

CARPETS AND FURNITURE.

NEARLY

AN

ACRE

OF

SPACE

Required to show our line of Carpets, Furniture and Baby cabs.

Prices are lower than in the large cities. Styles are choice, from the best manufactories of the country.

When we entered the Furniture business, we sat down a rule that the poorly made article we would not buy. We have found it to work well, even if a set of well made furniture costs a little more than a poorer one, it will last that much longer and the purchaser has the satisfaction of not having shabby made goods in his house.

Full stock coming in very rapidly. Car loads of Furniture and Carpets, Baby cabs and Oil cloths have arrived this week.

GOOSE EGGED BY COLUMBUS.

A FINE BALL CAME AT THE PARK YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

THE TERRE HAUTES HOLD THE PROFESSIONALS DOWN TO FOUR RUNS, BUT DO NOT SEEM TO CURE A SCORE THEMSELVES.

The audience at the ball park yesterday was not much, if any, larger than that which witnessed the recent game with Evansville, but there was greater interest manifested by everybody, although no one doubted that the home team would be defeated. The ladies were out in legion, occupying a goodly portion of the grand stand, and presenting to those comfortably ensconced on the bleachers, a panoramic picture of gay colors and pretty faces, which was very nice to look upon—like the drop curtain at a theater—between acts. The poodle dog that cheered so lustily during the game between the Neversweats and Lotus nine was not present—he had probably suffered the penalty which fits the crime of not wearing a muzzle in these hydropathic days.

Yes, it was a great game, the greatest of the season. Everybody talked about it after it was over, from the small boy up to Councilman Wedde. Conflicting opinions as to its merits existed, but no one denied that Columbus played a fine game and that Terre Haute held 'em pretty level. In the outset it looked very much as though the visitors were going to play a careless, off-hand game, but when they began to be put out right regular they immediately changed tactics and played good ball. It was noticeable that Terre Haute could not hold the bats as long as could the Columbus team, but they held the latter down until the beginning of the fourth inning. In this the home boys went in order, all to first base, Conley hitting to Greenwood, Lotz to Widner and Nelson to Easterday, the latter making a great stop. The last half resulted: McTammany went out from O'Brien to Lotz, followed by Lefty by a hit to left field. Daily went out from Nelson to Lotz, advancing Marr a base. Johnson hit one near the line, Eiteljorg throwing it crazy and Marr crossing the plate, but Johnson didn't make it home. O'Brien tapped one to Widner to open the fifth. Cantillon's was caught by left fielder and Donovan died by "foul play." The last half opened by a sky-scraper from the bat of Fatty Orr which O'Brien took in. Greenwood got first on balls and Easterday struck a two-bagger letting Greenwood over the plate. McCaffrey, the little man, sacrificed from Nelson to Lotz, Easterday staying with third on an out by Widner from Nelson to Lotz.

The sixth started with a fly sent by Eiteljorg out to McTammany. Schneider went out at first and dying there by a fly from Conley to the left field. McTammany started the last half in by a hit and took second on a crazy pitch. Marr let him over the plate. Daily took his base on balls. Johnson struck to Nelson, who touched Doily and threw the latter out at first, but the umpire called him safe. Orr struck to Cantillon, who touched Daily. The inning and run-getting ended by Greenwood's fly to Nelson.

In the seventh Lotz went out to Orr. Nelson struck to left field, but was doubled by O'Brien on his grounder to Easterday. The visitors were out in order in the eighth, nobody scoring. No score was made in the eighth. The locals accomplished nothing in their half of the ninth and the game resulted in a shut-out for Terre Haute, the first she has suffered this season.

Earned runs—Columbus 2.
Two-base hits—Nelson, Marr, Easterday.
Double plays—Dorsey to Lotz, Easterday to Greenwood to Orr.
Sacrifice hits—Conley, Daily, McCaffrey, Stolen bases—Eiteljorg, Marr.
Base on balls—By Eiteljorg, 4.
Base on hit by pitched ball—By Widner, 1.
Wild pitches—By Eiteljorg, 1.
Struck out—By Eiteljorg, 2; Widner, 1.
Left on bases—Terre Haute, 5; Columbus, 2.
Time of game—1 hour and 25 minutes.
Umpire—Vott.

NOTES.
Widner's slow ball was what the locals could not size up.

Monday the Burlington Inter-state League team will be here.

We have the I. X. L's this afternoon and to-morrow. They are next to the Browns.

In base ball parlance yesterday's victory for Terre Haute is represented by "goose egg."

