SENATOR CONKLING AT CINCINNATI: ROYAL OVATION.

A Lightning Stroke at Muncie—Boiler Explosion at Bay City, Mich.—Murder
by Tramps.

Conkling at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—At the Highland House last night, Roscoe Conkling the distinguished New York Senator, delivered a brief but most timely and telling speech before a grand audience as was every addressed by a political orator.
The assemblage could not have numbered less than twenty thousand, many hundreds of whom were ladies. The lecture, the broad expanse of the hall, the main building through all its floors and porches and balconies, the promenades and approaches, and outlying area were all so closely filled as to have caused serious discomfort, had the great audience been less intent on what was being said.
The speech was brief, but thoroughly adapted to a Cincinnati audience. No words were wasted, and just those points were made which, at this time and in this city, most needed to be made. The speaker grasped the situation as it is here, and portrayed it in a manner so clear that even those who run may be convinced.

Supposed Case of Evil Play.

NEW PARIS, IND., October 1.—This village is wild with excitement over the discovery of one Smith this morning of a hat and a case of physician's instruments on the banks of Turkey Creek, a quarter of a mile west of here, covered with blood and hair. The hat and case belong to Dr.
James Hughes, who was known to have collected considerable money here during the day yesterday. He was last seen about eight o'clock last night. A little distance from the hat and case lay a large rock, which was also covered with blood and hair. Hughes lives four miles west of here. His wife says she has not seen anything of him since he left yesterday morning. There were two tramps lying around yesterday which are looked upon with suspicion. They were last seen about the time Hughes was. Officers are in search of them. The citizens turned out to day and dragged the creek for the body, but to no avail. Hughes carried a life insurance policy for several thousand dollars.

Terrible Boiler Explosion.

BAY CITY, MICH., Oct. 1.—About half-past two this morning two of the six boilers at Pitts & Cranage's mill, in this city, exploded with terrific force. They stood in a small building adjoining the mill and not in the main boiler-house. One piece of a boiler was carried over the mill, over the railroad bridge and over the heads of eighty men who were working on a boat near by, smashing the platform near the boat. The steam dome was carried over the lumber piles and landed on a pile 400 feet away, breaking it down. Two timbers were carried fifty feet further. A mud-pipe was blown one hundred feet, and landed against a lumber pile. A drill-house adjoining the boiler-house was blown to atoms, and there is not a brick of the boiler-room left in place. The mill is badly shattered, as also is the salt block.

MAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

MUNCIE, IND., October 1.—To-day Joseph Simpson, aged forty years, a day laborer, universally known here, was killed by lightning while doing duty as a wood chopper on a farm three miles southeast of Muncie. While at work a rain came up and he took shelter under a tree which was struck by lightning, the electric current passed down the body of the tree and struck Simpson, killing him instantly. The deceased was a first cousin to General U. S. Grant, their mothers being sisters. He leaves a family in Muncie.
His remains were brought here this afternoon for an inquest and burial.

Priest Works Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.—The Ablion Print Works of Conshohocken, having offices in Philadelphia and New York, have suspended payment and made an assignment. The Abli-son Company has a capital of $250,000. The full capacity of the mill amounted to 2,400,000 yards per month.

W. H. Paige & Co. are still acknowledged as the leading music dealers in the city. They have not only got the largest stock of musical instrument, books and sheet music but are agents for the celebrated Chickering Upright, Grand and Square pianos, Mason & Hamlin organs and other first-class makes of musical instruments. They have also a large and varied assortment of political songs which they will dispose of at less than cost.
Give them a call if you wish to treat fair and square.

OYSTERS.

The largest invoice of Oysters yet brought to the city was received this morning by Johnson & Flinn, the Oyster Kings. Don't fail to leave your Sunday order with them.

Desires to give notice to the public in general and to the ladies in particular that his stock is now in and open for their inspection. His styles are of the latest and nobbiest patterns and his prices cannot be duplicated in the city. The greatest pleasure taken to show goods whether you buy or not, 403 Main street.

THE CITY.

—A large amount of interesting matter has been crowded out of to-days issue, among which is a communication receivthrough a News box on Wall street.

—Conkling on the 6th.

—Boys in Blue turn out to night.

—Senator Roscoe Conkling next Wednesday.

—Let all business men be on hand promptly to-night at 7 o'clock.

—Boys in Blue will meet at Headquarters to night at 7 o'clock, sharp.

—The Davis Family will assist at the meeting at the Wigwam to-night.

—Rally to the corner of Sixth and Ohio streets and see the "Silver Grays."

—The "Silver Grays" will meet at the corner of Sixth and Ohio streets this evening.

—The Davis family will furnish some of their excellent music at the Wigwam to-night.

—Col. Thompson at the Wigwam tonight. Let everybody hear what he has to say on the political question.

—All elderly gentlemen will please meet at the corner of Sixth and Ohio streets at 7 o'clock this evening.

—Business men! Rally to the call of your country and give the cause a lift by coming out in full force to night.

