

ARCHDUKE'S ASSASSIN IS HELD FOR TREASON

Indictment Has Been Returned Against Him and Twenty-One of His Accomplices.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—12:10 p. m.— Reuter's Telegram company has received via Amsterdam a dispatch from Sarajevo, Bosnia, saying that the indictment against Gavrilo Princip, the assassin of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, together with twenty-one of his accomplices, has been read in Sarajevo.

The men are charged with high treason in connection with the assassination of the archduke. Three other persons have been charged with being cognizant of the plot and of having concealed weapons with which the outrage was perpetrated.

The indictment deals at length with the Serbian society called Narodna Odbrana in Belgrade, which organized the conspiracy, with methods by which the bombs and weapons were smuggled into Bosnia, and relates how the conspirators at Sarajevo recruited their accomplices, distributed their weapons and took their places on the street to await the coming of the archducal party.

Princip under examination admitted that with a second bullet he intended to kill Field Marshal Oskar Potiorek, the governor of Bosnia, but that he used it for the archduchess.

SITUATION AT BESIEGED CITY OF NACO REMAINS UNCHANGED

Such is Report of Colonel Hatfield, Who Commands U. S. Troops on The Arizona Border.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Colonel Hatfield, commanding the American troops on the Arizona border, reported to the war department early today that the situation at the besieged Mexican town of Naco was unchanged.

"Desultory firing continued throughout the night," the dispatch said. "It is impossible to prevent bullets from falling on the American side as long as firing is continued. A shrapnel shell passed through the rear of an unoccupied house near the border. It was an accident and the fire was corrected immediately upon demand."

"In addition to the two men wounded some time ago, a corporal has been shot in the thumb."

WILL SELL MINING STOCK.

Miss Laura E. Shryer, administratrix of the estate of her father, the late William Shryer, was granted permission by Judge Swango Tuesday morning to dispose of certain mining stocks belonging to the estate at private sale and at a figure not less than the appraised value. There were 302 shares of stock in western mining companies and the value was placed at $146.24.

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist.
As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Excessive acidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking one or two tea-spoonfuls of a reliable, non-digestible antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisulphate of magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—

COZART GIVES $1,000 BONDS BEFORE HALL

Arrested by Local Police After Release Under Habeas Corpus Proceedings at Vincennes.

M. W. Cozart, who figured in the United States commissioners' court before Commissioner Orph M. Hall last spring, as the result of an indictment returned against him by a federal grand jury at Aberdeen, Miss., on a charge of violating the postal laws, was again placed under arrest by the police Monday afternoon on the strength of a telegram from W. C.
Watson, postoffice inspector of Aberdeen, but was released shortly afterward by Commissioner Hall under $1,000 bail, which Cozart furnished in cash. Cozart, who is organizing a company to build a tele plant near Merom, was arrested at Vincennes last week on a telegram from Aberdeen, and after staying in jail forty-two hours was released on habeas corpus, although he had a certified check for $10,000, which was refused when he offered it for bail. The arrest here Monday afternoon followed an attempt to arrest him at Merom by the mayor of Vincennes and a man accompanying him, on the original charge, against him of violating the postal laws.

Arrested by Police.
Cozart came to Terre Haute after his release at Vincennes and told Commissioner Hall that he was going to be in this vicinity and if any demand was made for his arrest, he would report at the commissioner's office. Yesterday he telephoned to Hall from Merom that two private citizens from Vincennes were trying to arrest him, and asking whether they had authority to do so. Hall called the men to the phone and told them that if they attempted the arrest they did so at their peril, and Cozart at once started for Terre Haute in his automobile. He reached the city limits at 3 o'clock and was met by the police who arrested him on the telegram from the postal inspector. Watson directed in a telegram to the commissioner that Cozart be held on $10,000 bail, but the official fixed it at $1,000. An United States marshal appeared from Indianapolis and was present at the proceedings before the commissioner.

Charges Persecution.
Cozart was originally indicted in Mississippi on what he claims is a case of political persecution, growing out of a fight against the present governor of that state, and the men under indictment with him on the postal violation charge are under $50,000 bonds there, the indictments, he claims, having been secured by political opponents. He says that if he went back to Mississippi he would be put under a million dollar bonds under various charges. He told Inspector Watson during Monday's hearing that if Watson would guarantee that he would not be killed he would go back to Mississippi at once.
The case against Cozart on which he was originally indicted was set for hearing last week, but he was unable to attend because of illness, and he sent an affidavit to that effect. The court, however, refused to accept it until he had communicated with the hotel keeper at Merom where Cozart was confined to bed, who made a statement verifying the illness.

GULLEY FLAYS STAND-PATTERS

Terre Haute progressives became hopelessly divided through sheer inability to master conditions that were developed to destroy them.
"But it is all different today. The progressive party in Vigo county now knows its friends. They are together under a single banner and nothing can stop their success Nov. 3. The machinations of the plotters have failed, the progressive party in this county is far stronger than it was in 1912. Do not be deceived."

Dr. W. L. Swadener, progressive chairman of Fayette township, said that there was no evidence of false registrations in Fayette township. The total voting strength of the township is about 900 and of this number 879 registered.

Mr. Gully and Mr. Gleason will speak Tuesday evening at the progressive meeting at North Terre Haute, in Otter Creek township.

The speakers predicted the largest progressive vote ever cast in the county on the coming election day and the progressive leaders were urged to keep up their work early and late until the last nook in the county had been canvassed.

Colored Pastor Speaks at Meeting at Headquarters.
Rev. M. W. Sparks, pastor of the Spruce Street A. M. E. church, was the principal speaker at a meeting of republicans held at headquarters at 525 1/2 Ohio street, Monday night, which tested the capacity of the rooms. Rev.
Mr. Kennard, a colored minister of the Third ward, was another speaker, whose remarks were addressed to the colored voters, as were those of George Fisher, the former slave. Charles L.

Pulliam, candidate for judge; George W. Greenleaf, former councilman; Jas.
A. Colter, of Indianapolis, and Charles R. Hunter also addressed the meeting.
The colored minister said, "The colored man belongs to the republican party. The republican party promises more to the negro than any of the other political parties."

HONEY CREEK TICKET.

Progressives Put Candidates Under Name of Citizens Party.
Albert Curry for trustee, George W.
Bevis for assessor, William Kennett for road supervisor and John M. Pollitt, William M. Hughes and Frank M.
Smith for members of the advisory board were named as the progressive township candidates in Honey Creek township in a petition filed with County Clerk Joyce, Monday afternoon.
The name adopted for the ticket is the "Citizens Party Ticket," and a pair of scales was selected for the emblem.
The progressives were not represented in the primaries last May and were therefore required to nominate by petition. It is the second nomination of the kind in the township, Thomas A.
Anderson, present democratic incumbent of the trustees' office, having filed his nomination by petition on Saturday.
