QUEEN OF BELGIANS HAS NOT LEFT COUNTRY AS REPORTED.

Definite Information Reaches London That She Is Still in Ostend—King Albert Moves About.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—2 p. m.—Definite information has been received here that the queen of the Belgians, notwithstanding the report last week that she had reached England, has not left Ostend for London.

In the course of the operations around Antwerp last week King Albert proceeded to St. Nicholas, an important place on the railroad line between Antwerp and Ghent, and beyond the outer range of the Antwerp forts. His majesty was at St. Nicholas as late as last Thursday morning. His subsequent journey westward was in company with Belgian troops whose withdrawal in that direction had been rendered necessary by the overwhelming forces opposed by them.

DELANVAN'S COMET VISIBLE.
Located in West Near Handle of "Big Dipper."

GENEVA, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Dr. William R. Brooks, director of Smith observatory and professor of astronomy at Hobart college, said today that Delavan's comet can now be well seen with the naked eye in the western evening sky. It is ten degrees below the last star in the handle of the "big dipper" and moving toward the bright star Arcturus, above which the comet will pass on October 26.