—Vincennes people, both Democrats and Republicans, will come up on a special train next Wednesday to hear Conkling.

—Two members of our Chinese population left the city in disgust last night, and have gone to Danville, Ill., to try the laundry business.

—Republicans, "Silver grays," Business men, Boys in blue, turn out tonight and prove that your hearts and interests in the cause are supported.

—Good brick masons are in demand in Danville Ills. Men from here can get work there by applying to Mr. H. L. Bushnell agent C. & E. I. R. R. office.

—All of our old Republican citizens who wish to preserve the present condition of government standing will assist in the cause by meeting with the "Silver Grays" to night.

—Central Presbyterian Church: Preaching by the Rev. Thomas Parry. Morning subject: The Universality of the Gospel.
In the evening: The power of a noble woman. Welcome to all.

—The atmosphere about Second street is still impregnated with two much unhallowedness to allow the spirits to materialize. Hence no shows are given at present at Pence's Hall.

—No man has ever visited us who commanded the attention of an audience as does our distinguished townsman Col. R.
W. Thompson. Let everybody without regard to party turn out to-night.

—Andy Smith who died last Wednesday of heart disease, was buried yesterday afternoon from the house of his sister, Mrs.
Dox of north 4th street, by blacksmiths and veteran soldiers of which organizations he was a member.

—The Knights of Columbia met last night at the Typographical Union Hall.
Thirty applications for membership were brought in and the meeting was very enthusiastic. Speeches were made by several members and the very best feeling prevailed. Hon. M. C. Woods, Grand Commander of the State, will be in the city from Sunday afternoon until Monday night.

—The city has every reason in the world to be proud of her present police force and fire department. The good work that is being done in these departments of our city government, prove the efficiency of the men who are at the heads of the force and department. Chief of Police, Harry Russell, has the sympathy of all his men and the most perfect harmony prevails. Every man feels his responsibility and takes an unshrinking interest in his work. This accounts for the good order which has prevailed during the present campaign. The fire department has been thoroughly tested and has proved themselves able to do a firemen's duty. Wm. Burnett, has the department in a fine shape, and the city is to be congratulated on getting the men they have selected.

"Silver Grays"

We are instructed to request all of the elderly gentlemen who will kindly march in the procession to-night to meet at the corner of Sixth and Ohio streets at the head of the grand column, and in a body take torches. Let our business men please not forget to be on hand at 7 o'clock prompt.

PERSONAL.

Drake Burton returned this afternoon from Chicago, where he has purchased a stock of fine gents furnishing goods.

Mrs. Fannie Thomas, of Bloomington, Illinois, is visiting the family of her brother-in-law, Officer, Frank Thomas.
She returns home to-day, after a pleasant stay of a week in our city.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Henry Schomehl, Nephew of Esquire Schomehl, Commits Suicide this Morning by Shooting Himself in the Head.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

The west end of town was startled this morning by the report that Henry Schomehl, a bar-keeper for Billie Hoffman, on south Fourth street, had committed suicide. The following is the report of the
CORONER'S INQUEST.

Mrs. Schomehl sworn:
My name is Anna M. Schomehl.
State how it happened.

Ans.—Last night, about 12 o'clock, my husband went to bed; he was saying that Mr. Hoffman, had sold out his saloon, and that the man buying, would get another man in his place. I tried to make him not feel bad over it, and that Geo. Ha-berly would get him a place at Seath & Hagers, he seemed to be better satisfied, and went to bed. About 4 o'clock, he woke up and said that he thought he heard something, and wanted to know where the revolver was. Said he didn't feel like himself. I told him that I supposed he was mistaken, and persuaded him to lay down. We talked about an hour; he then got up, and went to the closet. I heard him say, my God, I run into the closet, and asked him what he was doing, he said, that he was trying to kill himself, but that he had not the courage. I took the revolver and put it away, and he lay down, and before he got up, he promised and swore, over the little babe, that he would not hurt himself.

He got up out of bed and said that he was going to open the saloon, and went out. I met Mr. Hoffman and he wanted know where he was, and said that he was not at the saloon. I became alarmed and went to look for him on the street, but could not find him, and returned to the house, where I found him setting on kitchen table dead. I screamed for Mr.
Fisk down stairs.

Sadie Crookshank was next sworn. I came to this house about 8 o'clock this morning, and found Mrs. Schomehl out, took charge of the little babe whom I found alone. Soon after I entered the deceased came in. He acted very strange and did not treat me as usual. I made the remark that the baby was a nice one, he made no reply. I told him that I would go home, and to tell Mrs. Schomehl that I would return soon. I left the house, the deceased was in the closet when I went out.

N. M. Crookshank sworn. My wife came home, and told me how strangely the deceased acted while she was at the house. She said he acted as if he had killed some one. I made light of the remark, and went to work. Soon after wards I was in the rear of this house at work and heard the report of a pistol, thought of what my wife had told me and ran up stairs here where I saw the deceased sitting at the table dead, his head was laying on the table, with his right hand hanging down by his side, and the pistol was near his foot. Mrs. Schomehl was in the room when I entered.

