts., for Bread and Cakes, fresh every morning. T. CALLAHAN

Wanted—Everybody to call and examine my stock of Cigars and Tobacco. No. 25 N. Fourth street. M. BALSTER.

Wanted—All persons that want bad lunches to give me a call. The largest stock in the city. J. R. FISHER, 104 and 106 south Fourth street.

Wanted—Everybody to call and examine my new spring stock of Boots and Shoes just received at 25 north 4th street. J. R. MILLER.

Wanted—The people to call on Cowle's & Bowsher for nice canned goods, fruits teas and coffees, at No. 117 north 4th street.

Wanted—Go to Statz for genuine pebble spectacles the best for the eyes. He also keeps a full line of microscopes, spy glasses and sun-glasses.

Wanted—Attention to the Big Five! Big Five! The Big Five! The Big Five! The Big Five!

Wanted—Those who want a good clean shave to go to T. E. Guthrie, No. 109 south Third street.

Wanted—Those who are fastidious and hard to please to go to Wm. Clark's barber parlors, south 4th street, he gives satisfaction.

Wanted—Every lady to try our 100 cloth top button shoe. G. A. ROGERS & Co., 329 Main street.

Wanted—Everybody to give G. C. Robinson a call at No. 629 Main street. He keeps the best of liquors and cigars. 71-1w

Wanted—Everybody to buy their meat at Rupp's Butcher Shop, 611 Main street. No "Schmide" there. 71-1w

Wanted—Everybody to call and examine my choicest brands of cigars. I also keep the finest and best tobaccos at 130 South Fourth street. 71-1w

Wanted—People to call at 130 South Fourth street and buy their fruits. They can get dates, bananas, figs, oranges, lemons and sweets of all kinds at bottom prices. 71-1w

Wanted—Everybody to call and give me a call. I keep the best liquors and cigars No. 24 South Fourth street. HERMAN PATZELT. 71-1w

Wanted—Those who want a fine pocket or specie book to call at Stunkle's Drug Store n corner Fourth and Ohio. Prescriptions filled night or day. 71-1w

Wanted—Those who want drugs, medicines, perfumery, toilet and fancy articles to call at Stunkle's n corner Fourth and Ohio streets. 71-1w

Wanted—Those who know a good cigar when they see it call at Stunkle's Drug Store and try the Pilot and Laurelmeath, Se. n corner Fourth and Ohio. 71-1w

THE CITY.

—All nature seems to be rejoicing over the late rains.

—The Boaz went south to-day.

—Business seems to be living up, so say all the principal merchants.

—The steamer Fayette is lying at the wharf at the foot of Ohio street.

—Light suits are now the principal article of display in the clothing line.

—A suit for slander has been brought against John D. Harris by Mahala Harris.

—The walls have been begun for W. R. McKeen's new business block.

—The Crawfordsville Journal on Monday began a Daily Morning Journal.

A little daughter of K. Smith fell from a skiff last Sunday, and came near being drowned.

—A coach load of immigrants passed over the Vandalia, Sunday, en route for Kansas.

—Reports from Pennsylvania say that the fruit crop will be better this year than for several years past.

—There will be a boat race at Long Point Saturday, on the Lake Adryonac, the picnic grounds.

—Quite a pleasant evening was passed by the large number who attended the ball at Turner Hall last night.

—The mighty Wabash is again attempting to spread its wings, having raised about one foot and a half since yesterday.

Ernest Whitehouse has again returned home from Jeffersonville, where he has been for the past two years.

—The price of admission to the Fifth street theatre has been reduced as an inducement to patrons of that class.

—The stairway leading to the room above the St. Elmo saloon has been removed to give the saloonists more room.

—Mr. E. F. Rall has moved his wagon-making shop to the rear of Mr. Watson's blacksmith shop. This is an accommodating addition to the shop.

—Excavation has begun for the new building which is to be erected just east of Mr. J. Bauer's new stone front building.

—W. H. Pige has on exhibition in his show window a Continental dollar bill, which was just one hundred years old yesterday.

