

RIVALS TAKE BATTLE INTO OPEN FIELDS

Shift In Scene of Great Conflict Expected to Make Tests of Shorter Duration.

CRITICS DEVOTE DISCUSSION TO GERMAN GAIN AT ANTWERP

Admit That Capture Is Important
From Teuton Viewpoint—
Kaiser Claims Rout
of French.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—6:40 a. m.—Except for a flood of vivid details regarding the fall of Antwerp the British public has been practically cut off from news from the front during the past twelve hours. It is felt, however, that events of tremendous moment either are occurring or are impending in the area about Lille where the cavalry of the contending forces has been in violent contact for the past week.

The military critics for the London morning papers devote their space to speculation regarding the utility of Antwerp for German offense or defense. Most of them agree that unless Dutch neutrality is violated Antwerp will be of no more use in forwarding the German proposal of making Zeppelin and naval raids on England than other places in Belgium which have been occupied for some time by the invaders. They agree, however, that for military purposes in the western theatre of war the occupation of Antwerp is of supreme importance to Germany which now will be able to release several divisions to aid the sorely pressed right wing.
Further the capture of the city will insure the lines of communication should retreat be necessary through Belgium.

Additional details of the shelling of Antwerp indicate that the damage was not as great as at first estimated. The damage inflicted on the city by the German artillery may be set off in large measure by the great destruction wrought on German shipping in the harbor by the Belgians. An official communication from Berlin states that no information is available as to the amount of booty taken in the town.

French Cavalry Routed.
The same official statement asserts that on Saturday German cavalry completely routed a French cavalry division west of Lille which indicates that the extreme limit of the western battle is within twenty miles of the strait of Dover.

It is officially announced in Berlin that in the eastern theatre of war all attacks of the first and tenth Russian armies have been repulsed while the same fate was suffered by the Russians when they attempted an outflanking movement by way of Schindwindt, Russia.

South Poland, the Germans claim, their armies have reached the Vistula.
The assertion is also made that the Russians have invented the stories which have been given out regarding great victories at Augustowo and Suwalki.

Petrograd remains silent as to the movements of the Russian armies but hints that secrecy is necessary for the time being because important operations are pending.

Late reports indicate that terrific fighting, partaking of the nature of siege operations, had taken place during the last fortnight around Roye, Lassigny and Albert, the last named place having been completely destroyed. Inspection of the works from which the Germans were driven show that they took the fullest possible advantage of the existing rock in quarries.

Fighting Now in Open.
Now that the opposing forces are engaged in a comparatively level country shorter periods of vigorous fighting will probably produce more decisive results than did the engagements while the opposing lines were renched against each other.

From Austria come reports, by way of Italy, of the rapid onset of Asiatic cholera and of the sufferings being endured by the Austrian troops because of the extreme cold weather.

The Rome newspapers, commenting on the appointment of Gen. Zupelli as Italian minister of war, consider it significant that he should have been born in Cape d'Istria, an Italian province still in the possession of Austria.

Under the new minister it is expected that preparations to place the army on a war footing will be hurried but Italy apparently is still firm in the determination to remain neutral.

NEWS BUT FRAGMENTARY.

Reports From Belgian and Holland
Now Much Doubted.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—1:30 p. m.—The news of German movements between Antwerp and Genoa up to the present is so fragmentary and contradictory as to be almost worthless.

The Germans are maintaining their customary secrecy and reports coming from Belgium and Dutch sources of heavy repulses to the Germans with losses suspiciously large and round in numbers are looked at askance nowadays.

The capture of Ostend would, of course, be worth the possession of many Antwerps to the German plans as it may be taken for granted that it will not enter the popular season.

AERIAL ATTACK AROUSSES PARIS

Extra Precautions Are Ordered as Result of Raid Sunday By Machines of Germans.

FRENCH AVIATORS ARE HELD READY FOR QUICK PURSUITS.

Action Follows Dropping of Bombs
During Which Three Persons Were Killed and Fourteen Hurt.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—6:04 a. m.—The progress of the campaign in the north of France and the fall of Antwerp were forgotten for a moment today by the people of Paris who spent their time discussing the throwing of bombs on the capital from German aeroplanes as a result of which three persons were killed yesterday and fourteen wounded.
At the same time officials adopted measures looking to the prevention of similar acts in the future.