Esquire Schomehl, sworn.
I am the uncle of the deceased. Deceased came to this country, 10 years ago, from Germany. He has had several periodical attacks of insanity, during which time it was necessary to keep him confined. These periodical symptoms appeared three or four per year. He at one time applied for an Insurance policy, but upon his statement was refused.

Wm. Hoffman.

Deceased, worked for me, liking one month of 3 years, this last time, he worked off and on, 9 or 10 years. I have noticed streaks of insanity. Insanity runs in the family, his brother was in the insane asylum, at Indianapolis. Deceased left the saloon about 11 o'clock, last night. He made an arrangement with Mr. Blumberg, to stay in the employ, and agreed on the wages. Deceased seemed to be satisfied with his engagement, but ever since I sold out, he seemed to be absent minded. Deceased went to the saloon and opened out, about 6:30, and showed the other bar-keeper, where everything was, and then told him, that he did not feel very well, and had to go to the drug store. I went to his house, but he was not there. It was about 8 o'clock.

The coroner, Mr. Ehrenhardt, found that the deceased, came to his death by his own hand.

Its Action is Sure and Safe.

The celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort can now be obtained in the usual dry vegetable form, or in liquid form. It is put in the latter way for the especial convenience of those who cannot readily prepare it. It will be found very concentrated and will act with equal efficiency in either case. Be sure and read the new advertisement for particulars.—South and West.

F. M. C.

They Hold a Meeting and Pass
Resolutions—The News
Man Hears it All.

The F. M. C. met at their accustomed place last night and as it was generally understood that the high cock alorum was to make a speech, the News man quietly crept into his box and waited for the fun.
As the greater portion of the members had been pressing brick all day and were consequently tired, it was late before a quorum was announced. The first thing in order was reading the minutes of the last meeting, this being done, it was moved by the Anti-fat man that so much of the record as pertained to bad smells should be stricken out. This motion was opposed by the fat man with the mansard roof above his eye, on the ground that the words Democratic party and bad smells were synonymous, and could not exist a part without destroying the time bearing and dignity of the Democratic party, after considerable discussion in which the words liar, thief, shyster and such tender epithets were freely used, the club agreed on the following substitute for the minute of the previous meeting as read by the secretary:

Fat Men's Club met promptly at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 28 of Oct.
The members generally supposed themselves to own the State of Indiana, and the Democratic party. They were all joyful and full of glory.

The following resolution was offered by the T. S. and unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS it has now pleased the almighty to place it in the power of the Democratic party under our illustrious leader, Gen. Hancock, to destroy the Union and wreck the government of the United States, and I kill and main every d—d nigger who does not vote the Democratic ticket.

Be it resolved, that the F. M. C. in mutually assembled, solemnly pledge themselves respectfully to vote every trap that can be found within a radius of thirty miles of this city in the interest of the solid South, Wade Hampton, Bob Toombs and every lasting secession, and that they will do every thing in their power to bull-doze all colored men and prohibit them from voting the Republican ticket.

At the conclusion of the reading, the Anti Fat Man proposed three cheers for the solid South and Wade Hampton, the illustrious. The smooth faced gentleman with the red pug nose moved that the club take a recess of ten minutes and adjourn to the bar, which of course was not debatable. When the meeting was called to order again, the Anti Fat Man was called on for a speech, so that worthy dignitary mounted a beer keg and began:
"My dearly beloved brethren. The Lord has surely been good to us. It is with the utmost feeling that I now attempt to address you (here the chairman began to wipe away the tears,) upon the great outrages that the Republican party have inflicted upon us. (cries of give it to em.) Yes my beloved brethren we will crush out of existence the d—d union that the old stolen bottles for years fought to preserve.

We will bust up the government and hang the rebel flag in the court house square. Men who have to work oughtn't to live, is our motto. Under this black Republican rule the poor man who labors hard has his pockets full of money and his family lives peacefully and happily. We want a change, we men who put in our time holding up lamp posts through the day and forty drinks every night, must see to it that Hancock is elected. [A voice, let's take a drink.] I say we must have a change. There is too much prosperity and happiness among our people. [A voice from the outside, hurrah for Garfield.] I say to you this tariff must be stopped. We want just such tariff as will let England bring her products here, so that home industries will be crushed and these men who labor will have to starve."

At the close of this sentence there seemed to be a collapse. Everything became quiet except a strong inaudible voice which sounded like the wind blowing over an nut meg grater, for the News man peeped out and found every solitary man, except the speaker, soundly snoring. So he hid him, to his sanctum, meditating on the vanity of human hopes and the truthfulness of the poet who said:
"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen, And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

"Ladies and Gentlemen," said an Irish manager to his audience of three. "as there is nobody here, I'll dismiss you all.
The performance of this night will not be performed, but will be repeated to-morrow evening."—Bartram & Co., 512
