THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7, 1881.

The Vice President submitted a communication from the Secretary of War, calling attention to the insufficiency of the appropriation of $75,000 made by the House in the army bill for recruiting expenses, and recommending an appropriation of $97,000; also, from the same officer, a communication recommending the appropriation of $82,500 to meet the operating expenses of the Portland & Louisville canal for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1882.

It was resolved—24 to 17—that when the Senate adjourns, it be to Monday.
The memorial of Moore, member of the Packard legislature, asserting that he was branded by Mr. Kellogg, and asking to be examined on the subject, led to a discussion as to the evidence in the Kellogg Spofford case. Mr. Kellogg denounced Moore as a perjured blackmailer.

The morning hour expired and the discussion was dropped.
Ferry introduced a bill to promote the efficiency of the life saving service and encourage the saving of life from shipwreck. The bill provides pensions for the representatives of those who have lost life in saving life from shipwreck. It was referred to the Committee on Commerce, and Ferry called the attention of the members of that committee to the subject, hoping that it would be acted upon at an early day.

Burnside introduced a bill to authorize the retirement of Brevet Major General Wm. A. Averill, United States Army, with the rank and pay of Brigadier General; referred.

On motion of Eaton, the bill making appropriation for the Consular and Diplomatic service of the Government, was taken up. Eaton said the estimates for the coming fiscal year were $1,357,000.
The appropriation for the current fiscal year was $1,180,000. The amount appropriated by the House in the present bill was $1,190,435, to which the Senate committee have added $1,000. The bill, as reported, is less than the estimates by $65,565, but exceeds the appropriation for the current fiscal year by $11,435.

The Senate, as in Committee of the Whole, proceeded to consider the bill.
White moved to insert an appropriation of $1,000 for mailing Congressional Records to foreign Legations, adopted.
When the clause of the bill was reached appropriating $1,500 for rent of prisons for American convicts in China, Carpenter asked some Senator who was "familiar with the Constitution, and had a few minutes leisure," to inform under what constitutional authority prisoners were kept up in foreign countries. He had sought in vain for any constitutional authority to try citizens of the United States for crime, except upon the presentment of a Grand Jury.

Voorhees thought the Senator from Wisconsin (Carpenter) might well ask the present Administration for its authority for the high handed measures in connection with the trials of criminals abroad, on which subject he (Voorhees) was in receipt of complaints.

Hoar referred to the necessity of some judicial process in semi-barbarous countries to defend our citizens from any injustice in those foreign countries. To strike out those provisions would have no good effect. He agreed with the Senator from Wisconsin that a change should be made, but it should be made in a thorough manner.

Carpenter admitted this. His object in making the motion was to bring the subject before the Senate. He intended before the close of this session to introduce a bill on this subject.

Carpenter moved to strike out all the clauses in this bill appropriating money to support these prisons.

The matter was further debated by Pendleton, Hoar and Brown, who said that the appropriation should be made until the law was repealed, and cited the Constitutional authority to establish "inferior judicial tribunals" as a warrant for their existence of the courts under discussion.

Carpenter replied that he had always been a States' rights man. He was in favor of the rights of the States to pay their own taxes (laughter), etc., and administer their own affairs; but he had always made a distinction between States' rights and State sovereignty, and there he differed from many.

Carpenter's motion to strike out the appropriations for maintaining prisons was rejected—yeas, 12; nays, 43.

The amendments proposed by the Committee on Appropriations, inserted an appropriation of 4,000 for the salary of the Consul General and Diplomatic Agent of the United States in Roumania, at Bucharest, was adopted, as well as other unimportant committee amendments.
The bill was reported to the Senate and the amendments made in Committee of the whole agreed to, and the bill read the third time and passed.

The Senate then went into executive session and when the doors reopened, adjourned till Monday.

will afterwards count the vote. COBB.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARLIAMENTARY PROBABILITIES.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The Times says it is expected that debate in the House of Commons on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, and amendments thereto will occupy three nights. In order to facilitate the discussion of the corporation bills, and expedite their passage, the Government intends, if necessary to have prolonged sittings of the House.

WHICH WOULD BE BAD.

The Times says: It is not improbable that Parnell, at the moment when he has to stand trial on a criminal charge, and when he has challenged not only the British Government, but the Imperial Parliament to combat, may find popular support in Ireland crumbling under his feet.

THE HOME RULERS.

LONDON, January 7.—The Home Rule party agrees not to discuss the land question in the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech.

THE POPE ON THE AGITATION.

LONDON, January 7.—The Times says: We are informed that the Pope has written a letter to the Archbishops of Dublin, of which the Foreign Office has authentic information, strongly condemning the method in which the agitation in Ireland is conducted, and that very emphatic instructions have been given to Catholic prelates, enjoining them to make a stand against the anarchical and communistic doctrines which have been preached and put into practice.

REPORT OF THE LAND COMMISSION.

A dispatch from Dublin says: The report of the Land Commission has been sent to the Government. The report expresses the views of three of the Commissioners, two dissenting.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The three Irish Land Commissioners, in their report sent to the Government, recommend the adoption of the "three F's": Fair rent, free rent and fixity of tenure. They admit the principles of free contracts, but intimate that practically such freedom does not exist.
They propose that rent be fixed by two arbitrators, one representing the tenant and the other the Land Court, with power to summon an umpire, if necessary, and that the rent, when fixed, is to remain unchanged for twenty-one years. They would take away the power of eviction, except for non-payment of rent. Sub-letting or waste-occupying tenants are not to be allowed to do so, subject to certain limitations, and corporations and limited owners should be enabled to sell an amount of annual payment not to exceed the present rent. The Commissioners recommend the adoption of the "three F's": Lord Beaconsfield, Baron Downe and Wm. Shaw, M. P. The dissenters are Kavanagh and The O'Connor Don.

WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.

THE STEAMSHIP FARNLEY PROBABLY GONE TO THE DEPTHS.

Dead Bodies Washed Ashore.—The lost Craft Bound From Savannah to Reval, on the Baltic.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING TELE-GRAM.

LONDON, January 5.—There is reason to fear that another disastrous wreck, accompanied with sad loss of life and destruction of property, has occurred off the cost of Jutland. Lloyd's agent at Lemvig telegraphs this morning that the Farnley, Captain Appleton, from Savannah for Reval, which left the former port on the 8th of December with a large and valuable cargo of cotton, is thought to have been totally lost. Bales of cotton have drifted ashore in the neighborhood, also two boats marked "Farnley Newcastle," were found on the shore off Bjerregaard, in the Skager Rack. In one of the boats were two dead bodies, presumed to have been officers of a large vessel, probably a steamer. They wore life belts. The Farnley was last reported at Dartmouth on the 27th ult.

BISMARCK AND THE JEWS.

LONDON, Jan. 5, 1881.

The authorities have dismissed the great agitator, Dr. Henrici, from his post of school master. A despatch from Berlin to the Daily News says: "At a large meeting of students, held to debate on the best means for extending the anti-Jewish agitation, deputations from the universities of Gottingen, Leipzig, Kiel, Rostock and Halle were present. Fourteen hundred Berlin students and 1,022 Leipzig students and many others have already signed an anti-Jewish petition to Prince Bismarck."

LONDON, Jan. 5, 1881.

The German Consul at Lemvig telegraphs to the Danish Consul at Newcastle confirming the loss of the Farnley.
Four boats painted "Farnley Newcastle," and several dead bodies of the sailors have been washed ashore. On one was found a book containing the following entry:—"The Farnley left Savannah on the 8th of December, with 5,900 bales of cotton, destined for Reval." The Consul's despatch also said that 150 bales marked "Knoop" have come ashore. The cargo is reported to be valued at nearly £100,- 000.

THE OSCAR DICKSON.

REMOVED LOSS OF THE SWEDISH VESSEL IN THE SIBERIAN POLAR SEAS.

[BY CABLE TO THE N. Y. HERALD.]

LONDON, Jan. 6, 1881.

A despatch from Copenhagen to the Standard states that it is feared that the steamer Oscar Dickson, with an exploring party, has been lost in the Siberian Polar Seas. This is the Swedish vessel which was named after Dr. Dickson, of Gothenburg, who equipped the last expedition of Professor Nordenskjold.

GOUTTS-BARTLETT.

[BY CABLE TO THE N. Y. HERALD.]

LONDON, Jan. 3, 1881.

Truth this afternoon states that the marriage of the Baroness Burdett-Coutts with Mr. Ashmead Bartlett, will take place during the present month, and that the clause of the will of the Duchess of St. Albans by which the Baroness would forfeit her interest in the bank in the event of marrying a foreigner, will be contested in the courts.

My Good Women.

Why are you so out of sorts, never able to tell folks that you are well? Ten to one it's all caused in the first place by habitual constipation, which no doubt finally caused deranged kidneys and liver. The sure cure for constipation is the celebrated Kidney-Wort. It is also a specific remedy for all kidney and liver diseases.
Thousands are cured by it every month.

T. T.

OR

T. T.

Several circumstances occurred this week in connection with our city press, which leads me to make known my opinion, in regard to the introduction of a citizen's private affairs into publication, and using the powers of journalism to satisfy the malicious desires of one's passion towards the unsuspecting object of his attack. Every person, no matter whether or not he is willing to acknowledge it, understands that the influence of the press is more powerful than any other existing institution in the universe, and the man who resorts to this end, for the purpose of venting his heated anger towards a person, who, by chance, works in opposition to his desires, is not entitled to the ranks of a true American citizen.
Private affairs can be settled without the assistance of the press, and that manner of doing business is dangerous in the extreme to the merchant who attempts it.
In the affair, in which a private account of one of our city officers was paraded before the public through the columns of one of our evening papers, a few days ago. The smallness of the intelligent capacity enclosed in the cranium of some narrow-minded individual was perfectly displayed to public view. No journalist of any experience or judgment will allow himself to seize upon such cases, and consider them as items of interest to the reading public. A cultivated and intelligent reader will scorn such matter as in-delicate and unbecoming to a journalist of ability and correct ideas of his duty. We do not desire to take this occasion to discuss this particular case, but simply use this example as an illustration of our subject. Journalism has its mission and position in the affairs of the world, but it, by mismanagement, is capable of being carried beyond its bounds and overreaching the boundary lines of propriety and discretion. A violation of the laws and purposes of the press is as great an error as can be found in business circles, and is detrimental to the interests of its management. The purpose of journalism is to inform the living masses of the current events which may prove of interest to them, and enlighten the human family upon the advance of science and its results, and not to bring before the gaze of the world the private troubles of a citizen who by some means or other chances to meet with misfortune. We have about filled our allotted space and must not infringe upon the rights of the patrons of this journal, consequently we will not express more of our ideas but will simply consider this a subject for reflection and allow our readers to study the subject in its many branches, and relations, and we are sure that by proper reasoning they can come to the conclusion that journalism is much abused, and its power used in entirely to many cases where it could do much more good by not being used.