The first thing done was the appointment of General Hirschauer to take charge of the aerial defense of the city. Gen. Hirschauer is an aeronautic expert. He organized last year the aerial branch of the army service.
Later a number of deputies met to consider various means of rendering the city more secure from aeroplane attacks.

The creation of aerial squadrons stationed at Cardinal Point to be always ready to dash after air craft of the enemy as soon as they should be signalled approaching the city, the arming of fast monoplane with quick fire guns and the telephoning of warnings by residents of the capital to the French aero club which is now under military control were among the suggestions discussed. Finally a telegram was sent to Bordeaux urging the immediate adoption of efficacious measures reassuring the people of protection from aerial bombs.

Appear in Broad Daylight.
Military critics, commenting today on the movements of the armies in the Apremont region, declared that the air man in Apremont, to the east of St. Mihiel, is the route the enemy would take if they sought to withdraw from Mt. Mihiel in the direction of Lorraine. Their positions in this vicinity means much to them, it is declared.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—3:46 p. m.—A score of bombs launched on different quarters of the city by German aviators killed three civilians and injured fourteen others. The damage done to property was small.

The alarm appeared soon after noon. One began the attack by dropping a bomb near the northern railway terminal, another in Rue St. Lazare and a third which landed at the rear of the Cathedral of Notre Dame. Three more bombs were hurled by the same air man in the vicinity of the Bourse.
A house was set on fire, but the loss was not great. One of these missiles struck within one hundred yards of an office occupied by American newspaper men.

The second Taube appeared to aim at the cathedral while the other machine attempted to hit the Northern railway station.

Altogether twenty bombs fell. The Germans flew at a very low altitude.
After they apparently had exhausted their supply of missiles, French aeroplanes ascended and pursued them toward the east.

LAZARUS STATIONS.
The heaviest fighting is on the line of Lassigny and Lens. The Germans official reports from Paris say that the allies repulsed German attacks between Arras and the Oise and that cavalry engagements continue in the region of Labasse, Estaires and Hazebrouck.

A bitter struggle to keep the Germans from the coast is inevitable. Today's reports indicate that the German cavalry advance is less than thirty miles distant from Ostend.

Special attention is directed to Ostend. There have assembled the greatest part of the Belgian army and about two-thirds of the British forces that escaped from Antwerp. It is believed that Germany is pushing forward to attack the city with the hope of capturing and using the port in her operations against England.

The strength of the allies at Ostend is not known. It is possible that British reinforcements, which were unable to reach Antwerp in time to help in the defense of that city, are now in Ostend.

Still less is known of the situation on the eastern theatre of war. Petrograd is silent on recent developments.
The Russian war office explains this silence on the grounds of strategy.

Vienna claims that the Russian attack on Przemyśl, the strong fortress in Austrian Galicia, has failed.

Neutral sources report that cholera is spreading in Austria.

German air men dropped two bombs in Paris this morning. The missiles struck in the yards of the Northern railway station but failed to explode.

Two Great Generals Face Each Other in East Prussia

GENERAL RENNENKAMP.

GENERAL VON HINDENBURG.

GERMANS REPORT ROUT OF CAVALRY DIVISION

Say French West of Lille Were Decisively Defeated and Another Division Suffered.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—9:50 a. m.—A dispatch to Reuters Telegram Co. from Berlin via Amsterdam, gives the following statement which was issued last night by the German general staff:

"Our cavalry on Saturday completely routed a French cavalry division west of Lille, and near Hazebrouck we inflicted severe losses on another French cavalry division. Until now the engagements are the front in the western theater did not lead to a decision.

"About the booty at Antwerp no communications can be made as information still fails. Neither can the number of British or Belgian troops who crossed the Dutch frontier be fixed."

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—(By wireless to Sayville).—The general staff of the German army announced today that in the beginning a very strong garrison defended Antwerp with great energy but that after the attack by German infantry and marine divisions, the defenders fled in full route. Among the Antwerp garrison was one British marine brigade.

The complete collapse of the Anglo-Belgian defense of Antwerp was shown by the fact that no military authority could be found with which to treat concerning the surrender of the city. This surrender was finally negotiated with the burgomaster.