Russie was in the box for Burlington at Evansville yesterday, and the former won by 11 to 6.

Games yesterday: Pittsburg 7, New York 4; Boston 13, Cleveland 0; Chicago 10, Washington 6.

The Columbus team only getting six hits off Eiteljorg does not speak bad for that gentleman by any means.

HORSESHOEING PRICES.
The Boss Horseshoer's association have approved the scale of prices for horseshoeing that have been in vogue for some time. The organization will strictly enforce the prices on and after September 1st. The following are the prices:

Hand-made shoes..... $2.00
Machine-made shoes..... 1.50
Four shoes reset and toed..... 1.20
Four shoes removed..... 1.00

THE COMMISSIONERS.
The commissioners have allowed the following bills:

Bement, Rea & Co..... $125.00
Brill Bros..... 21.50
Carl Kretzenstein..... 6.35
Finkbeiner & Duerweg..... 17.55
Bauermeister & Busch..... 15.55
Bauermeister & Busch..... 12.50
Bement, Rea & Co..... 15.75

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.
Joseph Collet to M. C. Allen; 273; lot 116 in Hudson's subdivision.
Amanda D. Mack to Henry Weidman, lot 1, Mack's subdivision; $250.
Oliver P. Kimmel to Laura S. Kimmel, north half of lot 32, Rose's subdivision; $1,200.

FAIR NOTES.
The demand for horse stalls is very lively. A Canadian firm is shipping a car load of imported Clyde horses. Mr.

Carpenter, of the Boston store, has added a pair of blankets to the list of presents for the bride couple and an interested friend a family Bible. The wedding ring will be given by a city official.

REDUCE THE FERRY CHARGES.

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS EACH WAY IS TOO MUCH FOR THE FARMER TO PAY.—A WAY OUT OF IT. Already complaints from merchants are heard on account of the high rates to be charged for ferry transportation during the time that it will take to put in the new draw. The contract is for thirty days, but the estimated time for completion is in the neighborhood of six weeks. There is a great deal of over-the-river trade and there are many farmers who will remain at home rather than pay 50 cents to cross and recross on the ferry and merchants predict that this will have a depressing effect on trade just when it should be the best with them. Farmers at a distance of ten or twelve miles from the city rarely bring much produce to this market and a clear outlay of 50 cents, which represents a great deal to the farmer, will undoubtedly depress trade. The ferry prices are fixed by the commissioners and will have to be complied with, but it has been suggested that merchants form a pool by which the charges could be lessened one-half. This is the most feasible way out of the difficulty and there is a feeling abroad that the commissioners would not object to the formation of such a pool and thereby lessen the ferry expenses and promote trade.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

A Chicago syndicate is building a new theater in St. Louis.

The Norcross Opera company went to pieces in Chicago this week.

Nat Goodwin opens in "A Gold Mine" at Toronto, Canada, September 2d.

Joseph Murphy is playing a successful engagement at the New California theater, San Francisco.

Edward Harrigan is playing to big business in his old Squatter Sovereignty at the Alcazar, San Francisco.

The season at the Fifth Avenue Theater, New York, will open Monday evening with Adelaide Moore in "The Love Story."

Emma Juch's Opera Company opens October 21st, at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia. Miss Juch has abandoned her European tour.

The American Actors' Amateur Athletic Association of New York played ball at Asbury Park last week and were defeated by the natives; 9 to 6.

A game rooster will be introduced in Kajakka, who will be trained to fight the clown. After getting the best of the fight, he will jump on him and crow.

Edgar Strakosh is to manage the Carlton Opera Company this season. "La Belle Helene," "Nanon," and probably "The Brigands," will form the repertory.

THE SAN YOUNG COMPANY.

The Chillicothe (Ohio) Daily News says of the opening performance of Sam Young's company, Monday night, Clough's opera house was crowded and jammed from pit to dome last night by a delighted audience who witnessed the Melville company in their opening play, "Queen's Evidence." The performance was a decided success from beginning to end. Every part was conscientiously and cleverly acted. There wasn't a weak point in the whole cast. The Melville company is an exceptionally strong one, and Chillicothe people have with them a company that is sure to entertain them for this week. The untiring efforts of Mr. Sam Young, the talented manager of this strong company of talented performers, should be properly appreciated and praised. Miss Ida Melville, as "Kate Medland," showed the pathos, emotion and brilliant acting of a true and careful delineator of human nature. Miss Melville was not with the company last year and she, with her beauty and talents, is welcomed with enthusiasm.
