TIT FOR TAT.

DANVILLE SWIPES THE HOME CLUB 9 TO 5 AT PLACE VICTORY.

The home club was beaten at Danville yesterday in the fourth inning by safe hits and a misjudged fly by Eiteljorg. Nelson pitched for the Terre Haute, acquitting himself creditably, but he was poorly supported in the field. Conley knocked the ball for another home run, sending a red-hot liner through the fence. The umpires were Shughrue, of Danville, and Smith, of this place. The score was as follows:

SUED BY A PASTOR.

THIRTY PROMINENT CITIZENS MADE DEFENDANTS IN A SENSATIONAL CASE.

GALESBURG, Ill., August 31.—[Special.]—A decided sensation was created here yesterday when thirty prominent citizens were cited to appear before the United States court in October as defendants in a suit instituted by the Rev. C. A. Nybladh, who was transient pastor of the First Lutheran Church here last fall, and was discharged because of reports alleging he was the father of a young woman's child. He escaped a trial on the charge because the cause was outlawed. He charges several of the defendants with false imprisonment and defamation of character, and asks for twenty-five thousand dollars damages. Among the defendants are the Rev. S. P. A. Lindahl, president of the Augustana Lutheran synod, the largest body in the country; the Hon. G. W. Prince, a member of the state legislature; the Hon. Nels Nelson, secretary of the Scandinavian mutual association, and other prominent people. Nybladh claims that he is still an alien and resorts to the United States court because he fears that he cannot get justice here.

WOMAN'S LOYALTY.

A lady came here from Rosedale yesterday and instituted capias proceedings against a showman who had his tent at the fair grounds. She had recently loaned him $10 with which to pay board while at Rosedale and caused the warrant to be issued to recover the money, but soon after the case was commenced the plaintiff met the defendant's wife on the street and to save her husband she pawned her jewelry to pay the debt and stopped the suit.

DOUBLE HANGING AT LITTLE ROCK.

Spaniard killed Deputy United States Marshal Erwin in the Choctaw nation September 18th, 1885, shooting him on the roadside. The execution of these murderers was set for August 9th, but President Harrison granted a respite until to-day.