It is impossible to give as yet the number of prisoners taken with Antwerp. Many of the defenders were decorated with the order of merit for his capture of Antwerp, has issued a proclamation addressed to the people saying no one would be harmed unless they committed hostilities upon the Germans.

"Resistance," he said, "will cause the destruction of your beautiful city."

Private property in Antwerp was spared.

The following information has been given out in Berlin:

"Reports received here Vienna set forth that the Russian siege of Przemysl fortress has been abandoned. Austrian troops have defeated six Russian divisions near Lancut. They also routed one division of Cossacks east of Nyamno."

BELGIANS INTERNED.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—9:52 a. m.—Sixteen hundred Belgian soldiers, non-commissioned officers and men, arrived at the Hague today according to a dispatch from that city to Reuters Telegram Co.

BOSTON SCENE OF BIG SERIES

Rival Forces Move to Lair of Braves
For Third Title
Combat.

ATHLETICS, WITH BACKS TO WALL, PLAN HARD STRUGGLE.

Crowd of 35,000 Expected to Pack Fenway Park—Players Report Themselves in Good Condition.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—Fenway park, scene of memorable games in the world's series of 1912, today stages the third game in the series of 1914 between the Boston Braves, winners of the National league, and the Philadelphia Athletics, American champions.

It was almost a last ditch defense which the men from Philadelphia prepared to make this afternoon, as their opponents had won both of the games already played. Victorious today, the Bostonians would need only one game to gain the world's baseball honors.

Weather conditions could not have been better. A bright sun developed an atmosphere of summer, tempered somewhat by a cooling breeze from the southwest.

Thousands of persons moved on Fenway park this morning to join the hundreds who had held places during the night in lines that led to the bleacher entrances. The first few arrived at noon yesterday; by night the waiting numbered a score; at midnight the line was 200 strong, and as the sun rose over the back bay there were more than 500 people in six lines. Some slept on the ground; others had brought straw; a few had equipped themselves with comforters. Bonfires were started, but they were extinguished by the police. There were nearly 20,000 rush seats, 5,000 of which were to be had for 50 cents each. The others sold for $1. It was required the purchaser should enter the grounds immediately. With 15,000 grand stand seats disposed of indications were that the number of spectators would be about 35,000. This would mean receipts of $65,000.

Braves Strong Favorite.
Boston went into this afternoon's game a strong favorite for the series.

Only desperate measures, it was believed, could bring the champions on even terms with the Braves and those they were prepared to take. The Athletics, one of the fastest teams in baseball, have stolen only one base in two games. This was one department of

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR ILLINOIS SUICIDE

Lifeless Body of Harry Woods Found by Wife in Garage—Had Been Heavy Dealer in Grain.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Harry Woods, one of the democratic senatorial candidates at the September primary and former operator on the Chicago board of trade, killed himself early yesterday morning. His lifeless body with a gaping bullet wound in the center of the forehead and an automatic pistol clutched in his right hand was discovered early today lying in the tool room of a garage in the rear of his residence.

John J. Coffey, assistant chief clerk in the auditor's office, was put in charge of the office of secretary of state, following a conference between Gov. Dunne and Auditor Brady.

An examination of the accounts of the office will be started at once. The last return by Secretary Woods was on June 30 when the total was $270,- 566 for the quarter. No return had been made for the quarter ending Sept. 30.

The ghastly find was made by Mrs.
Woods, who had become alarmed at his absence from home since 6 o'clock Sunday morning without any word of explanation as to where he had gone.

Going to the garage Mrs. Woods found her husband's bunch of keys in the door, locked on the inside. There are two small rooms at the rear of the garage—one a tool room and the other the chauffeur's bedroom. Mrs. Woods called a neighbor, Walter A. Towns, an editor of a local newspaper, and together they sought entrance to the building. A door was forced and in the corner of the tool room the body of the secretary of state was found.

No note of explanation was left by Secretary Woods and the only clue which would give a possible indication for a cause of the tragic deed was a bulky bundle of papers, showing extensive dealings in grain through a Chicago brokerage house.

Mrs. Woods could assign no motive for her husband's death.