Sportsmen should remember the shooting match at Strawberry Hill to-day. Two coops of pigeons arrived this morning over the I. & St. L. for the occasion.

—If a fire had broken out Saturday night in the Opera House while Bob Ingersoll was lecturing he would have changed his mind about there being no "Hell."

—Robert Stewart, the merchant tailor, will be tried before Esquire Steinmehl. Suits amounting to nearly $250 have been brought against him by different parties.

—A business man of north Fourth street being under the influence of the extreme heat was yesterday evening observed, by a passer by, resting on a large cake of ice.

—A full attendance of the members of the Concordia Society is requested at the rooms of the Terre Haute Library, No. 624½ north side of Main street, at 2 p. m., on May 12th 1880.

—Go and buy a reserved seat for Barlett to-night and then watch some of Geo. P. Bissell's servants occupy it during the performance. At least until the frying commences.

—If you want to have lots of fun to-night buy a "Balcony seat" and watch one of Bissell's slaves occupy it for you at the opera house. You can continue the fun until the roasting commences.

—The warm weather has increased the number of street loafers to such an extent that it is embarrassing to a lady to walk down Main street and hear the conversation indulged in by this class of men and boys.

—Messrs. Quigley & Metzger have opened a general Intelligence Office and Collecting Agency at 225 Ohio street. This is an enterprise that has been long needed in this city, and we hope the gentlemen will succeed.

—Mr. J. Stahl is canvassing for the illustrated books of Appleton & Co.'s publishing house. These books are among the most useful and instructive of modern literature, and should be in the hands of every person who enjoys fine literature.

—The Vandalia road is being graded for the laying of a double track between here and the coal regions. This is another improvement made by the worthy president, Mr. W. R. McKeen, and will be a source of great saving to the company in the way of wear and tear of the cars which arises from side tracking.

—Mr. Bridwell has his new cottage on North Sixth street about completed.

—Rev. T. R. Bacon preached his farewell sermon last Sunday night, at the Sixth Street Congregational Church.

—A popular temperance lecturer by the name of Dunn has been invited to assist in the temperance work in this city.

The third street market is well supplied to-day with hay and wood there being about sixteen loads of hay and eight or ten loads of wood.

The sporting season has begun in earnest judging from the amount of fishing poles and guns we see being carried around the streets.

—The bust in the window of S. Swope's jewelry store is a fine work of art and is admired by all who have any taste at all for that kind of work.

—There is considerable complaint of the condition of the atmosphere at the west end of the bridge, caused by the emptying of trash at the sides of the grade.

—The flouring mills of Kidder Bros. are running night and day this week. The supply of wheat being short they are prevented from supplying the demand as promptly as desired.

—If the party who carried away a pair of shoes, which did not belong to him, from a prominent dry goods house of this city, will return the same, he will confer a favor on the owner by so doing.

—The reduction of fare over the E. T. H. & C. and the road leading from Danville to Chicago, is a subject quite fully discussed by the traveling public who appreciate, to the greatest degree, the act of the managers.

—Quite a contrast is perceptible between the reports of the meetings of the Republican and Democratic clubs. The loss of zeal on the part of the Democracy and the enthusiasm manifested by the Republicans. Keep it booming boys.

—The Davis Family are highly praised for their musical assistance at the Lockport Republican meeting. Their music is appreciated wherever rendered, and the liberality with which they exercise their talent is greatly appreciated by their fellow citizens.

Deputy Sheriff, John Cleary, took passage for Jeffersonville yesterday having in charge John Hilton who will take lodging in the State tavern in that place for one year having committed a theft in this city which entitles him to that length of time; he was accompanied by Frank Sutes who will stay two years for attempting to shoot Officer Roach.

—A fight occurred at the distillery yesterday afternoon, in which one man had his face badly disfigured, one side being terribly cut, and the other side swollen so as to entirely annihilate any signs of the existence of an eye. The wounded man's antagonist was arrested, and he himself let free. He walked down to Main street, where he created quite an attraction for boys and street loungers.

