THE HOODLUM COACHERS WIN.

THE PIUTE YELLING OF AN INSANE MOB DECIDES THE CONTEST.

TWO THOUSAND LOUD-MOUTHED COACHERS DISCONCERT THE VISITORS BY THEIR HIDEOUS HOWLING—EVANSVILLE THUS FAIRLY TOP.

Last Saturday afternoon the first of the championship series of games between Terre Haute and Evansville occurred at the latter city and was attended by a large crowd. Until the beginning of the third inning there was promise of a very close contest, but after that matters took a radical turn for the different. In this inning the tail-enders found Dougan for three singles and two doubles, scoring five runs. This threw the great audience into a fever of ill-suppressed excitement, and the anxiety was intense. After the fifth inning the outcome seemed uncertain, but the Evansvilles had secured the lead and did not lose it. The Terre Hautes were several times seized with a malignant type of "back-slash," and the locals did not hesitate to take advantage of the situation. Dougan struck out four men during the game, but at times he was hit hard. The Evansvilles played good ball all the way through with the possible exception of Hill, who is credited with four errors and ought to be credited with several more. The double empire system was tried, but did not pan out exactly satisfactory. Tully did very well behind the bat, notwithstanding the fact that he was crippled up. With three hits Dougan led the Terre Hautes' batting. The score was: Evansville, 12; Terre Haute, 10.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The second of the championship series between Evansville and Terre Haute occurred at the former place yesterday and was a very rocky affair, the locals winning by 12 to 3. The Terre Hautes put up a very lively game, being unable to retain their heads under the persistent and distracting geying of the locals' multitude of coachers. Whenever Evansville got a man on a base the wild, vigorous-lunged mob would set up such a deafening din as to drive the visiting team to the verge of mental aberration. It was hardly a fight, one ball team against another; it was more truly an unequal contest wherein a visiting team had a good club and a tumultuous mob of hoodlums to overcome. The only play of the visitors worthy of mention was a magnificent throw from left field by Conley, cutting off a man at the plate. Glenavlin did good work taking advantage of his nine opportunities. O'Brien and Cantillon were badly off, due to the merciless razzle-dazzle. The visitors could not hit Crothers safely more than three times, one of these being a 2-bagger by Tully. Donovan couldn't freeze to Eiteljorg's delivery and after the fourth inning was relieved by Schneider. The Terre Hautes lost hope in the first inning, when three bases on balls, a passed ball, three errors, a wild pitch, two singles and the mob's able assistance gave to their opponents four runs. In the fourth the latter made three runs on three errors, two passed balls and a single; in the fifth they made four more on three errors, two passed balls and a single; in the fifth they made four more on two errors, a sacrifice, and two hits, one of which was a triple. They scored two more in the eighth on an error and three hits, having out of their twelve scores, only earned one. The Terre Hautes scored one in the fifth on an error and two singles and two in the eighth on three errors, a base on balls and a stolen base.

NOTES.

Conley won Dickhout's valise for the first home run in the games with Evansville.

Springfield takes the Inter-State League pennant for the series ending Saturday. The rest come in: Quincy, Peoria, Burlington and Evansville.

Games yesterday: Baltimore 2, Brooklyn 7; Columbus 6, Athletic 3. The St. Louis-Louisville and the Kansas City-Cincinnati games were postponed on account of rain.

The Polytechnic club played its first game of the season Saturday with a picked nine from the Crescents and several other local players. The game was witnessed by quite a large crowd, mostly ladies. The game resulted 15 to 3 in favor of the picked nine. Schneider played a great game at third and everybody was delighted with the amusement furnished.

HERE AND THERE.

King Malietoa's salary, before he was deposed, amounted to $30 a month.

Factionists Englishmen call the American minister's house in London Lincoln's Inn.

Mr. Selah Chamberlain, of Cleveland, gave his beautiful niece $10,000 as a wedding present.

Marion Crawford, the novelist, is a handsome, stalwart man, who resembles no one so little as a literary man. He stands fully six feet high, is ruddy of face, broad-shouldered and long-limbed, and can walk forty miles at a stretch.

An effort is being made to get Oliver Wendell Holmes to write an autobiography. He refuses on the ground that his works already tell as much of himself as he cares to have the public learn, and that he desires to spend his remaining years in comparative idleness.

Mennonites, of Lancaster county, Penn., selected a minister on Friday by drawing lots. Twenty-one Bibles, one of which contained a slip of paper, were placed on a table, and the candidates walked around and each took a book. The one drawing the slip was ordained.

Dr. Briand, a distinguished young French physician attached to the hospital at Lille, is reported to have effected some wonderful cures of consumption by means of the cold-air cure, which consists mainly in gradually accustoming the patients to exposure until they are able to sleep out in the open air, regardless of the weather.

Archdeacon Farrar's fervid plea for the establishment of an order of mendicant monks in the Episcopal Church in England and the United States meets with a very chilling response from the church organs. After mercilessly ridiculing the whole idea, the Churchman says that even if such an order were desirable, it could not be founded by a well-paid, well-led archdeacon.