Wanted

Fifteen hundred innocent men, women and children of which to make a human fricassee? at the Opera House for Geo. P. Bissell, of Hartford, Conn., and his hirelings of Terre Haute.

The Express on the Opera House.

No danger of fire in the Opera House. All bosh, is it? Ask Col. Nelson what he thinks of it. He was in the great fire at Santiago, where hundreds of men, women and children were burned to death.

For Sale

Two or three idiotic ushers, one door keeper, and a Tape Worm at the Opera House. Terms—One cent apiece, on 12 months time. Sale to take place immediately after two or three hundred people have been burned to death in Bissell's "Death Trap."

No security required of purchasers.

PERSONAL.

W. B. Tuell is in Indianapolis.

W. W. Lord of Indianapolis is in the city.

Mrs. W. Mack returned yesterday from Indianapolis.

Eugene Debbis was at Indianapolis yesterday.

Chas. E. Null of the Globe bindery is going to work for the Columbus Republican.

Mrs. Abbie Donough, of north Third street, has gone to St. Marys on a two weeks visit.

The partnership between Messrs. Marshall & Sammis has been dissolved and the business will, in future, be conducted by Mr. Marshall.

—An employe of this office desires to secure board for himself and wife during the summer months. Private family preferred. References furnished. Apply at once at the News-office.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.*DEMOCRACY HOLDING TO THE TAIL OF STATES RIGHTS.*KILLED BY A THUNDER BOLT.*ROOKE AND DONAVAN PRIZE FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—A little tilt in the Senate occurred to-day between Senators Conkling and Eaton. Conkling said something about the shade of the shadow of the old Democratic sentimentality of States Rights. Here Mr. Eaton retorted that States Rights was a living vital thing, and now that the Senator from New York (Conkling) was the leader of an Imperial party it was time for the Democrats to stand closer than ever by States Rights. This is construed as a Field boom.

The House

Agreed to-day after the 15th inst. to meet daily at eleven o'clock. The Appropriation Committee also reported the Legislation Appropriation Bill and will call it up to-morrow. Both of these facts are good auguries for an adjournment by June 1st. With the Legislation Bill out of the way this week, there is no good reason why all the necessary work can not be cleaned up to enable Congress to get away at the time indicated.

The Coming Prize Fight at Erie, Pa.

ERIE, Pa., May 10.—There is every prospect that the prize fight between George Rooke and Mike Donovan for $2,000 and middle-weight championship will take place to-morrow. Both pugilists are quartered at the Reed House, which is now famous as the headquarters of the prize fighters and their patrons. It was here that Mace and Coburn held forth in 1871, prior to their fizzle in Canada, and Dwyer and Elliott, the last pugilists who battled for the heavy-weight championship, had their headquarters.

Killed by a Thunderbolt.

NEWCASTLE, Ind., May 10.—This evening late, Joseph C. Achey, living near this city, took refuge under a large elm tree on his farm, during a thunderstorm, where he was killed by a thunderbolt. The stroke burned and blistered his body, and left the remains a pitiable sight. He was about sixty years old.

Storm in Illinois.

CHICAGO, May 10.—A heavy rain storm, accompanied by wind, visited a large section of this State Sunday. The Tribune's special says the thriving village of Otsey, near Winchester, Scott county, was nearly destroyed by the fearful wind Sunday evening. There was a cloud burst and a terrific rain, thunder and lightning. Just before the catastrophe the wind took a narrow path, demolishing everything in its way, but lasting only about three minutes. Twenty buildings were either totally or partially destroyed. No lives were lost. Thos. Roberts lost a new store valued at $5,000. H. M. Hunt two warehouses, and others lost in moderate amounts, aggregating from fourteen to fifteen thousand dollars. The debris covered fields adjoining the town.

Some damage is reported in adjacent towns. A fearful cyclone swept across the eastern portion of McLean county at 9 o'clock last night, damaging property at least $100,000.

In Arrowsmith township twelve dwellings were utterly demolished and 100 acres of orchard eradicated.