Mrs. Charlotte F. Wilbour, formerly president of Sorosis, who has lived in Paris for a number of years, is to be the guest of the other members of the club, at Delmonico's, New York, at a breakfast given in her honor. Mrs. Wilbour recently returned from Europe, and will remain in this country for some time. Mr. Charles Wilbour, her husband, has become somewhat famed as an Egyptologist since his removal from New York, and he spends his winters in Cairo or Alexandria.

In France, when a patient is under chloroform, on the slightest symptoms appearing of failure of the heart, they turn him nearly upside down—that is, with his head downward and his heels in the air. This, they say, always restores him; and such is their faith in the efficacy of this method that the operating tables in the Paris hospitals are made so that in an instant they can be elevated with one end in the air, so as to bring the patient into a position resembling that of standing on his head.

FOR THE STRONG-MINDED.

Mrs. Clara McDiarmid, of Little Rock, president of the Arkansas Woman Suffrage Association, will accompany her son to Ann Arbor, Mich., in the fall. While her son is taking the four years' collegiate course she will enter the law school. There is something very pleasant in the idea of mother and son thus pursuing their studies at the same time.

The Lawrence (Kan.) Tribune has the following words to say of Kansas women: "Although in the front ranks of progress, and having held many important places, and being entrusted with many grave duties, the women of Kansas have never proved recreant to a trust reposed in them, and the first charge even of incompetency has yet to be preferred against one who has been entrusted with a public position."

Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, of Boston, who started upon a tour around the world as a missionary of the W. C. T. U. six years ago, has arrived in England from Cape Town, Africa and was given a reception in London on July 22d by the British Women's Temperance Association. She has organized many temperance unions in the far-off countries visited by her, where none existed before, and has also done much to promote the White Cross and Social Purity movement.

The women of the village of Coopers-town, in Otsego county, N. Y. are no longer to be subject to taxation without representation. A section of the new charter granted them by the last Legislature provides as follows: "Upon any proposition to raise a tax, or appropriate the same or to purchase property, all persons residents of said village, whether male or female, of the age of twenty-one years, whose names appear on the assessment roll and are liable to be assessed for such tax, shall be entitled to vote, and no others."

FREAKS OF FASHION.

The fashion of wearing gloves to match the boots in color, so greatly in vogue in London and Paris, has spread to this side of the water.

A device for the setting of tables for small parties is to have the table round, with a low basket of flowers in the center and decoration of simlax reaching out to the edge in each direction like spokes of a wheel. Each guest has the space between the outer ends of two of the spokes.

At fashionable luncheons now for ladies egg-nog or some similar beverage is served in the skin of an orange. The pulp and juice are scooped out through an opening made in the top of the fruit, the mixed drink is poured in, and the opening closed by the replacing of the piece of skin cut out. Then it is tied with a ribbon. The beverage is drunk by means of two straws, which, tied together with a bit of ribbon, go with each orange.

A fancy of women is to sleep in silk. They have long abjured any other wear for underclothes, and now there are being shown in the shops that cater to all the new whims of the sex sets of silk sheets and pillow-cases in all colors. With these go the beautiful East Indian blankets, woven entirely of raw silk, and down spreads covered with surah or satin. These sheets and pillow-cases are hem-stitched, with a crest or monogram embroidered in one corner. Some of them have a delicate vine embroidered along the edge, or a broad band of Arann work. They are of all delicate colors and white and black.

THE SONG OF THE SCYTHIE.
Mowers, weary and brown and blithe,
What is the word methinks ye know,
Endless overword that the scythie
Sings to the blades of grass below?
Scythes that swing in the grass and clover,
Something still they say as they pass:
What is the word that over any
Sings the scythie to the flowers and grass?

"Hush! ah, hush!" the scythes are saying,
"Hush, and heed not, and fall asleep!"
"Hush!" they say to the grasses swaying,
"Hush!" they sing to the clover deep.
"Hush!" 'tis the lullaby Time is singing,
"Hush, and heed not, for all things pass."
"Hush! ah, hush!" and the scythes are swinging
Over the clover, over the grass.

—Andrew Lang.

POCKET MAP AND SHIPPERS' GUIDE.

What's the Matter with Indiana?

When you can buy RAND, McNALLY & CO.'S NEW AND ENLARGED INDEXED POCKET MAP AND SHIPPERS' GUIDE OF THE STATE FOR 25 CENTS!

It is an absolutely new map, just engraved, with additions and corrections to date. It is double the size of Rand, McNally & Co.'s old Pocket Map of the State, which it replaces, though sold at the same price.

The Map is 21 x 28 inches, on a large scale, colored to distinguish counties, with a thorough and comprehensive index compilation showing, in detail, the entire railroad system, the express company doing business over each road, and accurately locating all cities, towns, post offices, railroad stations, villages, counties, islands, lakes, rivers, etc.

The compilation designates the branch or particular division of railroad upon which each station is situated; the nearest mailing point of all local places, money-order post offices, telegraph stations, and the express company doing business at the points where the several companies have offices.

The map is folded and bound with the index and compilation in a flexible cover. Sent, post paid, to any address, on receipt of price, by
